MARVIN LEWIS — Head Coach

Marvin Lewis is in his eighth season as Bengals head coach — tying for the longest tenure in franchise history — and he heads into 2010 as the reigning NFL Coach of the Year.

Lewis led the Bengals to a 10-6 record and the AFC North Division championship in 2009.

He earned the major share of Coach of the Year awards, winning the flagship Associated Press honor (given annually since 1957) while also getting nods from Sports Illustrated and Pro Football Weekly. Pro Football Writers Association. The Bengals were unbeaten in division play (6-0) for the first time in franchise history.

"I'm very flattered to receive the honors," Lewis said, "but there are a lot of people here who should also take a bow. And while we're proud of the season we had, we didn't get beyond our first goal (winning a division championship). There is a lot more for us to accomplish in 2010."

Lewis' Bengals lost in the Wild Card round of the 2009 playoffs, falling 24-14 to the visiting New York Jets, but the team was kept on course during the regular season despite three tragedies that befell the franchise. In September, a tsunami in Samoa affected the lives of several Bengals players with ties to the area. In October, defensive coordinator Mike Zimmer suffered the sudden death of Vikki Zimmer, his wife of 27 years. And in December, WR Chris Henry died in an auto accident while visiting his fiancé's family in North Carolina.

"We did all we could to keep the players focused on our football task while we gave honor and support to our family members in need," Lewis said. "We are fortunate to have a great group of players and coaches who could come together and stay strong."

In 2010, Lewis ties Bengals founder Paul Brown (1968-75) and Sam Wyche (1984-91) for most seasons as Bengals head coach. He has posted 56 wins in his first seven seasons, second in club history, and he could pass Wyche (64-68) into first place with nine wins in 2010.

The Bengals' 2009 AFC North title was their second under Lewis — they also won in 2005 — and Lewis' record entering 2010 is 56-55-1 in regular season, 0-2 in postseason and 56-57-1 overall.

Lewis is tied for fifth in the NFL for current consecutive seasons as a head coach (eight).

Under Lewis, the Bengals have maintained popularity numbers that lead the Cincinnati charts.

The team enters 2010 with a franchise-record streak of 53 consecutive home sellouts (regular season and postseason), and for the last 85 TV ratings weeks that have included a Bengals game, the Bengals have each week been the top-rated show of all programming in Cincinnati. The sellout streak began in 2003, Lewis' first season, and the TV ratings streak began in '04.

Lewis was named the ninth head coach in Bengals history on Jan. 14, 2003, becoming at the time the eighth African-American to become an NFL head coach. In recognition of the 8-8 Bengals being the NFL's most improved team in 2003, Lewis finished second behind

Bill Belichick of Super Bowl champion New England in Associated Press Coach of the Year voting.

Lewis came to the Bengals with credentials as a record-setting NFL defensive coordinator who had earned a Super Bowl championship ring. His six seasons

LEWIS VISITS U.S. TROOPS

Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis, long recognized for his support of the U.S. armed services, joined three other NFL head coaches earlier this summer on a USO tour to meet and greet troops in Afghanistan and Germany.

Lewis has organized numerous Bengals involvements with military personnel, including a past trip with several Bengals players to visit wounded soldiers at major hospitals in Washington, D.C.

"Our military personnel make significant sacrifices on a daily basis to protect and ensure our freedom," Lewis said. "This USO trip was one small step that I could take to say 'thank you.' I don't know that you'd call it a 'sacrifice' on my part, because I very much enjoyed the experience, but I hope my presence was helpful in letting our troops know how much they are appreciated back home."

Also on this summer's tour were coaches Brad Childress (Minnesota Vikings), John Fox (Carolina Panthers) and Andy Reid (Philadelphia Eagles).

(1996-2001) as defensive coordinator with the Baltimore Ravens included a Super Bowl victory in the 2000 season.

In the 2000 regular season, Lewis' defense set the NFL record for fewest points allowed in a 16-game campaign (165), clipping 22 points off the previous mark. The 2000 Ravens are always an entry in discussions regarding the best NFL defenses of all time.

In 2002, the season before he joined the Bengals, Lewis led the Washington Redskins to a No. 5 NFL defensive ranking, serving as assistant head coach as well as defensive coordinator.

He had his first NFL assignment from 1992-95, as linebackers coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

Lewis began his coaching career as linebackers coach at his alma mater, Idaho State, from 1981-84. ISU's team (also nicknamed the Bengals) finished 12-1 during Lewis' first season and won the NCAA Division 1-AA championship.

Lewis played LB at Idaho State, earning All-Big Sky Conference honors for three consecutive years (1978-80). He also saw action at quarterback and free safety during his college career. He received his bachelor's degree in physical education from Idaho State in 1981, and earned his master's in athletic administration in '82. He was inducted into Idaho State's Hall of Fame in 2001.

Born Sept. 23, 1958, Lewis attended Fort Cherry High School in McDonald, Pa. (near Pittsburgh), where he was an all-conference quarterback and safety. He also earned high school letters in wrestling and baseball. He and his wife, Peggy, have a daughter, Whitney, and a son, Marcus.

Marvin Lewis Community Fund is going strong

Head coach Marvin Lewis has reached out to strengthen the franchise's ties to the community, making more than 300 appearances in his first seven years while also encouraging the players to become engaged.

In 2003, he launched the highly successful Marvin Lewis Community Fund (MLCF). Since its inception, the MLCF has donated more than $5.5 million, touched the lives of over 310,000 individuals, and is proud to invest 93 cents of every dollar back into the community.

The Community Fund has eight outreach programs that seek to empower, educate and inspire young people in the region.

Its signature program, Learning is Cool (LIC), was launched in 2008 and has seen great success in two years. The educational incentive program — in which the MLCF and the Bengals partner with Cincinnati Public Schools — rewards students for strong academic performance and has helped increase the amount of achievements on the "A" honor roll by 35 percent from year one to year two.

In 2009, Coach Lewis was the first coach to receive the national Steve Patterson Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy, recognizing the impact his work has on the community and the example he sets for all of professional sports.

The MLCF's proudest accomplishments include awarding four-year, $20,000 college scholarships to 36 outstanding student-athletes who may not have had the opportunity to further their education, due to financial constraints.

A partial list of organizations Coach Lewis and the MLCF have supported includes:

Cincinnati Public Schools, Youth Inc., Minorities in Mathematics, Science and Engineering, SUCCESS by 6, the National

Multiple Sclerosis Society, Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati, Autism Society, Boys Hope Girls Hope, the Cincinnati Public Library, FreeStore/FoodBank, Over-the-Rhine Chamber of Commerce, the NAACP, the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, ProScan Pink Ribbon Center, Children's Home of Cincinnati, National Football Foundation, Project Connect and Cincinnati Children's Hospital. PAUL ALEXANDER — Assistant Head Coach/Offensive Line

Paul Alexander is in his 17th season on the Bengals coaching staff, tied for third-most in Bengals history among head coaches, coordinators and position coaches. The only Bengals coaches with more seasons are current RBs coach Jim Anderson (27) and former head coach and assistant Dick LeBeau (19). Tied with Alexander at 17 seasons is former head coach and assistant Bruce Coslet.

Alexander is in his 16th straight season as offensive line coach, and he is also the team's assistant head coach, promoted to that position in 2003 when Marvin Lewis took over as head coach.

Alexander's offensive line was rated a question mark entering the 2009 season, as RG Bobbie Williams was the only player returning to the same primary spot he played in '08. Season-opening OTs Andrew Whitworth and Anthony Collins had only 19 career OT starts between them, and C Kyle Cook was a second-year pro whose only action in five career games had been on special teams.

Adjustments were necessary as the season went on. Second-year pro Dennis Roland took over the ROT spot. At LG, second-year pro Nate Livings and fifth-year player Evan Mathis rotated. Meanwhile, Alexander continued to work with OT Andre Smith, whose anticipated contribution as a first-round draft choice was delayed by protracted contract talks and later a foot injury.

But the results in the end were a success, as the line strongly supported a 10-6 Bengals record and the AFC North Division title. Cincinnati's run blocking helped spring eight rushing games of 100 or more yards by individual backs, breaking the franchise record of six. Three different rushers combined for those eight 100-yarders, only the second time in club history that three rushers had a 100-yard game in a season.

The leader of the pack was HB Cedric Benson, whose six 100-yarders broke the club record for one individual. But when Benson missed Games 10 and 11 with a hip injury, the Bengals still did not lack for 100-yard performances, as rookie Bernard Scott rushed for 119 on Nov. 22 at Oakland and veteran Larry Johnson gained 107 on Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland. After the Browns game, Johnson said:

"It was only my second game (as a Bengal), and every time I took the ball to the right place, the hole was there, just like it was drawn up."

Also in 2009, the line led pass protection that ranked ninth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (29). And twice since 2005, the Bengals have set new franchise records for fewest sacks allowed, led by a record 17 in '07.

On Oct. 22, 2000, Alexander's line shared the glory of a 278-yard rushing game by HB Corey Dillon vs. Denver. It was an NFL record at the time, and it still stands fourth in league annals entering the 2010 season. The Bengals' 407 total rushing yards in that game rank as the fifth-highest single-game total in NFL history, and as the most rushing yards in 59 years. The last team to top it was the New York Giants, who gained 423 against Baltimore in 1950.

Alexander began his NFL coaching career in 1992 as tight ends coach of the N.Y. Jets, under head coach Bruce Coslet. When Coslet moved to Cincinnati as offensive coordinator in 1994, Alexander joined him, in the role of Bengals tight ends coach.

But Alexander's first love in football was always the offensive line. He was afforded the chance to take over that job for the Bengals in 1995, and has held it ever since.

Alexander is a product of distinguished teachers. He coached under Joe Paterno at Penn State and Bo Schembechler at Michigan. He also was offensive line coach at Central Michigan, a school whose coach, Herb Deromedi, ranks with Paterno and Schembechler among the winningest coaches in NCAA Division I history.

Alexander's birthdate is Feb. 12, 1960. He's a native of Rochester, N.Y., where he attended Cardinal Mooney High School. He was an Academic All-American at Cortland State (N.Y.) and holds a master's degree in exercise physiology from Penn State. Off the field, he is actively involved with the Boy Scouts, the D.A.R.E. program and high school linemen camps.

He and his wife, Kathy, have three daughters — Mary Beth, Carolyn and Emily.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1979-

81: Played offensive tackle at Cortland State. 1983-84: Graduate assistant, Penn State. 1985-86: Graduate assistant, Michigan. 1987-91: Assistant coach (AC), Central Michigan. 1992-93: AC, New York Jets. 1994-2002: AC, Bengals. 2003-present: Assistant head coach/offensive line coach, Bengals.

LOOKING AHEAD — BENGALS' 2011 OPPONENTS

Opponents for 14 of the Bengals' 16 regular-season games in 2011 have been determined:

HOME: Baltimore, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Arizona, Houston, Indianapolis, San Francisco.

ROAD: Baltimore, Cleveland, Pittsburgh, Jacksonville, St. Louis, Seattle, Tennessee.

The remaining two 2011 opponents will be assigned according to the 2010 final standings. The Bengals will play at home against the AFC East team that finishes in the same position as Cincinnati, and the Bengals will play on the road against the AFC West team that matches their '10 position.

BOB BRATKOWSKI — Offensive Coordinator

Bob Bratkowski is in his 10th year as Bengals offensive coordinator, coming off a 2009 season during which the club met a goal of re-establishing a strong running game and rode it to an AFC North Division championship.

Though the offensive line was rated a question mark entering the season, due to position switches and lack of experience, the unit came together quickly and helped the offense set a franchise record of eight 100-yard rushing games by individual backs. The previous mark had been six.

Three different rushers combined for those eight 100-yarders, only the second time in club history that three rushers had a 100-yard game in the same season.

The leader of the pack was HB Cedric Benson, whose six 100-yarders broke the club record for one individual. But when Benson missed Games 10 and 11 with a hip injury, the Bengals still did not lack for 100-yard performances, as rookie Bernard Scott rushed for 119 on Nov. 22 at Oakland and veteran Larry Johnson gained 107 on Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland.

Benson, despite playing only 12 full games and part of another, finished with 1251 rushing yards, seventh-best in club history. His role as a workhorse back helped the offense average nearly four minutes more possession time than its opponents for the season (31:59 to 28:01).

The Bengals' 2009 pass protection ranked ninth in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed (29). And twice since 2005, the Bengals have set new franchise records for fewest sacks allowed, led by a record 17 in 2007.

Though Cincinnati's overall passing numbers were not flashy in 2009, WR Chad Ochocinco led the team with 72 receptions for 10427 yards and was selected for the Pro Bowl. And Bratkowski has plenty of expertise to draw upon as the team looks for a more balanced attack in 2010. In three of the past five seasons, the Bengals have been in the NFL's top seven in passing offense and in the top 10 in total offense.

Besides Ochocinco, six other Bengals offensive players have been selected for the Pro Bowl during Bratkowski's term as coordinator. The list includes OT Willie Anderson, HB Corey Dillon, WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh, HB Rudi Johnson, FB Lorenzo Neal and QB Carson Palmer.

In 2007, Palmer became the fifth-fastest player (59 games) in NFL history to reach the 100 mark in TD passes. Palmer knocked Brett Favre and Daunte Culpepper out of the top five in the category, and joined a group that also includes two Hall of Famers (Dan Marino and Johnny Unitas), a surefire future Hall of Famer (Peyton Manning) and a Super Bowl winner with Hall of Fame potential (Kurt Warner).

Over 2004-06, Rudi Johnson's 4221 rushing yards were the most by any Bengal in a three-season span. Earlier under Bratkowski's watch, Dillon posted a pair of 1300-yard seasons, and QB Jon Kitna saw his stock as an NFL starter revived.

Bratkowski (pronounced "brat-COW-skee") has been an NFL coach since 1992, and he was coordinator of the University of Miami's NCAA champion offenses in '89 and '91. He entered the NFL ranks in 1992 at Seattle, and was with the Seahawks through '98. He spent the 1999 and 2000 seasons as wide receivers coach with the Pittsburgh Steelers before joining the Bengals in '01.

At Seattle in 1997, he was coordinator for the NFL's top passing offense (247.4 yards per game). The team ranked third in the NFL in total offense. Seattle also established club season records in '97 for most yards passing (4187) and completions (359). The Seahawks were second in the NFL in first downs (331).

Prior to his 1992 hiring by Seattle, Bratkowski spent 14 years as a college coach, including offensive coordinator assignments at Weber State, Wyoming and Washington State, in addition to Miami.

As a college player, Bratkowski was a three-year letterman as a wide receiver at Washington State. His father, Zeke, played quarterback for 14 seasons in the NFL, seeing action for the Bears, Rams and Packers.

Bratkowski was born Dec. 2, 1955, in San Angelo, Texas. Bob and his wife, Rebecca, have two children — son Shane and daughter Courtney.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1975-77: Played wide receiver at Washington State. 1978-80: Assistant coach (AC), Missouri. 1981-85: Offensive coordinator, Weber State. 1986: Offensive coordinator, Wyoming. 1987-88: Offensive coordinator, Washington State. 1989-91: Offensive coordinator, Miami (Fla.). 1992-94: AC, Seattle Seahawks. 1995-98: Offensive coordinator, Seattle Seahawks. 1999-2000: AC, Pittsburgh Steelers. 2001-present: Offensive coordinator, Bengals.

UNPREDICTABLE PLAYOFF PARTICIPANTS

The 2009 season saw six NFL teams — Cincinnati, Dallas, Green Bay, New England, New Orleans and the New York Jets — reach the playoffs after failing to qualify for the postseason in 2008.

In each of the last 14 seasons, at least five NFL teams have made the playoffs after not reaching the postseason the year before.

Mike Zimmer is in his third season as Bengals defensive coordinator, coming off a 2009 season during which his unit's performance earned him Assistant Coach of the Year honors from Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers and from CBSsports.com. He also won the assistant of the year award from FOX broadcaster and Hall of Fame quarterback Terry Bradshaw.

Supporting the Bengals' run to the AFC North championship, the defense ranked No. 4 in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (301.4 per game) and led the team to a No. 6 ranking in scoring defense (18.2). The yardage ranking was the franchise's best since 1983, and the scoring ranking was the second-highest for the Bengals.

Zimmer and head coach Marvin Lewis set a specific goal of improving the club's rush defense, and the goal was met. After ranking 21st in rush defense in 2008, with an average of 120.1 yards allowed per game, the Bengals improved to No. 7 in the NFL in '09, with a 98.3-yard average yield that was Cincinnati's best since 1983.

Add in a pass defense ranking of No. 6 (203.1 yards per game), and the Bengals were in the top 10 in all three major yardage rankings for the first time since 1989. The defense's rushing performance included a club-record streak of eight straight games holding opponents under 100 yards.

It was the second straight year of strong improvement for the defense under Zimmer. In 2008, his first Bengals season, the defense rose from 27th in yards allowed to 12th. Looking to 2010, Zimmer says:

"If things continue to go as I envision, we'll be a club that can contend. We have to get better in some areas, but with the group of guys we have coming back, I feel pretty good, and I think they'll be better in the system because we're not going to change a bunch of things."

Zimmer is in his 17th season as an NFL coach, and 2010 marks his 11th straight year as a coordinator. He was Dallas defensive coordinator from 2000-06, including four years ('03-06) under head coach Bill Parcells. Zimmer moved to the Atlanta Falcons as coordinator in 2007, and when the Falcons had a head coaching change for '08, staff members were free to pursue other opportunities. Zimmer signed with the Bengals on Jan. 15, 2008.

Zimmer joined the NFL with Dallas in 1994, working his first six seasons as secondary coach.

He led top-10 defenses for Dallas in both the 4-3 and 3-4 schemes. His 4-3 defenses finished No. 4 in net yards allowed (287.4) in 2001 and No. 1 in '03 (253.5)

And in 2005, Zimmer installed a 3-4 scheme, marking the Cowboys' first departure from the 4-3 since the club was founded in 1960. In that transition year, Dallas finished 10th in the NFL in total defense (300.9 yards allowed per game).

Six times during Zimmer's tenure as secondary coach and coordinator, the Cowboys finished fifth or better in the NFL in scoring defense. The No. 1-ranked yardage defense that he coordinated in 2003 was No. 2 in league scoring defense (16.3). Three of those Dallas defenses led the NFL in fewest passing yards. Also during that tenure, Zimmer guided the careers of eight defensive players who made a combined total of 23 Pro Bowl appearances.

Zimmer earned a Super Bowl ring as secondary coach with the 1995 Cowboys team that defeated Pittsburgh in Super Bowl XXX. One of Zimmer's players, unheralded CB Larry Brown, won the game MVP award with a pair of interceptions.

Zimmer coached 15 years in the college ranks before joining the Cowboys, working at Missouri, Weber State and Washington State.

The 2010 season is Zimmer's 31st in coaching, and he has been a defensive coordinator at the college or pro level for 21 of those campaigns.

Zimmer was born on June 5, 1956, in Peoria, Ill. He played QB and later LB at Illinois State. He has three children — son Adam and daughters Corri and Marki. Adam Zimmer earned a Super Bowl ring last season as defensive assistant/linebackers coach for the New Orleans Saints. Mike's father, Bill, made the Illinois Hall of Fame as a prep football and wrestling coach.

IN MEMORIAM: On Oct. 8, 2009, Zimmer's wife, Vikki, died unexpectedly in Cincinnati. The Zimmers had been married for 27 years, with three children. With the support of his family and the Bengals team, Zimmer was able to continue coaching through the '09 season. "Vikki was a warm and popular person in the Bengals family," said Bengals president Mike Brown, "and our immense respect and affection for Mike made this especially difficult. We hold Mike and his family in our hearts." The Pro Football Writers of America recognized Zimmer's ordeal and the defense's performance by voting him the organization's Halas Award, which goes annually to the individual in the NFL who overcame the most adversity to succeed.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1974-76: Played QB and later LB at Illinois State. 1979-80: Assistant coach (AC), Missouri. 1981-82: AC, Weber State. 1983-88: Defensive coordinator, Weber State. 1989-93: Defensive coordinator, Washington State. 1994-99: AC, Dallas Cowboys. 2000-06: Defensive coordinator, Dallas Cowboys. 2007: Defensive coordinator, Atlanta Falcons. 2008-present: Defensive coordinator, Bengals.

JIM ANDERSON — Running Backs

Jim Anderson is in his 27th year as Bengals running backs coach. He is the only Bengal to log even as many as 20 seasons as a position coach, coordinator and/or head coach. He has coached a long line of Bengals running backs to outstanding performances, with five earning spots in the Pro Bowl, and over the past two seasons, he has guided a notable comeback for Cedric Benson, a high first-round draft pick who had struggled to break through in three seasons with Chicago.

Benson had his first full year with the Bengals in 2009, and despite missing three games and half of another contest, he rushed for 1251 yards, seventh-most in team history. The top 13 individual rushing seasons in Bengals history have all been accomplished by backs coached by Anderson.

Benson set a club record in 2009 with six games of 100 or more rushing yards, and perhaps even more instructive of Anderson's influence, the team set a record of eight individual 100-yard games. In the first two full games Benson missed last season, the Bengals had a 100-yard rusher in each. Rookie Bernard Scott, a sixth-round draft choice, logged one 100-yarder, and the other came from seventh-year NFL veteran Larry Johnson, who had been signed by the Bengals less than two weeks before as a free agent.

Among current NFL position coaches, Anderson has the most years with his team. He joined the Bengals in 1984, after 13 seasons as a college coach. He has worked under five Bengals head coaches — Sam Wyche, Dave Shula, Bruce Coslet, Dick LeBeau and Marvin Lewis.

Anderson has been the coach in charge of nearly every running back listed in the Bengals record book. His roster of Pro Bowl backs includes:

► James Brooks (played 1984-91, four Pro Bowls): Amassed 6447 yards with a stellar average of 4.8 yards per carry, and he was one of the best receiving RBs in NFL history, with 297 catches for 3012 yards as a Bengal.

► Harold Green (played 1990-95, one Pro Bowl): Ranks fifth in Bengals rushing yards (3727) and made the Pro Bowl after the '92 season with 1170 yards and a 4.4 average ► Corey Dillon (played 1997-2003, three Pro Bowls): Leads Bengals in all-time rushing yards (8061) and held one of the NFL's glamour records when he rushed for then-league best 278 yards vs. Denver in 2000.

► Lorenzo Neal (played 2001-02): Earned his first Pro Bowl berth in '02, as lead blocker for Corey Dillon's 1311 rushing yards.

► Rudi Johnson (played 2001-07, one Pro Bowl): Johnson posted the two top rushing seasons in Bengals history (1458 and 1454 yards), and his 4221 yards over 2004-06 are the most by any Bengal in a three-year span.

Anderson is also one of the coaches behind the NFL's top team rushing performance in the last 59 years. On Oct. 22, 2000, when Corey Dillon rushed for 278 yards vs. Denver, the team gained 407 on the ground. It's the fifth-most rushing yards in NFL history and stands entering 2010 as the most since 1950, when the N.Y. Giants gained 423 against Baltimore.

In addition, Anderson coached Ickey Woods, who was a league-wide sensation as a rookie in 1988 before having his career derailed by an '89 knee injury.

Anderson's coaching excellence was recognized following the 2001 season when he was interviewed for the Stanford University head coaching job. Anderson was on the Stanford coaching staff from 1980-83.

Anderson's troops won NFL rushing titles in 1988 and '89, and won the AFC rushing crown in '86. From 1986-90, the Bengals finished 2-4-1-1-5 in league rushing.

Anderson was born March 27, 1948, in Harrisburg, Pa. He graduated from Cal Western with a degree in physical education, and has a lifetime teaching certificate in California. Jim and his wife, Marcia, have a son, Derek.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1967-69: Linebacker-defensive end at Cal Western (U.S. International). 1970-71: Assistant coach (AC), Cal Western. 1972: Defensive coordinator, Morse High School (San Diego). 1973: AC, Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College. 1974-75: AC, Nevada-Las Vegas. 1976-79: AC, Southern Methodist. 1980-83: AC, Stanford. 1984-present: AC, Bengals.

KYLE CASKEY — Offensive Quality Control

Kyle Caskey joins the Bengals for 2010, taking on the duties of offensive quality control coach in his first NFL assignment.

Caskey comes to Cincinnati from the University of Mississippi, where he served in 2009 as a defensive assistant working with safeties and quality control.

In addition to his on-field work, he handled all opponent offensive breakdowns and scouting report materials.

Caskey entered college coaching in 2004 at Louisiana-Monroe as a graduate assistant. He coached safeties in 2004 and linebackers in '05, and in '05, the Warhawks were Sun Belt Conference co-champions.

From 2006-08, Caskey was at Indiana State. In 2008, he coached the TEs and RBs while also serving as recruiting coordinator. The '08 ISU recruit class was ranked seventh among NCAA FCS teams by Rivals.com. He was TE/WRs coach at Indiana State in 2006, and was defensive line coach/recruiting coordinator in '07.

He has earned a bachelor's degree in industrial distribution from Texas A&M, and he holds master's degrees from both A&M (agribusiness) and Louisiana-Monroe (instructional technology).

Caskey is married (wife Kayla), and his hometown is Dainigfield, Texas. He played tight end at Texas A&M in 1997-98, and while he was on the team, the Aggies won a Big 12 championship (1998) and played in the Cotton and Sugar bowls.

He was a four-year Aggie letterman in track and field from 1999-2002, including 2000 All-Big 12 honors in the discus. He earned Big 12 All-Academic honors three times — in 2000, '01 and '02.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY—1997-98:

Played TE at Texas A&M. 2004-05: Graduate assistant coach, Louisiana-Monroe. 2006-08: Assistant coach (AC), Indiana State. 2009: AC, University of Mississippi. 2010: AC, Bengals.

SIGISMONDO CIOFFI — Assistant Defensive Backs

Sigismondo "Louie" Cioffi is in his 14th season on the Bengals coaching staff. Since 2003, he has been assistant defensive backs coach, teaming with DBs coach Kevin Coyle to work with the largest position group on the team — the cornerbacks and safeties.

Cioffi (pronounced "CHO-fee") was defensive staff assistant for his first six Bengals campaigns. He is 36 years old as he enters the 2010 season, an age at which few coaches have amassed his level of NFL experience.

Cioffi works most often with the safeties, and last season, that unit fought through injuries to help Cincinnati rank fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (301.4 per game), sixth in fewest passing yards allowed (203.1) and sixth in fewest points allowed (18.2). The pass defense ranking was Cincinnati's highest since 1993.

The starting safeties to open the season — veterans Roy Williams and Chris Crocker — both missed significant playing time due to injuries in 2009. Williams played in only four games, due to a forearm injury. Crocker, meanwhile, battled an ankle injury, and was limited in several games before missing the last three regular-season contests.

But third-year pro Chinedum Ndukwe stepped up to replace Williams, finishing third on the team with 91 tackles, and unheralded rookie Tom Nelson closed a promising season by filling in for Crocker for the last three games. Nelson, from Illinois State, was an undrafted college free agent signee by the Bengals in 2009.

The pass defense came through with three straight strong games in division play as the Bengals moved to secure the AFC North championship. In the season's second meetings against division rivals Baltimore, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, the pass defense allowed an average of only 160.3 yards per game.

During the tenure of head coach Marvin Lewis (2003-09) — coinciding with Cioffi's taking the assistant DBs coach title, the Bengals have snagged 134 interceptions, second-most in the NFL over that span and trailing only Baltimore (149). Of those 134 picks, 112 have been collected by defensive backs.

Cioffi is an expert in computer work, and in addition to his on-field duties with players, he handles much of the preparation work for the entire defense on the upcoming week's opponent.

Cioffi took on the job of Bengals defensive staff assistant in 1997 at age 23, and during the first three seasons of his Cincinnati career, he was the youngest full-time assistant coach in the NFL.

His association with the NFL dates even farther back. In 1993, he was a 20-year-old assistant to Bruce Coslet's coaching staff on the N.Y. Jets. His responsibilities then included assembling play books and running video printers on game days. Cioffi also worked with the Jets in 1994 in a similar role.

Cioffi was wide receivers coach at C.W. Post University in Brookville, N.Y. in 1995 and '96. The 1996 team won the ECAC Division II championship.

Bruce Coslet's first full year as Bengals head coach was 1997, and he brought Cioffi to Cincinnati in a Bengals staff reorganization.

Cioffi was born Sept. 21, 1973, in Queens, N.Y. and attended college at SUNY-Stony Brook. His wife's name is Cindy. They have two daughters, Cecilia Elle and Corrine, and a son, Sigismondo Connor.

COACHING HISTORY — 1993-94:

Coaching assistant, New York Jets. 1995-96: Assistant coach (AC), C.W. Post. 1997-present: AC, Bengals.

KEVIN COYLE — Defensive Backs

Kevin Coyle returns for his 10th season on the Bengals coaching staff in 2010. He is in his eighth year as defensive backs coach, directing a unit that has emerged as one of the most promising on the team.

Under Coyle's direction last year, third-year CB Leon Hall and fourth-year CB Johnathan Joseph continued to develop on schedule after being acquired as first-round draft choices. They each had six interceptions — the first time ever for the Bengals to have two CBs with six or more — and they were widely considered the foundation of a defense that fueled the team's capture of the AFC North Division title.

At safety last season, starters Roy Williams and Chris Crocker both missed significant time due to injuries, but Coyle directed strong replacement play by third-year pro Chinedum Ndukwe and rookie Tom Nelson.

During the tenure of head coach Marvin Lewis (2003-09) — coinciding with Coyle's 2003 promotion from cornerbacks coach to secondary coach — the Bengals have snagged 134 interceptions, second-most in the NFL over that span and trailing only Baltimore (149). Of those 134 picks, 112 have been collected by defensive backs.

Last season, the Bengals ranked fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (301.4 per game), sixth in fewest passing yards allowed (203.1) and sixth in fewest points allowed (18.2). The pass defense ranking was Cincinnati's highest since 1993.

In 2005, Coyle oversaw a 10-INT season by CB Deltia O'Neal, the highest individual total in Bengals history. O'Neal was voted to the Pro Bowl, and Bengals DBs had 23 of Cincinnati's NFL-leading 31 INTs on the year. O'Neal was the second DB under Coyle to make the Pro Bowl, as CB Tory James earned the honor in 2004, when he had eight INTs.

This is Coyle's 33rd year in coaching. He spent his first two years with the Bengals (2001-02) as cornerbacks coach. He began coaching in 1978 as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati. In his last 10 seasons before joining the Bengals, he was defensive coordinator and secondary coach at three Division I college programs — Syracuse, Maryland and Fresno State.

At Fresno State (1997-2000), Coyle's defenses produced three first-team All-Western Athletic Conference players in both '99 and '00, best in the league both years. In 1998, the FSU defense set a school-record low with only 23 touchdowns allowed.

At Maryland (1994-96), Coyle oversaw a dramatic improvement in the Terrapins' defense, steadily guiding a program that had struggled prior to his arrival to a final total defense ranking of No. 29 nationally in '96.

At Syracuse (1991-93), Coyle's '92 defense led the nation in interceptions (24) and set a school record for fewest rushing yards allowed (1007) in an 11-game season.

Coyle was at Holy Cross from 1982-90, first serving as outside linebackers coach before being promoted to defensive coordinator in '86. During his five years as coordinator, Holy Cross was the winningest Division I-AA team in the nation (49-5-1), with the Crusader defense ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense four times. Coyle coached five All-Americans at Holy Cross.

Six players from Coyle's Fresno State defenses went on to play in the NFL, including three defensive backs. At Maryland, Coyle coached future NFL cornerbacks Chad Scott and Lewis Sanders. At Syracuse, he coached future NFL standout safety Donovan Darius.

Coyle has been active in the community, speaking to emotionally troubled patients at Cincinnati's Children's Hospital, as well as speaking at schools on behalf of the D.A.R.E. program. He also coordinates the annual Youth Coaches Clinic sponsored by the Marvin Lewis Community Fund.

Coyle was born Jan. 14, 1956, in Staten Island, N.Y. He and his wife, Louise, have a daughter, Jenlain, age 17.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY —

JEFF FITZGERALD — Linebackers

Jeff Fitzgerald, a 17-year veteran in NFL coaching, returns for his third season on the Bengals coaching staff in 2010. In his first two years, Cincinnati's defense has improved notably, and the linebackers have played a key role.

In 2008, the defense improved its NFL ranking from 27th to 12th in fewest yards allowed, with MLB Dhani Jones posting a career-high 165 tackles and OLB Brandon Johnson developing from a marginal prospect to a consistent playmaker.

In 2009, supporting the Bengals' run to the AFC North championship, the defense moved up to fourth in the NFL (301.4 avg. yards allowed) and led the team to a No. 6 ranking in scoring defense (18.2). The yardage ranking was the franchise's best since 1983, and the scoring defense ranking was the Bengals' second-highest.

The '09 linebackers' season featured another team-leading tackles performance by Dhani Jones, who had been "on the street" when the Bengals picked him up as a free agent during a storm of LB injuries in 2007. Also among the LBs last season, second-round draft pick Rey Maualuga had a productive rookie season, and 2008 top draft pick Keith Rivers continued his development, ranking second on the team with 101 tackles.

Head coach Marvin Lewis set a specific goal of improving the club's rush defense for 2009, and the linebackers' strong tackle totals helped the goal to be met. After ranking 21st in rush defense in 2008, the Bengals improved to seventh in the NFL in '09, with a 98.3-yard average yield that was Cincinnati's best since 1983. The defense's rushing performance included a club-record streak of eight straight games holding opponents under 100 yards.

FitzGerald directed Baltimore's talented LB corps from 2004-07, and in '06, he became only the second LB coach in NFL history to have four of his players named to the Pro Bowl in the same season. The four Ravens LBs named to the Pro Bowl for the 2006 season were Ray Lewis, Bart Scott, Terrell Suggs and Adalius Thomas.

FitzGerald has become known on the Bengals practice field for setting an upbeat tempo.

"I like to move around fast at practice," he says. "I like my players to move fast. I like a lot of energy."

FitzGerald's birthdate is April 18, 1960. He is a native of Burbank, Calif. He played LB at Oregon State and became a college coach in 1985 as a graduate assistant at the University of Cincinnati.

He joined the University of Alabama staff as a graduate assistant in 1986, and held that position while completing his master's degree through '87. In 1988, Alabama hired him full-time as inside linebackers coach, a position he held through the '89 season. He began his NFL career with Tampa Bay in 1990, spending four seasons during which he worked with defensive backs and special teams. Also at Tampa Bay, he worked in computer and video operations, two areas in which he has become known for his expertise.

FitzGerald has also helped develop and coach the LB drills at the annual NFL Scouting Combine for the last 12 years.

A professionally trained race driver, FitzGerald enjoys spending his time off instructing new drivers throughout the country with the Richard Petty Driving Experience (RPDE). He also has traveled widely, including Korea, Hong Kong, Australia, New Zealand, Fiji, Indonesia and throughout Europe.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY —1980:

Played LB at Oregon State before suffering knee injury.

1981-83: Attended Cal State-Northridge (did not play football). 1981-84: Assistant coach (AC) at John Burroughs High School (1981-82) and Burbank (Calif.) High School ('83-84), while completing undergraduate studies at Cal State-Northridge. 1985: Graduate AC, Univ. of Cincinnati.

1986-87: Graduate AC, Univ. of Alabama. 1988-89: AC, Alabama. 1990-93: AC, Tampa Bay Buccaneers. 1994-97: AC, San Diego State. 1998-99: AC, Washington Redskins. 2000-03: AC, Arizona Cardinals. 2004-07: AC, Baltimore Ravens. 2008-present: AC, Bengals.

JEFF FRIDAY – Assistant Strength & Conditioning

Jeff Friday joins the Bengals for 2010 as assistant strength and conditioning coach. He brings 12 years of NFL experience, including nine seasons (1999-2007) as head S/C coach of the Baltimore Ravens.

His tenure with the Ravens included a Super Bowl championship in the 2000 season, when he was named Professional Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year by a national vote of his peers.

In 2008, Friday started his own sports training business, and in '09, he was a consultant to the United Football League, supervising the league's strength and conditioning program and assisting in the hiring of head strength coaches.

In Cincinnati, Friday is reunited with Chip Morton, Bengals head strength and conditioning coach since 2003. Morton worked in Baltimore as an assistant under Friday from 1999-2001.

"It's clear Jeff has proven his ability at the NFL level and we are fortunate to have him on board," Morton said. "He knows how to manage and direct players, and the teams he's been with have been consistent winners with low injury rates. I've known Jeff since the mid-'90s and I have all the respect in the world for how he does the job."

Marvin Lewis, Bengals head coach, was defensive coordinator in Baltimore during Friday's first three seasons with the Ravens.

Friday began his coaching career in 1990-91 as a graduate assistant S/C coach at Illinois State. He was assistant S/C coach at Northwestern from 1992-95, and in '96, he entered the NFL as assistant S/C coach for the Minnesota Vikings. The Vikings made the playoffs in each of his three seasons.

Friday is a native of Milwaukee, Wis. He holds a bachelor's degree in physical education from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a master's degree in exercise science from Illinois State.

He holds numerous professional certifications, including: Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist by the National Strength and Conditioning Association, Certified Level 1 Strength Coach by the United States Weightlifting Federation, Certified Practitioner by the National Board for Therapeutic Massage & Bodywork, Certified Active Release (ART) Provider, and Functional Movement Screen (FMS) Certified Specialist.

Jeff and his wife, Jennifer, have two children — daughter Hailey and son Aidan.

Graduate assistant S/C coach, Illinois State. 1992-95: Assistant S/C coach, Northwestern. 1996-98: Assistant S/C coach, Minnesota Vikings. 1999-2007: Head S/C coach, Baltimore Ravens. 2009: Coaching consultant, United Football League. 2010: Assistant S/C coach, Bengals.

PAUL GUENTHER – Asst. Special Teams/Asst. Linebackers

Paul Guenther is in his sixth season on the Bengals coaching staff in 2010, serving for the fifth straight year as assistant special teams/assistant linebackers coach.

In 2009, the linebackers' season featured another team-leading tackles performance by Dhani

Jones, who had been "on the street" when the Bengals picked him up as a free agent during a storm of LB injuries in 2007. Also among the LBs last season, second-round draft pick Rey Maualuga had a productive rookie season, and 2008 top draft pick Keith Rivers continued his development, ranking second on the team with 101 tackles.

Their play supported the Bengals' run to the AFC North championship, as the defense ranked fourth in the NFL (301.4 avg. yards allowed) and led the team to a No. 6 ranking in scoring defense (18.2). The yardage ranking was the franchise's best since 1983, and the scoring defense ranking was the second-highest for the Bengals.

Head coach Marvin Lewis set a specific goal of improving the club's rush defense for 2009, and the linebackers' strong tackle totals helped the goal be met. After ranking 21st in rush defense in 2008, the Bengals improved to seventh in the NFL in '09, with a 98.3-yard average yield that was Cincinnati's best since 1983. The defense's rushing performance included a club-record streak of eight straight games holding opponents under 100 yards.

On special teams, Guenther worked to help develop rookie punt returner Quan Cosby, who ranked fifth in the NFL with an 11.9-yard average, the highest average by a Bengal since 1984. Cosby led the NFL in total punt return yards (474), and his yardage total far exceeded the previous Bengals record of 376 by Mike Martin in 1984.

As a team, the Bengals ranked second in the NFL in punt return average, and Cincinnati led the NFL in fewest net yards per punt by opponents (35.3).

Guenther (pronounced "GUN-thur") was offensive assistant on the Washington Redskins staff from 2002-03. Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis was one of his associates in 2002, serving as assistant head coach/defensive coordinator of the Redskins. Guenther's primary position assignment with the Redskins was running backs.

From 1997-2000, Guenther was head coach at Ursinus College, an NCAA Division III school in Collegeville, Pa. He was the youngest head coach in college football in '97, at age 25, and he led the team to the playoffs in '99 and 2000.

His 1999 team finished 10-2, advancing to the second round of the playoffs. The 10 wins was a school record, and the team broke nearly every offensive and defensive mark in the Ursinus record book.

Guenther began his coaching career from 1994-95 at Western Maryland. He was an assistant at Ursinus in 1996, moved to Jacksonville University as defensive coordinator in '97, and returned to Ursinus that same year.

Guenther was born Nov. 22, 1971. His hometown is Richboro, Pa. He played LB in college at Ursinus, setting a school career tackles record (355) while three times earning all-conference honors.

He received his undergraduate degree in communications from Ursinus in 1994, and a master's degree in sports administration from Western Maryland in '97.

JAY HAYES — Defensive Line

Jay Hayes, a 22-year veteran of major college and NFL coaching, is in his eighth season as Bengals defensive line coach. Despite several significant injuries, his 2009 line helped the Bengals to a No. 4 NFL finish in fewest yards allowed (301.4/game), the team's best rank since 1983.

Also last season, the Bengals ranked sixth in the NFL in scoring defense (18.2). It was the second-highest defensive scoring rank in franchise history.

The line opened the '09 campaign with a history-making performance by DE Antwan Odom. The sixth-year pro, in his second Bengals campaign, had 7.0 sacks in the first two games. Since 1982, when individual sacks became an official statistic, no player has matched that total for the first two games of a season.

Odom was lost to a season-ending Achilles injury on Oct. 18. But his replacement, Jonathan Fanene, stepped up to have his best pro season, with six sacks among his 49 tackles.

Reserve DT Pat Sims, in his second NFL season, also was ready under Hayes' tutelage to provide significant help. He filled in at different points for both starting DTs, Tank Johnson and Domata Peko, when they lost time to injuries in 2009.

Hayes also was charged in '09 with the development of rookie DE Michael Johnson, a high-potential player who came to the NFL with a "project" label, due to inconsistent college results. Johnson improved steadily as the season progressed, finishing with three sacks and a line-leading five passes defended.

Hayes' players were on the front line as the defense met head coach Marvin Lewis' stated goal of improving the rush defense. After ranking 21st in rush defense in 2008 (120.1 yards allowed per game), the Bengals improved to seventh in the NFL in '09, with a 98.3-yard average yield that was Cincinnati's best since 1983.

Hayes works with various options of line combinations, as game situations dictate.

"It's my job to pick somebody to get a spark, so we can have the chemistry and keep it running hot," Hayes says. "We want to keep getting after people and not let them find room to breathe. If we can continue doing that, we can be successful."

Hayes came to the Bengals from the Minnesota Vikings, where he was special teams coach in 2002. The '02 Vikings tied for fifth in the NFL in punt coverage.

Hayes was special teams coach for the Pittsburgh Steelers from 1999-2001. In 1999, under Hayes' direction, Steelers rookie kicker Kris Brown set an NFL record for most consecutive field goals made to start a career (13).

Before entering the NFL coaching ranks with the Steelers, Hayes coached 11 years at the major college level — at Notre Dame, California and Wisconsin.

He began his coaching career in 1988 as a graduate assistant at Notre Dame, and for the next three seasons, he coached outside linebackers and special teams for the Irish. He moved to California as outside linebackers coach in 1992, and he also held that job in '93 before adding special teams responsibilities in '94.

Hayes' last college assignment before entering the NFL was from 1995-98 at Wisconsin, where he was outside linebackers and special teams coach. Hayes' Badgers were consistently among the top special teams units in the Big Ten.

Hayes played DE at the Univ. of Idaho and earned all-conference honors in 1980 and '81. He spent some time in NFL camps before moving on to play in the USFL, for the Michigan Panthers in 1984 and the Memphis Showboats in '85.

Hayes' younger brother, Jonathan, is Bengals tight ends coach.

Hayes was born March 3, 1960 in Pittsburgh, and attended South Fayette High School. He and his wife have three children.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1978-81: Played def. end at Univ. of Idaho. 1984: Def. end, Michigan Panthers (USFL). 1985: Def. end, Memphis Showboats (USFL). 1988-91: Assistant coach (AC), Notre Dame. 1992-94: AC, California. 1995-98: AC, Wisconsin. 1999-2001: AC, Pittsburgh Steelers. 2002: AC, Minnesota Vikings. 2003-present: AC, Bengals.

JONATHAN HAYES — Tight Ends

Jonathan Hayes, an NFL tight end for 12 seasons, returns for his eighth year as Bengals tight ends coach in 2010.

Hayes had to work overtime last season to keep the tight ends' contribution up to expected levels.

Early in training camp, he lost his most proven blocker and his most proven receiver to season-ending injuries, as Reggie Kelly went down with an Achilles tear and Ben Utecht was sidelined due to ongoing treatment for a concussion.

But in the end, the tight ends' overall receiving numbers were consistent with other recent seasons — 43 receptions for 410 yards — and the TEs played a big role in the offense setting a team record with eight 100-yard rushing games by individual backs. They also helped the offense to a No. 9 NFL ranking in fewest sacks allowed (29).

Hayes did fast work to help third-year pro J.P. Foschi emerge as the No. 1 TE for 2009. Foschi did not join the Bengals until Aug. 17, after he was waived by Oakland, but he went on to play 15 games with 10 starts. Having posted only six career receptions in his prior NFL action, he posted career highs in catches (27), receiving yards (260) and TDs (two). His receiving yards total was the highest for a Bengals TE since 2003.

The Bengals ran frequent formations using multiple TEs, and also contributing significantly was third-year pro Dan Coats, who caught 16-for-150.

Twice in the past five seasons, the tight ends' blocking has helped Cincinnati set a club record for fewest sacks allowed. A record of 21 was set in 2005, and that mark was re-written at 17 in '07. The tight ends' run blocking has helped Bengals backs set career rushing highs in each of the last three years (Kenny Watson with 763 yards in 2007, and Cedric Benson with 747 in '08 and 1251 in '09). And over the 2004-06 campaigns, all under Hayes, the TEs helped Rudi Johnson amass 4221 rushing yards and 36 rushing TDs, both figures standing as the most ever by a Bengal in a three-year span.

Prior to joining the Bengals, Hayes spent four years (1999-2002) at the University of Oklahoma as tight ends coach and special teams coordinator. He helped the Sooners to a four-year record of 44-9, including a 13-0 mark in 2000 for the NCAA championship.

Under Hayes' tutelage, tight end Trent Smith finished his Oklahoma career in 2002 as the school's No. 2 all-time receiver, with 148 catches. Also in 2002, Sooners special teams blocked seven kicks and had three punt returns for TDs.

Hayes began his NFL playing career in 1985 as a second-round draft pick out of Iowa with the Kansas City Chiefs. He played for the Chiefs through 1993, serving as a team captain, and closed his NFL career with three seasons in Pittsburgh ('94-96). He had 153 career receptions for 1718 yards with 13 TDs.

Hayes saw action in 184 NFL games with 122 starts, and he played all 16 games in each of his final six seasons. He played in three AFC Championship games and a Super Bowl (for Pittsburgh vs. Dallas in SB XXX).

At the University of Iowa, he earned first-team All-America honors as a senior TE and was a team captain. In 1986, he completed work at Iowa on a degree in general studies.

Hayes' older brother, Jay, is Bengals defensive line coach.

Hayes' hometown is South Fayette, Pa. He attended South Fayette High School. He and his wife have four children.

CHIP MORTON — Strength & Conditioning

Chip Morton is in his eighth season as Bengals strength and conditioning coach. He has established a program that has featured frequent innovations while maintaining fundamental disciplines.

Morton and his staff are responsible for the design and implementation of a comprehensive and progressive year-round training program for the players. Each year, they evaluate the previous year's body of work, make the necessary adjustments, and introduce new concepts and training techniques to continuously improve the quality of the program.

At the very core of the Bengals program lies a foundation of traditional training principles, with an emphasis on teaching, effort and accountability. All of the coaches on this year's strength staff, which includes newly hired assistant S/C coach Jeff Friday, along with staff assistants Carlos Woods and Bill Zenisek, have coached on teams that reached the Super Bowl.

"Under Chip's direction, our strength and conditioning program remains on the cutting edge of training techniques and philosophy," says head coach Marvin Lewis. "I am very pleased with the outcome, using this program to both improve our players' football performances and to increase their resistance to injuries."

Morton was a coaching colleague of Lewis with the Baltimore Ravens from 1999-2001, serving as Ravens assistant strength and conditioning coach, and he was with Lewis in '02 at Washington, serving as head strength and conditioning coach for the Redskins.

Morton is in his 19th NFL season, having also served as strength and conditioning assistant at San Diego from 1992-94 and as head strength and conditioning coach at Carolina from '95-98. He has coached with two Super Bowl teams, the 1994 Chargers and the 2000 World Champion Ravens.

He started his career in the collegiate ranks, serving as assistant strength coach at Ohio State (1985-86) while completing his master's degree in physical education. He moved to Penn State in 1987 as the first-ever full-time strength and conditioning assistant for the Nittany Lions football team. He also worked with 14 other men's and women's sports during his five years (1987-91) at Penn State.

Morton's hometown is Hamden, Conn. He graduated from the University of North Carolina in 1985 with a degree in zoology, and he earned a varsity letter in swimming.

Continuing education has always been a hallmark of Morton's coaching career. He has been a Certified Strength & Conditioning Specialist (C.S.C.S.) through the National Strength & Conditioning Association since 1990. In 2006, he became the first NFL strength coach to receive the Russian Kettlebell Instructor's Certification (RKC), and in '08, he was certified as a Level I coach in the Battling Ropes training system.

Chip is married, and he and his wife have seven children.

MIKE SHEPPARD — Wide Receivers

Mike Sheppard, a 17-year veteran in NFL coaching, is in his fourth season as Bengals wide receivers coach. His resume includes two head coaching positions in college (Long Beach State and New Mexico), as well as NFL offensive coordinator's duties at San Diego (1997-98), Buffalo (2001) and New Orleans ('05).

"Mike has a wealth of experience as a position coach over wide receivers and quarterbacks, as well as his experience as a coordinator," says Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis. "I've coached alongside Mike in the NFL, and I coached under him in college. We know each other very well."

In 2009, Sheppard oversaw the return to Pro Bowl form of Chad Ochocinco, the Bengals' all-time receiving leader. Following a 2008 season during which his production was held back by a shoulder injury and the injury-related absence of QB Carson Palmer, Ochocinco came back last year to lead the team in receptions (72), receiving yards (1047) and touchdowns (nine). He made his sixth career appearance in the Pro Bowl.

Sheppard also guided the continued development of second-year pro Andre Caldwell, whose 51 receptions were the most by a first- or second-year Bengals WR since 2002.

Sheppard was with the New Orleans Saints for his last four seasons in the NFL (2002-05) before joining the Bengals. As quarterbacks coach his first three years with the Saints, he worked to develop Aaron Brooks, who threw for 72 touchdowns and only 39 interceptions during those three seasons. Sheppard was promoted to offensive coordinator for 2005, the last season for head coach Jim Haslett.

Sheppard and Lewis were coaching colleagues in 1996 with the Baltimore Ravens. Sheppard was WRs coach and Lewis was defensive coordinator. Sheppard had his first NFL experience as a play-caller that season, as he was given the duty by head coach Ted Marchibroda, and the Ravens offense finished third in the NFL in net yards, as well as second in passing yards.

The Lewis-Sheppard association dates back some 25 years. In 1985, Sheppard was head coach at Long Beach State and hired Lewis as linebackers coach. Lewis moved with Sheppard to New Mexico in 1987, and Lewis was on the Lobos' staff for the first three of Sheppard's five seasons (1987-91).

Sheppard entered the NFL in 1993 as tight ends coach with the Cleveland Browns, and was Browns wide receivers coach in 1994-95. After his 1996 season in Baltimore, he was offensive coordinator for San Diego (1997-98), QBs coach for Seattle (1999-2000) and offensive coordinator for Buffalo (2001). Sheppard was former Bengal QB Jon Kitna's position coach in 1999, when Kitna led the Seahawks to the AFC West title.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Sheppard played WR at Cal Lutheran (1969-72), and he began a 19-year stint in college coaching at Cal Lutheran in '74. He holds a bachelor's degree from Cal Lutheran and a master's degree from Brigham Young.

Sheppard's birth date is Oct. 29, 1951. He and his wife, Cathie, have four children — Chrissi, Brian, Shelby and Macall — and two grandchildren, Christian and Samantha.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1969-72: Played wide receiver at Cal Lutheran. 1974-76: Assistant coach (AC), Cal Lutheran. 1977-78: Graduate assistant, Brigham Young. 1979: Offensive coordinator, U.S. International. 1980-81: AC, Idaho State. 1982: AC, Long Beach State. 1983: Offensive coordinator, Kansas. 1984-86: Head coach, Long Beach State. 1987-91: Head coach, New Mexico. 1992: Offensive coordinator, California. 1993-95: AC, Cleveland Browns. 1996: AC, Baltimore Ravens. 1997-98: Offensive coordinator, San Diego Chargers. 1999-2000: AC, Seattle Seahawks. 2001: Offensive coordinator, Buffalo Bills. 2002-04: AC, New Orleans Saints. 2005: Offensive coordinator, New Orleans Saints. 2007-present: AC, Bengals.

DARRIN SIMMONS — Special Teams

Darrin Simmons is in his eighth season as Bengals special teams coach. The 2009 season saw him develop two dangerous rookie kick returners while also launching the career of Kevin Huber, only the second drafted Bengals punter of the last 21 years.

Among the most pleasant surprises of Cincinnati's 2009 season was the performance of punt returner Quan Cosby, who joined the team as a college free agent. Cosby won the punt return job in a training camp competition, and he finished the season with an 11.9-yard average, ranking third in the AFC and fifth in the NFL. Cosby's average was the highest for a Bengal since 1984 (minimum 20 returns). He led the NFL in total punt return yards (474), and his yardage total far exceeded the previous Bengals record of 376 by Mike Martin in 1984.

As a team, the Bengals ranked second in the NFL in punt return average (also 11.9), and Cincinnati led the NFL in fewest net yards per punt by opponents (35.3).

On the kickoff return side, three Bengals had more than 10 returns in '09, and rookie HB Bernard Scott emerged late to establish himself as a key prospect for 2010. He averaged 31.5 yards on 16 returns, and with only four more returns, he could have qualified for a run at the official NFL title. A 29.1 average, by Clifton Smith of Tampa Bay, was the league's best among players reaching the minimum standard of 20 total returns.

In the punting game, Huber made his Cincinnati debut with a 43.2-yard season average, tied for second-best by a Bengal since 1999. He had a net average of 36.3 yards, a figure bettered only once by a Bengal since '99. Huber had more than twice as many inside-20 kicks (24) as touchbacks (10).

Also in '09, Simmons coached for the seventh of K Shayne Graham's seven Bengals seasons. Graham finished the season with an 85.22 percent career score on field goal accuracy, fourth in NFL history, and Graham's Bengals-only percentage of 86.76 is the franchise career record.

Simmons' Bengals special teams have also shown a nose for the ball, forcing 19 fumbles in his seven completed seasons. That's more than three times the total (six) for the seven seasons prior to his tenure.

Simmons entered the NFL in 1998 on the same Baltimore Ravens staff as Bengals head coach Marvin Lewis, who was Ravens defensive coordinator at the time. Simmons was assistant special teams coach and assistant strength and conditioning coach for the Ravens, and he held that same role for the Carolina Panthers from 1999-2002. He joined the Bengals in 2003.

A former college punter himself, Simmons played an integral role at Carolina in the development of Todd Sauerbrun as one of the NFL's top punters of the time. Simmons coached his first league-leading coverage unit in '02, as the Panthers held foes to an NFL-best 18.5 yards per KOR.

Simmons began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Kansas University in 1996. He moved to the University of Minnesota in 1997.

Simmons punted in college for Kansas from 1993-95, earning All-Big Eight honors his final year. As a senior, he helped the Jayhawks to a top 10 national ranking and to an Aloha Bowl victory over UCLA. Also as a Kansas senior, he won honors as an academic All-American.

Prior to playing for Kansas, Simmons was a punter and QB for Dodge City (Kan.) Community College. In 1992 at Dodge City, he led the nation's junior colleges in punting and was a first-team JUCO All-American.

Simmons earned a degree in sports management from Kansas in 1996.

Born April 9, 1973, in Elkhart, Kan., he graduated from Elkhart High School. He and his wife, Rhonda, have a daughter and two sons.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1991-92: Played quarterback and punter at Dodge City (Kan.) Community College. 1993-95: Punter, University of Kansas. 1996: Graduate assistant coach, Kansas. 1997: Assistant coach (AC), University of Minnesota. 1998: AC, Baltimore Ravens. 1999-2002: AC, Carolina Panthers. 2003-present: AC, Bengals.

KEN ZAMPESE — Quarterbacks

Ken Zampese is in his eighth season as Bengals quarterbacks coach. He has guided the full NFL career of Carson Palmer, one of the Bengals' all-time top passers and team leaders.

Returning last season from a 2008 campaign in which he missed 12 games with an elbow injury, Palmer led the Bengals to a 10-6 record and the AFC North Division championship. He directed the Bengals to a remarkable early string of comeback victories, earning the team the nickname "Cardiac Cats." In four of the first five games, Palmer led drives of 70 yards or more in the last two minutes, each time gaining a win or a tie score.

"When things start to break down and get chaotic, Carson is lights out in the way he stays in control," says head coach Marvin Lewis. "That is a testament not only to his talent but to the way he has been coached here."

Palmer enters 2010 as the Bengals' all-time leader in passer rating (87.9), completion percentage (63.2) and TD-to-INT ratio (1.6-to-1). He also has set season records for completions (373), passing yards (4131), TD passes (32) and passer rating (101.1).

In 2007, Palmer joined the list of the five NFL passers to have reached 100 TD throws most quickly. Palmer notched his 100th TD pass in only his 59th career game, a mark bettered by only Dan Marino (44 games), Kurt Warner (50), Johnny Unitas (53) and Peyton Manning (56).

Zampese and his star pupil overcame a significant challenge in 2006, as Palmer had to come back from a serious knee injury that had ended his '05 season during the playoffs. Palmer succeeded fully, earning his second straight berth in the Pro Bowl, where he won MVP honors.

In 2003, his first season with the Bengals, Zampese had success with a veteran starting quarterback in Jon Kitna. The '03 campaign saw Kitna post career highs — at that point — in completions (324), passing yards (3591), TD passes (26), completion percentage (62.3) and rating (87.4).

Zampese (pronounced "zam-PEE-zee") came to the Bengals following three seasons (2000-02) in St. Louis, in which he had an expanding role with a passing offense that ranked among the NFL's most prolific.

Zampese joined the Rams in 2000 as an offensive assistant. He was promoted to wide receivers coach in 2001, and the Rams led the league in passing yards for a second straight year, averaging 291.4. In 2002, he added the title of passing game coach, and the Rams finished second in the league at 259.6 yards per game.

Zampese began his NFL career in 1998 as an offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles under head coach Ray Rhodes. He moved with Rhodes to Green Bay in 1999 before beginning his stint with the Rams.

Prior to entering the NFL, Zampese coached for nine years in college. He had one Cincinnati-area assignment, as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 1996-97 at Miami (Ohio). In 1997, Miami averaged 37.4 points per game.

Zampese played wide receiver and kick returner at the University of San Diego from 1985-88. He was Special Teams Player of the Year as a senior. He earned an undergraduate degree in business from San Diego, and later received a master's degree in adult education from Southern California.

Zampese was born July 19, 1967, in Santa Maria, Calif. He and his wife have two children. Ken's father, Ernie Zampese, was a longtime NFL offensive coordinator who coached on a Super Bowl winner with the 1995 Cowboys, and he also coached for the Chargers, Rams and Patriots.

PLAYING AND COACHING HISTORY — 1985-

88: Played wide receiver, kickoff returner and punt returner at University of San Diego. 1989: Assistant coach (AC), University of San Diego. 1990-91: AC, Southern California. 1992-94: AC, Northern Arizona. 1995: Offensive coordinator, Northern Arizona. 1996-97: AC, Miami (Ohio). 1998: AC, Philadelphia Eagles. 1999: AC, Green Bay Packers. 2000-02: AC, St. Louis Rams. 2003-present: AC, Bengals.

LIPPINCOTT & COOMBS COACHING ASSISTANTS

David Lippincott and Brayden Coombs will work with the Bengals for the 2010 season as coaching assistants.

Lippincott is in his third season with the Bengals. He is a Cincinnati native (Moeller High School) and a graduate of the University of Dayton, where he served as an undergraduate football assistant. He later coached defensive line at Bluffton University, was a graduate assistant coach at the University of Minnesota, and was a defensive assistant for three years at the University of Richmond. He will work primarily with the offense for the Bengals in 2010, and he also handles offensive quality control and scouting duties. He is the son of Jim Lippincott, Bengals director of football operations.

Coombs played WR, DB and kick returner at Miami (Ohio), completing his career in 2009. He is a Cincinnati native (Colerain High School). He'll work primarily with the defense this season, and will handle defensive quality control while serving as an assistant in the player personnel department. He is the son of Kerry Coombs, associate head coach and defensive backs coach at the University of Cincinnati.

STEELERS STANDOUTS SWITCH TO STRIPES

Dermontti Dawson and Rod Woodson, two of the most respected opponents in Cincinnati franchise history during their NFL playing careers, have joined the Bengals for spring and summer of 2010 as coaching interns. They worked with the team in minicamps and will coach through training camp at Georgetown (Ky.) College.

Dawson played 13 seasons for the Pittsburgh Steelers (1988-2000) and was a 2010 finalist for the Pro Football Hall of Fame. A five-time All-Pro selection and a seven-time AFC Pro Bowl player, Dawson is tied for sixth in Steelers' history for most games played (181) and ranks second for consecutive games played (170) in a Steelers' uniform. Since his retirement, he has worked in private business and has been a member of the University of Kentucky Athletics Board.

Woodson played 17 seasons (1987-2003) as a defensive back — with Pittsburgh, San Francisco, Baltimore and Oakland — and in 2009 he was a first-ballot inductee to the Hall of Fame. He holds NFL records for career interception return yardage (1483) and touchdowns on INTs (12), and his 71 total INTs rank third all-time. He has worked recently as an analyst for the NFL Network.

Wt: 227

6th year in NFL

College: Texas

2009 Games-Starts: 13-13

Career Games-Starts: 60-35

Acquired: FA'08

Born: 12-28-82

Sixth-year pro is in his third Bengals season, having led Cincinnati in rushing and yards from scrimmage in each of his first two campaigns ... Played his first full Bengals season in '09 and started 13 games plus Wild Card playoff ... Had 1251 rushing yards last year although he played in only 12 full games, and he tacked on Bengals postseason record of 169 rushing yards in the playoff game ... Averaged 102.4 rushing yards in the 12 regular-season games in which he saw full action ... His 1251 rushing total marked his first 1000-yard season and was seventh-most in Bengals history ... Despite missed time, ranked fifth in AFC and eighth in NFL in rushing yards, and was sixth in NFL in carries (301) ... Led NFL in rushing through Weeks 5 and 7, and ranked second entering Nov. 15 game in which he was injured ... Was Chicago's first-round selection in 2005 NFL Draft (fourth overall), after Texas career that included 5540 rushing yards and third-most TDs (64) in NCAA history.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Opened the league year as an unrestricted free agent, but re-signed with Bengals on March 3 ... Started 13 games (Games 1-9 and 12-15) ... Inactive for Games 10-11 due to a hip flexor strain that sidelined him during first half of Game 9, Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh ... Also inactive for Game 16, Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets, as he was rested for the playoffs.

MORE 2009 SUPERLATIVES: Benson logged six 100-yard rushing games, breaking Bengals single-season record ... Broke a logjam in the team record book, as the old mark of five 100-yard games had previously been achieved eight times, by five different players ... Had 17 receptions for 111 yards, and his 1362 yards from scrimmage led the team ... Led team in scrimmage yards in nine of the 12 games in which he played all the way ... His 169 rushing yards in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets broke Bengals postseason mark of 126 set by Ickey Woods in 1988 vs. Seattle ... Benson's 47-yard TD run vs. Jets was Bengals' longest in postseason, topping 30-yarder by Woods in the 1988 Seattle game.

REWRITING RAVENS HISTORY: On Oct. 11 of last season at Baltimore, Benson became the first back in 40 games to rush for 100 yards against the Ravens, going 27-for-120. And on Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, Benson rushed 34-for-117, making him the first back to record consecutive 100-yard games against the Ravens since Miami's Ricky Williams in 2002-03. He is the first since Pittsburgh's Jerome Bettis in 1997 to get 100 vs. Baltimore twice in the same season.

THE BENSON BOWL: On Oct. 25 of last season vs. Chicago — the team that released him in 2008 — Benson rushed for a career-high 189 yards on 37 carries with one TD. It was the seventh-most rushing yards in Bengals history, and NFL Network reported it was the most rushing yards in league history by a player against a former team.

MORE 2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Second on team with six TDs (all rushing) ... Had 100 or more yards from scrimmage in eight of the 12 games he fully played ... Rushed 29-for-141 on Sept. 20 at Green Bay, leading Bengals to a road win after their last-second loss in season opener ... On Sept 27 vs. Pittsburgh, his 23-yard TD run was the first of two Bengals fourth-quarter TDs in a comeback win ... Rushed 36-for-110 on Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, Third-round selection from 2009 draft seeks first regular-season Bengals action in 2010 ... Split last season between inactive status and Reserve/Injured list ... Finished his Missouri career as all-time NCAA receptions leader (247) among tight ends, but had the 'project' tag as a rookie because he saw only limited work in college as a blocker.

2009 RECAP: Drafted by Bengals in third round (98th overall) ... Played in all four preseason games, with a start on Aug. 27 vs. St. Louis, and had two catches for 11 yards ... Made season-opening roster, and was inactive for Games 1-12 ... Placed Dec. 9 on Reserve/Injured list, due to developing aggravation from bone spurs in left ankle.

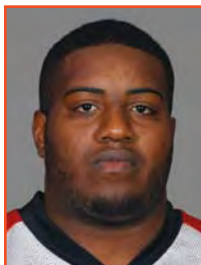

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2005-08) at

Missouri, seeing action in 50 games ... In addition to his NCAA-record 247 catches, he posted second-most career yards (2659) and TDs (30) by a TE ... Closed his career with a superlative senior season, catching 90-for-987 with 10 TDs, and he won John Mackey Award as nation's top TE ... Posted his senior numbers despite missing two games and part of another due to injuries.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Peculiar, Mo. ... Attended Raymore-Peculiar High School, where he earned first-team all-state honors for three seasons and led club to 13-0 record and state title season as a senior ... Also earned three prep letters in basketball, and was first-team all-conference as a junior ... Holds degree in business from Missouri, and was an All-Academic Big 12 football selection ... Younger brother, Carson, is a senior QB at Kansas State in 2010.

TALENT ISN'T EVERYTHING

The 1989 Bengals were a talented team, but never could put it all together on a weekly basis. They outscored opponents 404-285, but finished only 8-8. Not since the 1950 Philadelphia Eagles had a break-even team outscored its foes by such a large point margin (7.4) per game.

Collins has contended strongly for playing time over his first two pro seasons, with 13 starts among his 23 games played ... Opened 2009 as starting ROT and saw action in 14 games overall ... Helped Bengals finish ninth in NFL in rushing (128.5 yards per game) and ninth in fewest sacks allowed (29).

2009 PARTICIPATION: Played in Games 1-13 and 16 ... Inactive for Games 14-15 ... Held No. 1 ROT spot for Games 1-5, and was in reserve role for remainder of season; credited with starts in Games 7-8, as offense opened in formations with six offensive linemen ... Was active but not did not play in Wild Card playoff vs. Jets.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Aided 141-yard rushing game by Cedric Benson on Sept. 20 at Green Bay ... Helped lead fourth-quarter drives of 85 and 71 yards during comeback win Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh ... Helped support a 5.1-yard team rushing average in win Oct. 4 at Cleveland ... In win Oct. 11 at Baltimore, helped limit Ravens defense to one sack while helping Benson (27-for-120) become first player in 40 games to rush for 100 yards against Baltimore ... In win Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, aided performance up front that allowed only one sack, and helped Benson rush for 117 yards ... Aided a run-blocking effort that netted 210 yards rushing Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, and helped Bengals control time of possession for 38:11 ... On Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, supported third straight game of more than 38 minutes of possession time (38:48).

2008: Drafted by Bengals in fourth round (112th overall) ... Played in nine games, with starts at LOT in Games 11-16, replacing injured Levi Jones ... Helped team finish year on a three-game win streak, and supported Cincinnati's two best rushing games of the season in the final two contests ... Part of line effort that led performance of only three sacks allowed over the final three games ... NFL debut was in reserve role on Sept. 14 vs. Tennessee.

COLLEGE: Played 32 games over three seasons (2005-07) at Kansas ... Earned multiple first-team All-America honors in '07, starting at LOT as Kansas posted 12-1 record with victory over Virginia Tech in FedEx Orange Bowl ... Redshirted as a freshman in 2004, and left KU following his junior season to enter NFL Draft ... As a junior, credited with 108 knockdowns and 15 touchdown-producing blocks for an offense that averaged 479.8 yards per game, and he was penalized only twice all season.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Beaumont, Texas ... Attended Central High School, where he played football only as a senior and earned Class 4A all-state honors as a DE ... African-American studies major at Kansas.

Outstanding as Bengals' punt returner in his rookie season, Cosby also increased his role on offense as the year progressed ... One of two undrafted rookies to make the 2009 opening roster, he handled all 40 of the club's punt returns, and his 11.9-yard average ranked third in AFC and fifth in NFL ... Voted to punt returner spot on the Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers All-Rookie team ... His punt return average was Bengals' highest since 1984 (minimum 20 returns) ... Logged four receptions on offense for 55 yards, and added three-for-26 in Wild Card playoff.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Signed May 1 with Bengals as college free agent ... Played in Games 1-16 and also in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets ... Played on offense in Games 12-16 and in Wild Card.

BLOCK PARTY: Though Cosby earned most of his notice last season as a punt returner, he also contributed without the ball in his hands. On Bernard Scott's 96-yard kickoff return for a TD on Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, Cosby made a clearing block near the Bengals' 10-yard line and then sprinted ahead of Scott to make two more key blocks near the Steelers' 20. Special teams coach Darrin Simmons said, "In my 13 years in the NFL, that's the single biggest effort play I've seen."

MORE 2009 HIGHLIGHTS: His 11.9-yard punt return average was Bengals' highest since an NFL-leading 15.7 by Mike Martin in 1984 ... His 474 total punt return yards led the NFL in 2009 and broke Bengals season-record of 376 set by Martin in 1984 ... Also led NFL in total returns (40), second in Bengals history to Patrick Robinson's 43 in 1993 ... Had 13 kickoff returns, with an 18.4-yard average ... On Sept. 20 at Green Bay, his 60-yard punt return to Packers' six set up a second-quarter TD, and he had a 32-yarder to Packers'

29 in fourth quarter, setting up FG for a two-score lead ... On Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, averaged 18.0 yards on three punt returns ... Handled kickoff returns in place of the injured Bernard Scott on Dec. 13 at Minnesota and Dec. 20 at San Diego (combined 11-for 201; 18.3 avg.) ... Caught three passes for 47 yards Dec. 20 at San Diego, including a 23-yarder to the San Diego 16 in the fourth quarter to set up FG that tied the score at 24-24 ... Had a 40-yard punt return on Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2005-08) at Texas, finishing second in Longhorns' career receptions (212), third in receiving yards (2598) and fourth in receiving TDs (19) ... Played 52 games with 35 starts ... Averaged 23.7 yards on 73 kickoff returns and 11.3 yards on 33 punt returns ... Played in every game as a freshman as Texas capped 13-0 national championship season with Rose Bowl win over then-No. 1 USC ... Consensus first-team All-Big 12 as a senior, with 92 catches for 1123 yards and 10 TDs.

LATE FOOTBALL STARTER: Cosby played four years (2001-04) of pro baseball, as an outfielder in the Angels' farm system, before starting his college football career. He played two rookie league and two Class A seasons, batting .260 over 340 games.

PERSONAL: Born in Waco, Texas, and grew up in nearby Mart, Texas ... Attended Mart High School, where he was a two-time Class 2A all-state football selection at QB and DB ... Batted .479 as a prep senior in baseball, and won state track titles in 100 and 200 meters ... A social work major at Texas, he earned first-team Academic All-Big 12 honors in 2008 ... Twin brother, Quincy, played football at Baylor ... First name is pronounced "Kwahn."

TWO-POINTERS ARE TOUGH

The Bengals were successful on two of their five two-point conversion attempts in 2009, and their opponents were zero-for-two.

Since 1994, when the two-point conversion was added to the NFL rulebook, the Bengals are 15-for-41 (36.6 percent), and opponents are 16-for-39 (41.0 percent).

FOND FAREWELL

The Bengals played their final game at Cinergy Field (previously known as Riverfront Stadium) on Dec. 12, 1999, and they made the finale a memorable one.

Before a sellout crowd of 59,972, the Bengals defeated Cleveland, 44-28, as the Cincinnati defense set a team record by allowing only 11 net rushing yards (on 11 carries). The Browns' long rushing gain of the day was three yards. The previous low by a Bengals opponent had been 18 yards on 17 carries by Seattle in an AFC Divisional playoff game on Dec. 31, 1988 at Riverfront Stadium. The previous low in a regular-season game was 26 yards on 17 carries by Pittsburgh on Sept. 19, 1982 at Three Rivers Stadium in Pittsburgh.

Offensively, the last game at Cinergy saw the Bengals roll for 279 rushing yards (on 53 carries) — at the time the second-most rushing yards in team history and the most ever in a home game (now the fourth-best in club history and the third-highest figure for a home game). The team record for rushing yards in a game is 407, set on Oct. 22, 2000 vs. Denver at Paul Brown Stadium.

Fanene joined Bengals in 2005 with the 'project' tag, due to limited college football experience, and has steadily improved his contributions each season ... Played key role in 2009 as Bengals ranked among NFL's top defenses, seeing action in every game and finishing second on team in sacks (6.0) ... Stepped into starting RDE role for Games 7-16, after Antwan Odom was sidelined by Achilles injury, and also started in Wild Card playoff ... Ranked second on D-line in tackles (49) ... Also had two passes defended, including a 45-yard INT return for a TD that keyed victory over Detroit ... Has played DT in nickel fronts in addition to DE role.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Had four tackles Sept. 13 vs. Denver, including a four-yard sack of Kyle Orton ... His two tackles Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh included teaming with SS Roy Williams to stop RB Willie Parker for no gain on third-and-goal from one-yard line in first quarter, forcing Steelers to settle for FG ... Had four tackles Oct. 11 Baltimore, including five-yard sack of Joe Flacco in second quarter ... Had four tackles Oct. 18 vs. Houston, including a seven-yard sack of Matt Schaub in second quarter ... Six tackles Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, with a team-high two sacks that included a five-yarder on third-and-goal from Bengals' eight in second quarter, forcing Steelers to settle for a FG ... Also at Pittsburgh, had fourth-quarter pass defended that helped force Steelers to settle for FG ... Led line with four tackles Nov. 22 at Oakland, adding a hit on QB Bruce Gradkowski that forced an INT by Bengals CB Johnathan Joseph ... Made game's biggest play Dec. 6 vs. Detroit when he intercepted a pass deflected by Michael Johnson and returned it 45 yards for a TD, evening score at 7-7 in second quarter ... Had five tackles (tied for line lead) Dec. 13 at Minnesota, including five-yard sack of Brett Favre in second quarter ... Posted nine tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2005—Drafted by Bengals in seventh round (233rd overall) ... Signed June 30 ... Played in three games, with three tackles ... Inactive for the other 13 games, plus Wild Card playoff ... Made NFL debut in Game 12, crucial Bengals victory Dec. 4 at Pittsburgh, and his first pro tackle pinned a four-yard loss on HB Willie Parker in second quarter ... Started at LDT on Dec. 18 at Detroit (one tackle), subbing for injured Bryan Robinson, as Bengals won to clinch AFC North title. 2006—Slowed by offseason hamstring injury, but came back to play in four of the last five games ... Had three tackles Dec. 18 at Indianapolis. 2007—Played in 14 games, with six tackles, one sack, two passes defended and a fumble recovery ... Set up a FG in win Nov. 11 at Baltimore, when he recovered a Steve McNair fumble at Ravens' 21 in fourth quarter ... Logged his first NFL sack on Dec. 30 at Miami, dropping Cleo Lemon for eight-yard loss to force a punt in second quarter. 2008—Was eligible to become a restricted free agent after his '07 contract expired, but re-signed with Cincinnati on Feb. 26, three days before opening of the signing period ... Played 16 games for the first time and posted career-best 50 tackles ... Had three tackles-for-loss and four QB hurries ... On Nov. 30 vs. Baltimore, had a career-high 10 tackles, and he tied that with line-leading 10 stops on Dec. 14 vs. Washington.

COLLEGE: Late-blooming prospect played only one season as a major college starter, helping 2004 Utah team to 12-0 record, including 35-7 win over Pitt in Tostitos Fiesta Bowl ... Also played for Utah in 2003, after transferring from College of the Canyons (Santa Clarita, Calif.) ... Played in 11 games with 10 starts in '04, totaling 22 tackles, three sacks, 5.5 tackles-for-loss, and one fumble recovery, and he had a 76-yard interception return for a TD in victory Sept. 18 at Utah State ... Had four tackles and a sack in the Fiesta Bowl win over Pitt.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Pago Pago, American Samoa ... Lettered in football, basketball, track and volleyball at Tafuna High School ... Member of a family with 12 children ... Lifelong friend of Bengals DT Domata Peko, who is also from American Samoa ... Sociology major at Utah ... Married (wife Lorelei) ... Last name is pronounced "Fuh-NAY-nay."

7th year in NFL

College: Georgia

Career Games-Starts: 88-59

Acquired: D4b'04

(117th overall)

Born: 8-11-83

A two-time sacks leader in his six previous Bengals seasons, Geathers started 15 games plus the Wild Card playoff in 2009 ... Led D-line in tackles (56), including 3.5 sacks, and for the second straight season, he led team in coaches' compilation of QB pressures (13) ... Had two passes defended, a forced fumble and two defensive fumble recoveries (tied for team lead) ... His 10.5 sacks in '06 stand as most by a Bengal since 1983.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-15 at LDE ... Inactive for Game 16 at N.Y. Jets, resting a knee strain, but returned to start Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

TAKE THE FUMBLE AND RUN: Geathers had 113 return yards on his two fumble recoveries in 2009 — the most yards in a season by a Bengal since fumble recovery statistics became officially logged in 1976. The previous season record was 75, on one return by LB Ray Bentley in 1992. Bentley's return was the longest single fumble return in Bengals history until Oct. 4 of last year, when Geathers tied it at Cleveland with a 75-yard TD return after grabbing a fumble by HB Jerome Harrison in mid-air. On Nov. 22 at Oakland, Geathers had 38-yard return of a Michael Bush fumble to Raiders' 13, giving him his 113 total for 2009.

MORE 2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Had line-leading eight tackles in Sept. 27 win vs. Pittsburgh, including a shared sack of Ben Roethlisberger on third down in fourth quarter, forcing Steelers punt that preceded Bengals' game-winning drive ... On Oct. 18 vs. Houston, had a forced fumble in fourth quarter while downing RB Steve Slaton for a four-yard loss (Bengals recovered fumble) ... Led line in tackles for fourth straight week on Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, with three ... Helped preserve win Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore with 10-yard sack of Joe Flacco late in fourth quarter ... On Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, had nine-yard sack of Ben Roethlisberger on first-and-goal from Bengals' eight in second quarter, helping hold Steelers to a FG ... Had line-leading six tackles Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, including a tackle-for-loss on a run play and a seven-yard sack of QB Matt Stafford on a third down in the third quarter, forcing a punt ... On Dec. 20 at San Diego, his three tackles included teaming with Dhani Jones to stop QB Philip Rivers for no gain on third-and-one from Chargers' 29 in third quarter, forcing a punt ... Logged six tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2004—Drafted by Bengals in fourth round (117th overall) ... Ranked fourth on team in sacks (3.5) and led line in passes defended (five) ... Made key plays in four wins in season's second half ... On Nov. 7 vs. Dallas, had a sack and forced fumble, a key pass defended, and a QB pressure that led to an intentional grounding penalty ... Had 1.5 sacks in win Nov. 28 vs. Cleveland ... On Dec. 26 vs. N.Y. Giants, his deflection of an Eli Manning pass led to Carl Powell's game-clinching INT with less than a minute to play ... Continued his big-play ways Jan. 2 at Philadelphia, intercepting a Jeff Blake swing pass in the third quarter and returning it 36 yards for TD that gave Bengals a 24-3 lead. 2005—Started every game at RDE, including Wild Card playoff ... His 52 tackles included three sacks ... Had a season-high six tackles Nov. 6 at Baltimore, including 10-yard sack of Anthony Wright ... In crucial win Dec. 4 at Pittsburgh, forced a Hines Ward fumble in second quarter that Bengals recovered at their 25. 2006—His 10.5 sacks still stand as club's most since Eddie Edwards had 13 in '83 ... Was Bengals' only sacker in double digits since '92, when LB/DE Alfred Williams had 10 ... On Sept. 10 at Kansas City, his six tackles included two sacks for 18 yards against Trent Green ... In win Sept. 24 at Pittsburgh, recorded four tackles, including two sacks of Ben Roethlisberger for eight yards ... Had five tackles in shutout Nov. 26 at Cleveland, including 10-yard sack of Charlie Frye ... Had two sacks of Aaron Brooks on Dec. 10 vs. Oakland. 2007—Led team in sacks (3.5) ... Started 12 games at LDE, and started four games (Games 5-8) at SLB, aiding injury-depleted LB corps ... Second on line in tackles (69), and was one of four Bengals to log an entry in every column of defensive stat sheet ... Played dominant role in season-opening win Sept. 10 vs. Baltimore, with line-leading eight tackles, an eight-yard sack, an interception with a 30-yard return, a pass defended, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery. 2008—Started Games 1-11 at LDE, but suffered knee injury in Game 11, Nov. 20 at Pittsburgh ... Placed Nov. 24 on Reserve/Injured list, ending streak of 74 straight games played ... Despite missed time, led team in QB hurries (12) and finished second on line in tackles (56) ... On Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, tied for team lead with personal season-high 10 tackles, including two for losses ... On Nov. 2 vs. Jacksonville, sacked David Garrard for 10 yards to force a second-quarter punt ... On Nov. 16 vs. Philadelphia, executed a sack-and-strip against Donovan McNabb in first quarter to set up a Cincinnati FG (Bengals recovered fumble) ... On Nov. 20 at Pittsburgh, recorded two tackles and a QB hurry before suffering a season-ending knee injury in first quarter.

ALL IN THE FAMILY: Geathers has football in his blood. His uncle, Jumpy Geathers, and his father, Robert Sr., were both talented defensive linemen. Jumpy recorded 62 sacks in a 13-year NFL career (1984-96 with New Orleans, Washington, Atlanta and Denver). Robert Sr. starred at South Carolina State and earned a third-round draft selection by Buffalo in 1981 before being hampered by an injury. "My dad gave me a football when I was three years old," Robert Jr. recalls. "That's the first thing I remember, carrying that ball around the house, running from him."

COLLEGE: Entered NFL Draft after his junior season at Georgia ... Started all 14 games in 2003 as Bulldogs posted 11-3 record ... Played 39 games over three seasons (2001-03), but did not become a full-time starter until '03 ... Had career totals of 81 tackles, five sacks, 10 tackles-for-loss, 22 QB pressures and two INTs.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Georgetown, S.C. ... Attended Carvers Bay High School, where he recorded 100 tackles and nine sacks as a senior and had 130 tackles with 14 sacks as a junior ... Married (wife Adria), with a son, Robert III ... Sports studies major at Georgia ... Last name is pronounced as "gathers."

On Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, contributed to defensive yield of just 169 net yards, fewest yards allowed by a Bengals defense since 1983 (154 at Pittsburgh on 12-4-83) ... On Dec. 13 at Minnesota, intercepted a Brett Favre pass at Bengals' 30 to cut short a first-quarter Vikings drive ... Logged his sixth INT on Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, with leaping grab at Bengals' 19 to kill Chiefs' last offensive threat, and he also led team with four total passes defended while getting four tackles ... Posted seven tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2007—Drafted by

Bengals in first round (18th overall) ... Played in every game, with 10 starts, and led team with five INTs, tying Bengals rookie record set previously by S Tommy Casanova, CB Ray Horton and LB Odell Thurman ... Also tied for NFL's '07 rookie lead in INTs ... Ranked fourth on Bengals in tackles (85), leading secondary ... Started in NFL debut Sept. 10 vs. Baltimore, subbing for injured RCB Johnathan Joseph, and had five tackles and two passes defended ... Snagged first NFL interception on Sept. 23 at Seattle, against QB Matt Hasselbeck ... On Nov. 11 at Baltimore, intercepted a deflected Steve McNair pass in end zone just before halftime, preserving 6-0 lead in eventual Bengals win ... Nabbed his fifth INT on Dec. 23 vs. Cleveland, picking off Derek Anderson pass at Bengals' 32 late in second quarter, and his 12-yard return to Browns' 20 set up TD for the eventual winning points.

2008—Posted team-best totals of 26 passes defended and three INTs ... Named AFC Defensive Player of the Week for performance Dec. 21 at Cleveland, when made all three of his INTs, tying Bengals game record and scoring on a 50-yard return ... His TD return at Cleveland gave Bengals a 7-0 lead on a cold, blustery day when offensive scores were tough to come by (Bengals went on to win 14-0) ... Had 12 more passes defended than the second-place Bengal (Johnathan Joseph, 14) ... Led DBs in tackles (84) for the second straight year, and also had a fumble recovery and five special teams tackles ... Four passes defended, including two that forced punts, in win Dec. 14 vs. Washington.

COLLEGE: A consensus 2006 All-American for Michigan, Hall played four seasons (2003-06) ... 2009 PFWA HONORS

The Cincinnati Chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America named CBs Johnathan Joseph and Leon Hall as the Bengals' 2009 Most Valuable Players, while QB Carson Palmer was the recipient of the organization's "Good Guy" award. The voters are the beat writers who cover the team on a daily basis.

It was the first time that the MVP award went to the defense, and also the first time there were co-MVPs.

Past MVP winners were QB Jon Kitna (2002-03), HB Rudi Johnson (2004), Palmer (2005), OT Willie Anderson (2006) and WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh (2007-08).

Past "Good Guy" award winners were FB Lorenzo Neal, OT Willie Anderson, HB Brandon Bennett, LB Brian Simmons, DT John Thornton, Houshmandzadeh, DT Bryan Robinson and G Bobbie Williams.

Palmer and Houshmandzadeh are the only players to win both the MVP and the Good Guy awards.

The first kicking specialist taken in the 2009 NFL Draft, Huber upgraded the Bengals' punting game last year and looks to further improvement in his second pro season ... Played in all 16 regular-season games, plus the Wild Card playoff vs. the N.Y. Jets ... His 43.2-yard gross average tied Bengals' second-best since 1999 ... Had a 36.3 net average, and in the 10 previous seasons, only once did a Bengals punter better that mark ... Had 24 inside-20 kicks and only 10 touchbacks ... Also did a solid job as the holder for placekicks ... Won a national punting title in college and twice led the nation in net punting.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Drafted by Bengals in fifth round (142nd overall) ... Made regular-season debut Sept. 13 vs. Denver, averaging 39.7 yards on seven punts, with season-best five pinned inside-20 ... Showed his promise in win Sept. 20 vs. Green Bay, averaging 46.3 yards on four punts with a strong 41.3 net ... Had two key punts in second half at Green Bay, a 48-yarder that went out of bounds at Green Bay four and a 56-yarder to the Packers' 26 that backed Green Bay up to its 16 when a holding penalty was tacked on ... Averaged 45.1 yards (31.8 net) on nine punts Oct. 4 at Cleveland, with two pinned inside-20 ... Averaged a season-best 49.8 yards Nov. 22 at Oakland ... On Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, successfully kicked away from AFC punt return leader Joshua Cribbs, denying him a return, while averaging 42.0 yards on six punts (38.7 net average), with four inside-20 kicks and just one touchback ... Had a 49-yard punt downed on the one-yard line on Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets ... Averaged 48.0 yards on four punts in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets, with a 36.5 net average.

CINCINNATI ALL THE WAY: Huber is only the second player drafted by the Bengals who has grown up in Cincinnati and attended both high school and college in the Queen City. He attended McNicholas High School before enrolling at the University of Cincinnati. The first such player was RB Clem Turner, a fourth-round Bengals draftee in 1969 who went to Woodward High and then to UC. Turner played for the Bengals only in 1969. He also played for Denver from 1970-72.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2005-08) at Cincinnati, with 117 of his 124 punts coming in his last two campaigns ... Led the nation in net punting avg. in both 2007 and '08, and as a junior in 2007, his 46.9-yard gross average made him the first UC player to win the official national punting title ... Averaged 45.5 gross yards for his career, becoming eighth player in Division I/FBS history to average 45.0 yards or more for his career ... Had 47 inside-20 kicks for his career, with just 14 touchbacks ... Redshirted (did not play) in 2004.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Cincinnati ... Attended McNicholas High School, where he was a three-time all-league selection ... Finance major at University of Cincinnati, twice earning Commissioner's Honor Roll when Bearcats played in Conference USA ... Later made the Big East All-Academic team ... Single ... Favorite hobby is golf.

25 DOES THE TRICK

The Bengals are 28-1 in 29 regular-season games under coach Marvin Lewis in which a Cincinnati rusher has carried 25 or more times, including an 8-0 mark when HB Cedric Benson has turned the trick. Six of Benson's eight 25-carry games occurred in the 2009 season.

Also during the Lewis era, Cincinnati was 18-1 when Rudi Johnson had 25 or more carries (over 2003-07), and the Bengals were 2-0 when Kenny Watson had a pair of 25-plus games (both in 2007).

Cincinnati's only loss under Lewis with a 25-carry rusher was Dec. 24, 2006 at Denver, when the Broncos overcame a 30-for-129 day by Johnson in a 24-23 win. Factors that contributed to the game being the lone exception to the 25-carry formula included a minus-two turnover differential for the Bengals and an aborted PAT in the closing seconds that kept Cincinnati from forcing overtime.

Jeanty returns for his fifth Bengals season, after leading the 2009 club in special teams tackles (14) ... Closed season as starting SLB, replacing injured Rey Mauluga, but suffered his own serious injury, a fractured fibula, on opening kickoff of Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets ... Was limited in team's 2010 offseason work, but is forecast to be ready to resume full participation in training camp ... Though he had only 16 tackles on defense last season, he proved his ability in a starting role in 2008, when his 97 tackles ranked fourth on team ... Began his pro career in the Canadian Football League (from 2003-05) ... Became a restricted free agent on 3-5-10, but re-signed with Cincinnati on 3-25-10.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Became a restricted free agent on Feb. 27, and re-signed with Cincinnati on April 17 ... Played in 15 games (Games 1-4 and 6-16), plus the Wild Card playoff ... Started as injury replacement at SLB in Game 16 at N.Y. Jets ... Sidelined early on Oct. 4 at Cleveland with finger injury, and inactive on Oct. 11 at Baltimore.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Tied for team lead with three special teams tackles Oct. 18 vs. Houston ... Had team-leading three special teams stops Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh ... Tied for team lead with two special teams tackles Dec. 6 vs. Detroit ... Came off bench to replace injured Rey Mauluga at SLB on Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, and logged two tackles on defense as Bengals won to clinch AFC North title ... On Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets, recorded personal season-high 11 tackles on defense, second on team for the game.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2006—Signed with Bengals on Feb. 13 as a free agent, after playing three pro seasons in Canada ... Started in his NFL debut, Sept. 10 at Kansas City, due to an injury to David Pollack, and was the only undrafted rookie in an NFL starting lineup on Kickoff Weekend ... Totaled 12 games played with nine starts, missing Games 4-7 with foot injury ... On Nov. 5 at Baltimore, tied for team lead with 11 tackles.

2007—Limited by injuries to 10 games and seven starts, but gave defense a boost with starts in seven of the last eight games ... Team was 5-2 when he started ... On Nov. 25 vs. Tennessee, recovered a Vince Young fumble at Bengals' five early in second quarter, preserving a 7-0 lead ... On Dec. 2 at Pittsburgh, forced a Willie Parker fumble that was recovered by Bengals ... Had season-high seven tackles in "spoiler" win Dec. 23 vs. Cleveland. 2008—In addition to ranking fourth on team with 97 tackles on defense, he ranked second on team in special teams tackles (15), more than twice as many special teams stops as any other regular offensive or defensive starter ... Also had a fumble recovery and a Bengals onside kick recovery on special teams ... Tied for team lead in forced fumbles on defense (two) for second straight year ... On Sept. 7 at Baltimore, forced a fumble by RB Ray Rice that was returned 65 yards for TD by Bengals' Johnathan Joseph ... Had nine tackles for the second week in a row on Sept. 21 at N.Y. Giants, and led special teams with five tackles, team high for the season ... Had career-high 13 tackles on Nov. 30 vs. Baltimore ... On Dec. 7 at Indianapolis, stopped a scoring threat with a forced fumble against TE Dallas Clark at Cincinnati one-yard line, with Bengals recovering in end zone for a touchback.

ED BLOCK WINNER: Jeanty was voted by teammates as the Bengals' 2008 winner of the Ed Block Courage Award, which honors players who "demonstrate commitment to the values of sportsmanship and courage."

CFL: Played 37 games from 2003-05 with Edmonton in Canadian Football League, seeing action as a DE ... Had 13 sacks over his final two seasons, including eight in '05 ... Started all 18 games in '04 ... Limited to 14 games in '05, due to hand injury that sidelined him for playoffs and the Grey Cup.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons (2001-02) at Central Florida, logging 9.5 sacks and 137 tackles in 22 games ... In 2001, earned second-team all-freshman honors from Football News and was named to The Sporting News third-team freshman All-America team.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Miami, Fla. ... Attended Carol City High School, where he was rated the 14th best player in the nation and sixth best in Florida by The Miami Herald ... Name is pronounced "ruh-SHAHD JENN-tee."

POSTSEASON: 1 game/0 starts (no statistics) with Cincinnati in 2009.

TV STREAK AT 85

In each of the last 85 TV ratings weeks that have included a Bengals regular-season or postseason game — a period dating back to 2004 — the Bengals have been the top-rated show among all programming in the Cincinnati market.

The streak went to 85 in strong fashion, as the club's Jan. 9 Wild Card playoff against the New York Jets last season drew a Cincinnati rating of 45.5, easily topping the local rankings for the week of Jan. 4-10. The rating number indicates the percentage of market households tuned to the game, including those not watching TV at the time. The 45.5 figure matched the highest Bengals rating during the streak, as a 45.5 was also achieved for the team's playoff game vs. Pittsburgh on Jan. 8, 2006.

Broadcast on NBC, the Jets game drew a 17.3 national rating, making it the highest-rated Game One playoff for NBC since the network resumed NFL coverage in 2006. Dayton, Ohio, was the nation's second-most popular market for the game, with a local rating of 32.5, and Columbus, Ohio, ranked fourth at 23.8.

The Bengals' streak of dominance in Cincinnati TV ratings began Dec. 5, 2004, when a wild win at Baltimore outpulled all other programs. The high rating of Bengals games has occurred despite the fact most games are played in the afternoon, when overall TV viewership is not as high as it is during the evening.

Not tendered by his former team (Arizona) for 2008, Johnson has been a highly productive free agent pickup for Bengals over the last two seasons ... Finished 2009 regular season with No. 7 defensive rank in tackles (67), leading team in tackles in two games ... Tied for second on team in special teams tackles (12) ... Had 1.5 sacks, a fumble recovery and three passes defended ... Played extensively in passing situations when not in base starting unit ... In 2008, he opened season as a reserve, but finished the year with nine starts and ranked second on team in tackles (112) ... Became a restricted free agent on 3-5-10, and re-signed with Bengals on 4-15-10.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Became a restricted free agent on Feb. 27, and re-signed with Cincinnati on April 16 ... Played in all 16 games, with three starts (Games 9-11) in place of injured WLB Keith Rivers ... Also started Wild Card playoff, replacing injured Rashad Jeanty at SLB.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Had six tackles Oct. 4 at Cleveland, including four-yard loss against RB Jerome Harrison in overtime, helping force a punt ... Had six tackles Oct. 18 vs. Houston, and recovered a fumble from RB Steve Slaton at Bengals' 29 in fourth quarter ... Also vs. Houston, tied for team lead in special teams tackles (three) ... Had two tackles and team-leading two special teams tackles Oct. 25 vs. Chicago ... Had team-leading nine tackles after replacing injured starter Keith Rivers in third quarter Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, and his 1.5 sacks included a seven-yarder on third down in third quarter, forcing a punt ... Also vs. Baltimore, had team-high three QB pressures ... Started Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, and posted 13 total tackles on a day when no other Bengal topped six ... Had eight solos vs. Cleveland, and contributed to defensive yield of just 169 net yards, fewest yards allowed by a Bengals defense since 1983 (154 at Pittsburgh on 12-4-83) ... On Dec. 13 at Minnesota, his QB pressure on Brett Favre in the first quarter helped cause CB Leon Hall's INT ... In Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets, led team in passes defended (two), tied for lead in special teams tackles (two) and had four tackles on defense.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2006—Drafted by Arizona in fifth round (142nd overall) ... Played in three games, with two special teams tackles ... Made NFL debut in Game 8, Oct. 29 at Green Bay. 2007—Saw action in six games for Arizona, with six special teams tackles ... Game-day inactive for the other 10 contests ... Logged two special teams tackles in a pair of games, Nov. 4 at Tampa Bay and Dec. 2 vs. Cleveland. 2008—Signed with Bengals as free agent on March 20 ... Played as reserve in Games 1-7, and took over starting WLB spot early in Game 7 (Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh), due to injury to Keith Rivers ... Started Games 8-16, and over those nine starts, he led team in tackles (90) ... Had 112 tackles on the season, ranked second on team ... Ranked second in QB pressures (10) and tied for second in tackles-for-loss (five) ... On Nov. 16 vs. Philadelphia, tied for team tackles lead for third time in four weeks, logging eight, and also had his first career INT, setting up Bengals' only TD drive as he returned 35 yards to Eagles' 49 in second quarter ... On Nov. 30 vs. Baltimore, tied team season high for tackles (17), including a solo sack of Joe Flacco and one shared sack ... On Dec. 21 at Cleveland, his INT at Bengals' 33 with just over three minutes to play snuffed Browns' last hope for comeback from 14-0 deficit ... Also at Cleveland, tied for team lead in tackles (15) and passes defended (three) and led in special teams tackles (two).

COLLEGE: Played in 50 games with 31 starts over four seasons at Louisville ... Logged 240 tackles with 7.5 sacks ... Scored three TDs — on an interception, a blocked punt and a fumble return ... Led the team in tackles (72) as a senior ... Tied for the national lead with three blocked punts as a freshman.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Birmingham, Ala. ... Attended Minor High School in Adamsville, Ala., where he lettered three times in football and in basketball while making the academic honor roll.

DEFENSE POSTS RECORD STREAK

Over Games 5-12 of 2009, the Bengals set a franchise record by holding eight straight opponents under the 100-yard mark in rushing.

Prior to 2009, the franchise record for consecutive games in this category was six, and that spanned two seasons (1981-82). The previous record for one season was five straight games, set in 1983.

For the full season, the Bengals held 11 of 16 opponents under 100 yards.

Johnson has potential to be a key performer on defense after a promising rookie season ... Third-round draft pick played in all 16 games, plus Wild Card playoff, and increased his role as the season progressed ... Listed as a DE in 2009, he is on roster as an LB in 2010 ... Logged 16 tackles on defense, including three sacks ... Led D-line in passes defended (five), including a deflection that led to key Bengals INT in win vs. Detroit ... Tied for seventh on team in special teams tackles (seven) ... Saw increased action after Oct. 18 injury to DE Antwan Odom.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: On Oct. 18 vs. Houston, had a third-down pass defended to force a punt in third quarter ... Had his first sack Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, when he teamed with DE Jonathan Fanene on a fourth-down, fourth-quarter drop of Joe Flacco to seal victory ... In win Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, aided strong pass rush with two QB pressures on Ben Roethlisberger, including one on Pittsburgh's final play to help force an errant pass ... On Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, contributed to defensive yield of just 169 net yards, fewest yards allowed by a Bengals defense since 1983 (154 at Pittsburgh on 12-4-83) ... On Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, deflected a Matt Stafford pass that DE Jonathan Fanene intercepted for 45-yard TD, tying score at 7-7 in second quarter ... Also vs. Detroit, had a nine-yard sack in fourth quarter ... On Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, had eight-yard sack of Matt Cassel on third-down play in first quarter, and in fourth quarter, he deflected pass on third down to force punt ... Tied for special teams lead with two tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets, and had one tackle on defense.

COLLEGE: Played 49 games over four seasons (2005-08) at Georgia Tech ... Team captain as a senior, he broke into starting lineup, and his nine sacks helped him earn first-team All-America honors from American Football Coaches Association ... Though he played only one year as a starter, he finished career as a significant playmaker, with 19 sacks, 10 forced fumbles, three blocked field goals and 30.5 tackles-for-loss ... Posted 17.5 of his tackles-for-loss as a senior starter.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Selma, Ala. ... Attended Dallas County High School, playing DE and TE, and as a senior, he caught 42-for-650 with six TDs while adding 92 tackles with 14 sacks ... Also an outstanding prep basketball player, averaging 16 points and 10 rebounds as a junior ... Hobbies include playing spades and basketball ... Enjoys community work with children's causes.

Had five tackles and a sack in divisional playoff win vs. Seattle on 1-14-07 ... Five tackles with a shared sack in Super Bowl loss to Indianapolis. 2007—On June 4, NFL announced Johnson would be suspended for Games 1-8 of the regular season, due to violation of league's personal conduct policy ... Released by Chicago on June 25 ... Signed by Dallas on Sept. 18, and played for Cowboys in Games 9-16 after serving suspension ... Made first Dallas start in season finale, Dec. 30 at Washington, and had three tackles and a forced fumble ... Had two tackles, including a sack, in Divisional playoff on 1-13-08 vs. N.Y. Giants. 2008—Played in all 16 Dallas games and recorded 45 tackles while logging nine QB pressures and a sack ... Had a key forced fumble in Cowboys' victory over Bengals, derailing Cincinnati comeback bid as a teammate covered HB Chris Perry's fumble ... Logged five tackles, with one for a loss, as Cowboys won 14-10 on Nov. 16 at Washington, limiting league's No. 4 rush offense to 92 yards ... Posted six tackles, including a sack and a tackle-for-loss, in 34-9 Thanksgiving win on Nov. 27 vs. Seattle.

COLLEGE: Spent four seasons (2000-03) at Washington ... Did not see action as a freshman, but played 35 games with 23 starts over his final three seasons ... Scored a TD in each of his final three seasons, highlighted by a 38-yard INT return against Texas' Chris Simms in 2002 Holiday Bowl ... Had 15 career sacks ... Began career as a TE, but switched to defense early in his sophomore year.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Tempe, Ariz. ... Attended McClintock High School, where he played tight end and on defensive line ... Uses the first name "Tank," which he acquired for his aggressive playing style, but his given first name is Terry.

4th year in NFL*

College: West Virginia

2009 Games-Starts: 0-0

Career Games-Starts: 39-34

Acquired: FA'10

Born: 9-30-83

The sixth overall pick in the 2005 draft, Jones signed with Bengals as a free agent on 5-10-10 and looks to restart his once-promising career after sitting out 2009 ... Last played in 2008 with Dallas ... Began career with Tennessee, and started 28 of his 30 games played over 2005-06 ... In 39 total NFL games, has logged 151 tackles with four INTs and 33 total passes defended, and has been a standout kick returner ... Led NFL in punt return average (12.9) for Tennessee in '06, and has four career punt returns for TDs ... Also has 25.8-yard career average on kickoff returns.

2009: Waived by Dallas on Feb. 9 ... Not with an NFL team for remainder of season.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2005—Drafted by Tennessee in first round (sixth overall) ... Primary starter at RCB, he led team in passes defended (12) and logged 53 tackles ... Ranked fourth in NFL in kickoff returns (26.2) and fifth in AFC in punt returns (9.4) ... Named to Pro Football Weekly all-rookie team as punt returner ... Had an 85-yard KOR on Nov. 20 vs. Jacksonville ... On Dec. 11 vs. Houston, his 52-yard punt return was Titans' only TD in 13-10 win, and he was named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week. 2006—Started 15 games, and his four INTs included 83-yard INT return for TD on David Garrard pass in 24-17 win Dec. 17 vs. Jacksonville ... Also had a 70-yard kickoff return in the Jaguars game ... Second on team in passes defended (14) ... Led NFL in punt returns (12.9 on 34 returns), with three returns for TDs, tying Titans/Oilers franchise record ... On Oct. 29 vs. Houston, sparked 28-22 win with a 53-yard punt return TD in fourth quarter, and logged his first career INT (off Sage Rosenfels) ... On Nov. 19 at Philadelphia, aided 31-13 win with punt return of 90 yards for TD, a franchise record ... Two INTs off Eli Manning in comeback Nov. 26 vs. N.Y. Giants, as Titans scored 24 in fourth quarter for 24-21 win ... On Dec. 31 vs. New England, had an 81-yard punt return for TD and a 47-yard KOR, and his 259 total kick return yards for the game was the NFL's season high ... Saw spot duty on offense for Titans, gaining eight yards on two rushing attempts and 17 yards on two receptions ... Did not play Nov. 5 at Jacksonville, suspended by Titans for one game. 2007—On April 10, suspended indefinitely by NFL for violation of player conduct policy ... Remained on suspension through the season. 2008—Re-signed with Tennessee on April 26, while still on suspension, and was traded April 27 to Dallas for fourth-round selection in '08 draft ... Suspension lifted on Aug. 28, and played in Cowboys preseason finale that night vs. Minnesota ... Played in nine Cowboys games in regular season (Games 1-6 and 14-16), logging 33 tackles and 13 passes defended ... Also averaged 22.1 yards on seven KOR and 4.5 yards on 21 PR ... Suspended by NFL for player conduct violations from Oct. 14 through Dec. 2, missing Games 7-12 ... Inactive for Game 13.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons (2002-04) at West Virginia before declaring for NFL Draft after his junior year ... First-team All-America selection as a junior by College Football News, after leading team in tackles (76) and posting two sacks and three INTs ... Also as a senior, named Big East Special Teams Player of the Year, averaging 14.6 yards with a TD on punt returns and 23.4 yards on kickoff returns ... For his career, played 36 games with 22 starts, with 201 tackles, eight INTs, 30 total passes defended, two sacks, two fumble recoveries and two forced fumbles.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Atlanta, Ga. ... Attended Westlake High School, where as a DB and RB he earned Class 4A all-state honors and was named his conference's player of the year ... Also earned prep All-America honors in basketball, and ran track ... Special education major at West Virginia, and was a member of Athletic Director's Academic Honor roll ... Has a daughter, Zaniyah ... While with Tennessee, he financially supported an organization that aids families of police, firefighters and emergency workers who lost their lives in the line of duty, and he made support visits to Nashville's Pearl Cohn High School after a football player was killed in a car accident.

*NOTE: Jones did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 2009 because he was not on a 53-player roster, a Reserve/Injured list or a Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a fourth-year player in 2010.

Former NFC standout has been an impact player since resurrecting his career as a free agent signee with Bengals in 2007 ... Won team tackling title for second straight year last season, posting 142 stops ... Started all 16 games at MLB, and his tackle total included 3.5 sacks, tops among LBs ... Tied for team lead in fumble recoveries on defense (two) and led front seven in passes defended (six) ... Voted a team captain in each of his three Bengals seasons, on special teams in 2007 and on defense in 2008 and '09 ... Starter for Philadelphia in Super Bowl XXXIX (2004 season).

2009 PARTICIPATION: One of seven Bengals to start all 16 games plus Wild Card playoff ... Has played in all 47 games (including postseason) since joining Cincinnati in September 2007 ... Has started the last 41 games (including postseason) ... Second on Bengals behind TE Reggie Kelly in career NFL games played (141).

IT HASN'T BEEN CLOSE: Jones not only has led the Bengals in tackles for two straight years, he has led by runaway margins. In 2009, his 142 stops (based on coaches' tape analysis) were 41 more than LB Keith Rivers, who was second at 101. In 2008, Jones' 163 tackles were good for a margin of 51 over LB Brandon Johnson. The 51-tackle margin stands as the largest by a Bengals tackling leader during coach Marvin Lewis' tenure (2003-09).

MORE 2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Led team Sept. 20 at Green Bay with 12 tackles ... Logged 13 tackles Oct. 4 at Cleveland ... Tied for team lead in tackles (10) on Oct. 11 at Baltimore, including six-yard sack of Joe Flacco ... Tied for front-seven lead with five tackles Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, including a four-yard loss against RB Matt Forte in first quarter ... Also vs. Chicago, recovered Devin Hester fumble at Bengals' 34 in second quarter ... Spearheaded defensive performance of only 226 net yards allowed Nov.

15 at Pittsburgh, with team-leading nine tackles, including seven-yard sack of Ben Roethlisberger ... Tied for team lead in tackles (seven) Nov. 22 at Oakland, and recovered Bruce Gradkowski fumble at Bengals' 32 in second quarter ... On Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, had six tackles and first two passes defended of season as he contributed to defensive yield of just 169 net yards, fewest yards allowed by Bengals defense since 1983 (154 at Pittsburgh on 12-4-83) ... Second on team Dec. 6 vs. Detroit with nine tackles, including 11-yard sack, and also had a pass defended ... Tied his personal season-high with 13 tackles (led team) Dec. 13 at Minnesota ... Led team in tackles (nine) Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, and added a pass defended ... Seven tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2000—Drafted by N.Y. Giants in sixth round (177th overall) ... Placed Aug. 20 on Reserve/Injured list, due to knee injury (torn ACL) suffered during training camp. 2001—Played all 16 games for Giants and led club in special teams tackles (16) ... Logged first pro INT on Nov. 4 vs. Dallas, picking off a Clint Storner pass with 14-yard return. 2002—Broke into Giants starting lineup and finished third on team with 101 tackles ... Season-high 13 tackles on Dec. 1 vs. Tennessee, and recovered a Steve McNair fumble to set up a FG ... Intercepted a Peyton Manning pass Dec. 22 at Indianapolis ... Had five tackles in first playoff appearance, on 1-5-03 at San Francisco. 2003—Started every game in his final season with Giants ... Posted career highs in tackles (154) and sacks (three) ... Had career game-high of 18 tackles on Sept. 15 vs. Dallas, and intercepted a Quincy Carter pass. 2004—Signed with Philadelphia as unrestricted free agent on March 9 ... Played every game, with 15 starts, and started two of Eagles' three playoff games, including Super Bowl XXXIX vs. New England (two tackles). 2005—Started 16 games and posted 105 tackles for Eagles ... Led team with eight tackles in win Sept. 18 vs. San Francisco, and intercepted a Tim Rattay pass. 2006—Played 16 games with 13 starts for NFC East champion Philadelphia, logging 93 tackles, and had 10 more tackles while seeing action in both Eagles playoff games (one start) ... Had seven tackles in Divisional playoff loss on 1-13-06 at New Orleans. 2007—Cincinnati was his third NFL address on the year, but he went on to finish second on Bengals defense with 111 tackles ... Released by Philadelphia on April 30 ... Signed July 10 with New Orleans; released by Saints on Aug. 31 ... Signed by Bengals on Sept. 19 and played in Cincinnati's last 14 games, with nine starts ... Tied for team lead in forced fumbles (two) ... Took over starting WLB role on Nov. 11 at Baltimore ... In win Nov. 25 vs. Tennessee, preserved an early 7-0 lead with sack-and-strip of quarterback Vince Young, Bengals recovering at their five-yard line. 2008—Re-signed with Cincinnati, as an unrestricted free agent, on March 4 ... Played his first full Bengals season and led team with 165 tackles ... Led front seven in passes defended with nine, including one INT ... Tied for team lead in forced fumbles (two) and ranked third in QB pressures (nine) ... Led team with 15 tackles in each of Games 2-4 — Sept. 14 vs. Tennessee, Sept. 21 at N.Y. Giants and Sept. 28 vs. Cleveland ... On Nov. 2 vs. Jacksonville, returned 13 yards with INT of a David Garrard pass, setting up drive for eventual winning TD ... On Dec. 14 vs. Washington, tied team's season high for tackles in a game, logging 17 ... Led team in tackles (11) on Dec. 28 vs. Kansas City, and forced a Tyler Thigpen fumble that he recovered himself at Chiefs' 34.

WIDE WORLD OF DHANI: Prior to 2009, Jones had already earned off-field recognition as an entrepreneur (Five Star Bow Ties), media personality (NFL Network and ESPN2), musician (saxophone, bass) and travel enthusiast. He has gone a step further the last two offseasons, combining many of his favorite elements as the star of the TV show, "Dhani Tackles the Globe," on the Travel Channel. On the show, he has immersed himself in learning new sports while also taking in the culture of different nations. "I like travel and sports, and this is a nice balance between the two," Jones says. "And all of it has aided me in becoming a better athlete." Jones' endeavors have included Muay Thai fighting in Thailand, dragon-boat racing in Singapore, rugby in England, and a climb to within a mile of the Mt. Everest summit.

COLLEGE: Earned All-Big Ten honors during each of his three seasons as a starter (1997-99) at Michigan ... Finished second on team as a senior with 81 tackles ... Had six sacks as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Potomac, Md. ... Attended Winston Churchill High School, where he was inducted into school Hall of Fame after starring in football, wrestling and track ... Active in community service, he was Giants' 2002 nominee for NFL Man of the Year, and he received Eagles' 2004 Community Hero Award ... First name, pronounced "duh-HAH-nee," means "thinking man" in the Hindi language.

A STAT THAT MATTERS

Under head coach Marvin Lewis (since 2003), the Bengals show a 37-6-1 record when posting a plus in turnover differential. That's a winning percentage of .852.

With a minus differential, however, the record under Lewis has been almost a mirror image, at 7-35 (.167).

When the differential has been even, the results have been about even, with the Bengals at 12-14 (.462).

Career Games-Starts: 54-15

Acquired: FA'10
Born: 4-22-83

A fifth-year NFL player for 2010, Jones signed with Bengals as a free agent on 2-18-10 ... Was a first-round draft pick by Jacksonville in 2005, and in four seasons ('05-08) with Jaguars, played in 54 games with 15 starts and caught 166 passes for 2153 yards and 15 TDs ... Also played in three postseason games, with nine catches for 142 yards and one TD ... Did not play in NFL in 2009 ... Led Jaguars in receiving yards in two of his four seasons ... His most productive season was 2008, when he led team in receptions (65) and receiving yards (761) despite playing in only 12 games ... Made transition to pro WR after starring as a QB throughout his college career.

2009 RECAP: Released by Jacksonville on March 16, after being suspended for the last three games of 2008 for a violation of NFL substance abuse policy ... Not under contract with an NFL team for the remainder of the year.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2005—Drafted by Jacksonville in first round (21st overall) ... Played in every game, including one postseason contest ... Had 36 receptions for 432 yards, and his five TD catches set a Jaguars rookie record while ranking second among NFL rookies for the season ... Had first career 100-yard game (five-for-117) on Nov. 13 vs. Baltimore, with a TD. 2006—Led team with 643 receiving yards, playing 14 games with four starts (missed two games with hamstring injury) ... Had 41 catches, including 13 of 20 or more yards, and scored four TDs ... Led team with 15.7 per-catch average ... Caught six-for-128, with a 15-yard TD, on Dec. 3 at Miami ... Caught five-for-104 in season finale Dec. 31 at Kansas City. 2007—Played 12 games, with 24 receptions for 317 yards and four TDs ... Played in both Jaguars postseason games, and on 1-12-07 at New England, he had a 49-yard reception plus an eight-yarder for a TD ... On Oct. 28 at Tampa Bay, caught eight-yard game-winning TD pass from Quinn Gray ... Had a career-high 138 receiving yards in regular-season finale Dec. 30 at Houston, including a five-yard TD, and set a career-best (later tied) with eight receptions. 2008—Led team in receptions (65) and receiving yards (761), with two TDs ... Led team in receptions in seven of the first nine games ... Caught eight-for-117 on Oct. 26 vs. Cleveland, with an eight-yard TD ... Led team with seven catches (for 69 yards) on Nov. 2 at Bengals ... Caught eight-for-104 on Dec. 1 at Houston ... On NFL suspension for Games 14-16.

COLLEGE: Four-year letterman (2001-04) at QB for Arkansas, finishing career as No. 2 in Razorbacks history in TD passes (53) and passing yards (5857) ... Had plus-23 differential between TD passes (53) and INTs (30) ... Gained 8392 yards in total offense and had a hand in 77 TDs, smashing records previously held by Clint Stoerner (7049 yards and 62 TDs) ... Established Southeastern Conference record for career rushing yards by a QB (2535) and had 24 rushing TDs.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Fort Smith, Ark. ... Played his first three prep seasons at Van Buren (Ark.) High School, and played as a senior at Northside HS in Fort Smith. ... Earned all-state football honors as a senior, passing for 830 yards and rushing for 939 ... Also played basketball in high school, and was a finalist for McDonald's All-America honors ... Active in community service in Jacksonville, supporting events such as Taste of the NFL, Operation Blessing, reading initiatives and youth football camps ... Favorite hobbies are hunting and fishing.

*NOTE: Jones did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 2009 because he was not on a 53-player roster, a Reserve/Injured list or a Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a fifth-year player in 2010.

2009 Games-Starts: 16-16

Career Games-Starts: 55-46

Acquired: D1'06

Born: 4-16-84

Joseph was a key player last year in Cincinnati's climb to among top NFL defenses ... Started all 16 games plus Wild Card playoff, and tied with CB Leon Hall for team lead in INTs (six) ... Second on team in passes defended (25), and twice had five PDs in a game, team-high for season ... Tied for second in AFC and tied for fifth in NFL in INTs ... Had crucial INT return for TD in home win vs. Pittsburgh, scoring a TD for the third straight season ... Had 83 tackles, ranking fourth on team, and tied for team lead in forced fumbles on defense (two) ... With one INT in each of Games 3-5, became first Bengal with a pick in three straight games since CB Deltha O'Neal had a four-game streak in 2005.

MISSION ACCOMPLISHED: Joseph had been limited by injuries in both 2007 and '08, and he entered '09 with a stated goal of starting every game. He did that, covering all 21 games in preseason, regular season and postseason.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Launched Bengals' second-half comeback Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh, taking third-quarter INT of Ben Roethlisberger pass 30 yards for a TD, cutting Steelers' lead to 13-9 ... On Oct. 4 at Cleveland, intercepted a Derek Anderson pass on Bengals' goal line and returned it 32 yards in third quarter ... On Oct. 11 at Baltimore, halted Ravens' first threat when he intercepted a Joe Flacco pass at goal line in first quarter and returned it 21 yards ... Led team in tackles (seven) Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, and had his first forced fumble of year when he stripped WR Devin Hester, with LB Dhani Jones recovering for Bengals at Cincinnati 34 in second quarter ... On Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, posted team season-high in passes defended (five), including a third-quarter INT of Joe Flacco on a deep pass ... Had team-high four passes defended, with five tackles and a forced fumble in Nov. 15 win at Pittsburgh ... Had four tackles Nov. 22 at Oakland, plus a diving INT of Bruce Gradkowski pass at Bengals' 19 in the fourth-quarter ... Tied his own team season-high with five passes defended on Dec. 13 at Minnesota, including two PDs in end zone ... On Dec. 20 at San Diego, picked off a Philip Rivers pass at Bengals' 19 in the second quarter and returned it seven yards ... Five tackles in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2006—Drafted by Bengals in first round (24th overall) ... Led team in passes defended (19) and ranked sixth in tackles (67) ... Opened year in No. 3 CB role, but finished with nine starts, including the last seven games as he supplanted veteran Deltha O'Neal ... Had one fumble recovery, and on Nov. 19 at New Orleans, had Bengals' first blocked PAT since 1991 ... Selected to Peter King's Sports Illustrated Mid-Season All-Rookie Team ... Started at LCB in his pro debut, subbing for injured Deltha

O'Neal on Sept. 10 at Kansas City, and had five tackles. 2007—Played 15 games with 14 starts, but did not hit full speed until November, when he gained full recovery from a spring minicamp foot injury ... Tied for team lead in passes defended (16) ... Ranked second on team with four INTs, including one for a TD ... On Oct. 21 vs. N.Y. Jets, went 42 yards for a TD with his first pro INT (off Chad Pennington), and the late fourth-quarter score provided eventual winning points in 38-31 decision ... Logged an INT in consecutive games, against QB Vince Young on Nov. 25 vs. Tennessee and against Ben Roethlisberger on Dec. 2 at Pittsburgh ... In win Dec. 23 vs. Cleveland, helped Bengals derail Browns' playoff bid when he picked off a Derek Anderson pass at the Cincinnati five in fourth quarter. 2008—Limited by injuries to eight games (placed Nov. 21 on Reserve/Injured list), but finished second on team in passes defended (14) ... On Sept. 7 at Baltimore, his 65-year return of a Ray Rice fumble produced Bengals' only TD ... On Oct. 12 at N.Y. Jets, his team-leading three passes defended included one that led to a Corey Lynch INT ... In 21-19 win Nov. 2 vs. Jacksonville, prevented Jaguars from tying score at 21 when he teamed with S Marvin White to break up two-point conversion pass late in fourth quarter ... On Nov. 16 vs. Philadelphia, halted an Eagle threat just before halftime when he picked off Donovan McNabb pass at Bengals' 12 and returned it 22 yards to the 34.

COLLEGE: Played two seasons (2004-05) at South Carolina after playing in 2003 at Coffeyville (Kan.) Community College ... Entered NFL Draft after his junior season at South Carolina ... Played only 14 games at South Carolina, due to broken foot that limited him to two games in '04, but still was able to establish himself among the elite CBs in Southeastern Conference ... Played in 12 games with 11 starts in '05, when he had four INTs (one for TD).

PERSONAL: Hometown is Rock Hill, S.C. ... Attended Northwestern High School, where he was all-state in football and all-region in track ... Criminal justice major at South Carolina ... Has a son, Jay'vion.

Started in Wild Card playoff win Jan. 4 at Green Bay, and came off bench in Divisional playoff loss Jan. 11 at Philadelphia ... On Oct. 20 vs. Carolina, helped team amass 260 rushing yards (most since 1972) and four rushing TDs (most since '73). 2003—Signed with Bengals as unrestricted free agent on March 13 ... Played in 12 games, with 11 starts ... Inactive in Games 8-11 due to left foot injury ... Had one-yard TD catch in third quarter Sept. 28 at Cleveland, breaking 14-14 tie with the final scoring play in 21-14 win that was Marvin Lewis' first NFL head coaching victory. 2004—Played every Bengals game, with 15 starts ... Cited by coaches for his blocking Nov. 28 vs. Cleveland as Rudi Johnson's 202-yard rushing day sparked a 253-yard team rushing effort, most since 2000 ... Had season highs of four catches and 25 yards in comeback win Dec. 5 at Baltimore. 2005—Helped Bengals capture AFC North title, and his one TD catch came in crucial win Dec. 4 at Pittsburgh ... His blocking aided pass protection that yielded what was then a team record-low of 21 sacks ... Supported a second straight club-record rushing season by Rudi Johnson (1454 yards in 2004 and 1458 in '05). 2006—Started every game, with 21 catches and one TD, and his 254 yards were his most as a Bengal ... On Nov. 19 at New Orleans, recovered outside kick late in fourth quarter to help preserve Cincinnati win ... In win Oct. 22 vs. Carolina, his 16-yard TD catch tied score 7-7 in second quarter. 2007—Re-signed with Bengals on March 8, after gaining unrestricted free agent status ... Started 15 games and contributed to franchise-best figure of only 17 sacks allowed ... Had 20 catches for 211 yards ... Voted by teammates and trainers as Bengals winner of Ed Block Courage Award, which honors NFL players who demonstrate commitment to the values of sportsmanship and courage ... On Nov. 4 at Buffalo, had a key block on Glenn Holt's 100-yard kickoff return for a TD ... On Dec. 23 vs. Cleveland, when Bengals derailed Browns' playoff hopes, had a 24-yard catch to one-yard line in second quarter, setting up TD for a 19-0 lead. 2008—Played every game, with 15 starts ... Third on team in receptions (31), his Bengals high and tying his NFL high ... Fourth in receiving yards (207) ... Helped lead offense to 167.0-yard rushing average over final three games ... Caught four passes for 22 yards on Sept. 21 at N.Y. Giants, including 12-yarder that converted a third down on drive for FG that sent game into overtime ... On Dec. 21 at Cleveland, his blocking aided 191-yard rushing output ... Supported season-high 204-yard rushing effort on Dec. 28 vs. Kansas City.

COLLEGE: Earned all-SEC first-team honors as a Mississippi State senior, and made the SEC Academic Honor Roll for three straight years ... Finished second on team as a senior in knockdown blocks (54), and had 12 catches for 140 yards ... Played 44 career games, with 22 starts, and had 29 career catches for 474 yards.

Wt: 225

4th year in NFL

College: Rutgers

2009 Games-Starts: 14-1

Career Games-Starts: 32-8

Acquired: T(StL.)09

Born: 2-3-84

Leonard was a significant factor on offense last year in his first season with the Bengals, particularly on third downs ... Led RBs in receptions (30) and receiving yards (217), with 19 of his catches coming on third down ... His 27 rushes for 84 yards included a five-yard gain for a first down Sept. 13 vs. Denver, when he took a direct snap on a fake punt ... Also had nine special teams tackles (sixth on team) and a key offensive fumble recovery.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Played in 14 games (Games 1-5 and 8-16), and credited with a start on Nov. 22 at Oakland, when HB Cedric Benson was out with an injury ... Inactive on Oct. 18 vs. Houston, due to groin injury suffered Oct. 11 at Baltimore ... Inactive Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, as coaches went one short at RB on 45-player roster to accommodate need for extra defensive lineman.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: On the game-winning drive in the fourth quarter Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh, dove for the first-down marker to convert a fourth-and-10 play to the Steelers' four, and following TD reception by Andre

Caldwell, Leonard caught two-point conversion pass to secure the eventual 23-20 final score ... Gained 28 yards on a team-high six receptions Oct. 4 at Cleveland ... On Oct. 11 at Baltimore, recovered an aborted shotgun snap to Carson Palmer at Ravens' 30, keeping alive Cincinnati's winning TD drive ... His three catches Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh included 17-yard gain on third-and-five as Bengals drove for go-ahead FG in fourth quarter ... Saw increased playing time Nov. 22 at Oakland, with injured Cedric Benson on inactive status, and had season-highs in rushes (13) and rushing yards (36) ... Had two receptions for 12 yards Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, including an eight-yarder to convert third-and-seven from Bengals' five on winning TD drive ... Two catches for seven yards in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets, and also had a special teams tackle.

RARE MOVE: A second-round St. Louis selection in the 2007 draft, Leonard was obtained by Bengals in a trade with the Rams for DT Orien Harris on 5-7-09. Leonard was the first Bengal obtained in a straight player-for-player trade in almost 20 years. The most recent previous instance was Sept. 1, 1990, when Cincinnati swapped DE Jim Skow to Tampa Bay for CB Rod Jones.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2007—Drafted by St. Louis in second round (52nd overall) ... Saw action at HB, FB and on special teams while playing every game, with seven starts ... Posted 486 yards from scrimmage, including a 100-yard rushing effort ... Started at HB in Games 4-7 as replacement for injured Steven Jackson ... Rushed for 303 yards on the season on 86 carries (3.5 avg.) and was 30-for-183 receiving (6.1) ... Made first start Sept. 30 at Dallas and rushed 16-for-58 ...

Rushed 18-for-102 in starting role Oct. 7 vs. Arizona, with career-long 31-yard rush. 2008—Limited to two games with Rams ... Suffered shoulder injury Aug. 16 vs. San Diego and missed last two preseason games and Games 1-3 of regular season (inactive) ... Played in Games 4-5, but suffered reaggravation of shoulder injury in Game 5, Oct. 12 at Washington ... Placed on Reserve/Injured list on Oct. 13.

DRADDY TROPHY: As a Rutgers senior in 2006, Leonard was the winner of the Draddy Trophy, awarded by the National Football Foundation to the college player with the best combination of academics, community service and on-field performance. Past winners have included NFL standout QBs Peyton Manning (1997) and Chad Pennington (1999). Past Bengals connections to the award include Ohio State QB Craig Krenzel (2003), who was with the Bengals in 2005, and Tennessee OT Michael Muñoz (2004), the son of Bengals Hall of Fame OT Anthony Muñoz.

MORE FROM COLLEGE: Left Rutgers with school records for receptions (207), TDs (45) and rushing attempts (678) and ranked fifth in rushing yards (2775) ... Played four seasons (2003-06), seeing action in 47 games with 45 starts, and set a Big East record for most games played with at least one catch in every contest (47) ... Led Big East in all-purpose yards as a sophomore in 2004, averaging 125.0 per game.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Gouverneur, N.Y. ... Attended Gouverneur High School, where he set New York state career scoring record with 696 points, including 107 TDs, while rushing for 5854 yards ... Holds degree from Rutgers in labor studies.

College: Memphis

Career Games-Starts: 0-0

Acquired: D7b'09

(249th overall)

Born: 1-6-87

McDonald joined the Bengals as a seventh-round draft choice for 2009 and spent his rookie season on the practice squad ... Has potential to contribute at end as well as tackle ... Signed on 1-11-10 to Bengals' offseason roster.

2009 RECAP: Drafted by Bengals in seventh round (249th overall) ... Played in three preseason games, and his five tackles included a sack on Sept. 3 vs. Indianapolis ... Waived on Sept. 5, and signed to practice squad on Sept. 6 ... On practice squad for all 16 games, plus Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2005-08) at Memphis ... Totaled 11.5 sacks among his 141 career tackles, playing 48 games with 33 starts ... First-team All-Conference USA as a senior, with team-leading seven sacks ... Was the only junior to be voted as one of two permanent captains during the tenure of head coach Tommy West, and he retained that role as a senior ... Tied school record for sacks in a game when he got four against Arkansas State as a senior, earning C-USA Defensive Player of the Week honors.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Jacksonville, Ark. ... Three-year letterman at Jacksonville High School, where he earned Class 5-A all-state honors and was named to Arkansas Democrat-Gazette's 5-A Top Prospects list ... At Memphis, was listed twice on Conference USA Commissioner's Academic Honor Roll.

*NOTE: McDonald did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 2009 because he was not on a 53-player roster, a Reserve/Injured list or a Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a first-year player in 2010.

10 WINS, NO PLAYOFFS

The best Bengals team to miss out on postseason play was coach Bill Johnson's 1976 club, which went 10-4 but lost a tiebreaker to Pittsburgh for the AFC Central title. Only one Wild Card team made the playoffs from each conference at that time, and the berth went to an 11-3 New England club that lost a tiebreaker in the AFC East. One other Bengals team — the 1986 club — won 10 games (10-6) and failed to make the playoffs.

RECORD ON THE ROAD

From the 2008 road finale at Cleveland through Nov. 15, 2009, the Bengals set a franchise record by compiling five consecutive road wins.

In starting 4-0 on the road last season, the Bengals tied the club record for consecutive road wins within a season. The four-game streak put them on equal footing with some of the best clubs in team annals. Other Bengals clubs that won four straight on the road in the same season have been:

- The 1975 team, which finished 11-3, for the best regular-season winning percentage (.786) in franchise history.
- The 1981 club, which finished 12-4 and reached Cincinnati's first Super Bowl.
- The 2005 team, which went 11-5 and claimed the AFC North championship.

(253rd overall)

Born: 3-4-85

A late seventh-round Bengals draft selection in 2007, Ndukwe has been a significant contributor and playmaker in each of his three pro seasons ... Took over No. 1 SS spot last season, following injury to Roy Williams, and closed season as the secondary leader in tackles (91, ranked third on team) ... Had two sacks, leading the secondary, and his seven sacks over 2007-09 rank tied for fourth (with DE/DT Jonathan Fanene) on the team for that span, trailing only DEs Robert Geathers, Antwan Odom and Justin Smith ... Has two fumble returns for TDs, and five career INTs ... Tied for team tackles lead (10) in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Played in all 16 games, plus Wild Card playoff ... Made 12 regular-season starts at SS (Games 4 and 6-16), and also started in playoff.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Made first start of season Oct. 4 at Cleveland, and his seven tackles included 12-yard sack of Derek Anderson, plus a stop for no gain of Jerome Harrison on third-and-one play from Bengals' nine in third quarter, forcing Browns to settle for FG ... Started at SS Oct. 18 vs. Houston and contributed 11 tackles ... Five tackles and two passes defended on Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, and was credited with a shared sack when he teamed with LB Brandon Johnson to bring down Joe Flacco for nine-yard loss late in fourth quarter ... Ranked second on team with eight tackles Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, as Bengals limited Steelers to 226 net yards, and also had a pass defended ... Tied for team lead in tackles (seven) Nov. 22 at Oakland, and forced a fumble against RB Michael Bush that DE Robert Geathers returned 38 yards to Raiders' 13, setting up a Bengals FG ... Led secondary with seven tackles on Dec. 13 at Minnesota ... Had a team-leading 12 tackles Dec. 20 at San Diego, had a QB pressure that helped force an INT by CB Johnathan Joseph, and also had a shared sack and one pass defended ... Logged his first INT of season on Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City ... His 10 tackles tied for team lead in Wild Card on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets, and he led team in solo stops (seven).

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2007—Drafted by Cincinnati in seventh round (253rd overall) ... Saw action in 14 games with two starts, and made key plays in wins at Baltimore, vs. Cleveland and at Miami ... Subbed at starting SS for injured starter Dexter Jackson in the last two games ... One of four Bengals to log an entry in every column of season defensive stat sheet ... Was the only Bengal with multiple INTs in a game in 2007, nabbing two Derek Anderson passes in victory Dec. 23 vs. Cleveland ... Keyed defensive effort in win Nov. 11 at Baltimore, forcing a third-quarter Steve McNair fumble that Bengals recovered to set up a FG, and intercepting a Kyle Boller pass in the end zone in fourth quarter ... On Dec. 30 at Miami, his 54-yard TD on a fumble recovery gave Bengals a 28-10 lead in fourth quarter. 2008—Missed five games due to injuries, but started the other 11 contests and tied for team lead in sacks (three) while ranking seventh in tackles (77) ... Became first member of the secondary to claim a share of team sacks lead since 2000 (S Cory Hall) ... Led defensive effort Sept. 28 vs. Cleveland, logging 11-yard sack of Derek Anderson among his seven tackles, and had a 12-yard INT among his three passes defended ... On Oct. 12 at N.Y. Jets, returned Brett Favre fumble 15 yards for a TD on game's third scrimmage play, giving Bengals 7-0 lead ... On Dec. 21 at Cleveland, led secondary in tackles (nine) and sacked Ken Dorsey for 11-yard loss to close first half.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2003-06) at Notre Dame, seeing action in 46 games with 25 starts ... Began his career at WR, but switched to SS as a sophomore ... Finished second on team in tackles (98) as a senior, helping Irish land a Sugar Bowl bid ... His 22 tackles as a senior vs. Air Force were most in a game by an NCAA Division I player on the season ... Helped preserve 17-10 win over Michigan as a junior with fourth-quarter fumble recovery on goal line that stopped a Wolverine threat.

PERSONAL: Born in Charlottesville, Va., but grew up in Powell, Ohio ... Attended Coffman High School in Dublin, Ohio, where he played WR and earned All-America honors from CBSSportsLine.com as a senior ... In high school, was a prime receiving target of future Notre Dame QB Brady Quinn, now with Denver Broncos ... Had dual majors (marketing and psychology) at Notre Dame ... Has been chosen twice to participate in the NFL Business Management and Entrepreneurial Program ... Brother Ike, an offensive lineman, has been in NFL with Washington, Baltimore, Miami and Kansas City ... First name is pronounced "CHIN-uh-doom," and last name is pronounced "en-DUKE-way."

Nelson looks to expand his role in 2010 after a promising rookie season ... One of two Bengals college free agent signees to make the opening 2009 roster, he played in 12 games, with three starts as an injury replacement ... Had 23 tackles, one INT, two passes defended and four special teams tackles.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Signed by Bengals on April 30 as college free agent ... Played in all four preseason games ... Inactive for Games 1-3 and 5 of regular season ... Played in Games 4 and 6-16, and started Games 14-16 at FS in place of injured Chris Crocker ... Inactive for Wild Card playoff, as Crocker returned to lineup.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Made NFL debut Oct. 4 at Cleveland, playing on special teams, and logged one tackle ... Saw extensive action in place of injured FS Chris Crocker on Dec. 6 vs. Detroit and logged first pro INT, snagging a Matt Stafford pass at Bengals' 32 in fourth quarter ... Also vs. Detroit, had additional pass defended and two tackles ... Saw extensive action for second straight week Dec.13 at Minnesota, when he again replaced injured Crocker and logged personal season-high six tackles ... Recorded first career NFL start Dec. 20 at San Diego, in place of Crocker, and had four tackles ... Posted five tackles Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets before leaving in second quarter with injured knee.

COLLEGE: Four-year standout in the FCS ranks, Nelson played the 2005-08 seasons at Illinois State, starting all 46 games he played ... As a senior, led team in tackles (81) and led Missouri Valley Conference in punt returns (15.7 avg.) ... Senior season included an 82-yard punt return for a TD and a 97-yard score on a kickoff return ... Seven career INTs, including two in one game against Heisman Trophy finalist Chase Daniel of Missouri ... Named MVC Freshman of the Year in 2005.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Arlington Heights, Ill. ... Honor roll student at John Hersey High School, where as a senior QB he rushed for 900 yards and nine TDs while passing for 1034 yards and eight scores ... Also lettered in high school in basketball and baseball.

A sixth-year NFL player with two 100-point seasons on his resume, Nugent signed with Bengals as a free agent on 4-23-10 ... Former Ohio State All-American, and a native of Centerville, Ohio ... A second-round draft selection by the N.Y. Jets in 2005, he averaged 102 points per season in his first three years and set a Jets season record in '06 for field goal accuracy (88.9) ... Had a streak of 19 straight successful FG attempts, second in Jets history ... Selected as a Jets team captain ... Suffered an injury early in 2008, playing in only one game, and signed with Tampa Bay for '09 ... Also played for Arizona last season.

2009 RECAP: Signed March 4 with Tampa Bay as unrestricted free agent, following four seasons with Jets ... Played in Games 1-4 for Bucs, and was released on Oct. 6 ... Signed Dec. 16 by Arizona, played in Games 14-15, and was released by Cardinals on 1-1-10 ... Over six games, he went 14-for-14 on PATs and four-for-eight on field goals (three of his misses were from 46 yards or beyond).

NUGENT'S GAME-WINNERS: Nugent has made three game-winning FGs in the last two minutes of regulation or in overtime ... On 12-25-06 at Miami, made a 30-yard FG in the rain with 10 seconds to play, lifting Jets to a 13-10 win in nationally-televised Monday night game ... On 11-18-07 vs. Pittsburgh, his 38-yarder in OT produced a 19-16 win ... On 12-30-07 vs. Kansas City, his 43-yarder in OT netted a 13-10 win.

MORE FROM PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2005—

Drafted by N.Y. Jets in second round (47th overall) ... Played in every game and scored 90 points, going 22-for-28 on FGs and 24-for-24 on PATs ... Made nine of his last 10 FG tries, including four-for-four in win Dec. 11 vs. Oakland. 2006—Scored 106 points as Jets went 10-6 to earn Wild Card playoff berth ... Made 24-of-27 FG attempts, setting Jets season accuracy record at 88.9 percent ... Made all three of his FG attempts in playoff loss at New England ... Kicked career-long FG of 54 yards, second-longest in Jets history, on Nov. 26 vs. Houston. 2007—Established career highs for points (110) and field goals (29) ... His 50-yard FG on Sept. 16 at Baltimore was his 19th straight, dating back to 2006, a streak that ranks second in Jets history ... FG streak was snapped when he missed a 52-yarder later in Ravens game ... On Nov. 4 vs. Washington, hit a game-tying 30-yarder with 10 seconds to play in fourth quarter ... Went four-for-four on FGs in consecutive games Dec. 2 at Miami and Dec. 9 vs. Cleveland. 2008—Suffered quad injury on a kickoff in season opener, Sept. 7 at Miami, and was not able to finish the game ... Remained with Jets on game day inactive status for Games 2-16, as following his recovery, Jets chose not to displace Jay Feely as No. 1 kicker.

COLLEGE: Left Ohio State with 22 school records, including most career points (356) ... Won the Lou Groza Award (nation's top kicker) as a senior in 2004 and was a consensus All-American ... In 2002, he scored an OSU-record 120 points and became the first Buckeye kicker to earn first-team All-America honors ... Was 72-for-88 (81.8 percent) on FGs for his career.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Centerville, Ohio ... Attended Centerville High School, where he was a second-team Division I All-Ohio selection by Associated Press ... Also played QB as a prep senior, rushing for seven TDs and passing for three ... Earned degree from Ohio State in logistics management ... Active in community service, he has worked with United Way and Taste of the NFL ... Father, Dan, played football at Wisconsin and Dayton ... In 2006, appeared on "The Late Show with David Letterman" and kicked a football through a 12th-floor window at CBS offices.

10th year in NFL

College: Oregon State

Career Games-Starts: 137-120

Acquired: D2'01

Born: 1-9-78

Bengals' all-time leader in receptions (684) and receiving yards (9952), Ochocinco was selected last season for his sixth career Pro Bowl ... Played every game for the fifth time in last six seasons and led team by wide margins in receptions (72), receiving yards (1047) and TDs (nine) ... Needs 48 receiving yards to become the 33rd NFL player with 10,000 in career ... Has 62 career receiving TDs, two short of passing Carl Pickens (63) for all-time Bengals lead ... Caught at least one pass in each of the first 15 games last year, extending to 120 his Bengals-record streak for consecutive games with a catch, but the streak was snapped when he was shut out in brief action on Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets ... Had three 100-yard receiving games, extending to 29 his club record in the category ... In the five seasons from 2003-07, he posted what stand as the five highest season receiving yards totals in Bengals history ... Is the only Bengal to lead NFL in receiving yards for a season (1369 yards in '06).

A SIX-PACK OF PRO BOWLS: In garnering his sixth career Pro Bowl selection last year, Ochocinco tied CB Lemar Parrish for the second-most nods in Bengals history. OT Anthony Munoz is first with 11. Ochocinco last year replaced injured Wes Welker of New England, who was selected in original voting in December. In the Pro Bowl game, Ochocinco aided the AFC's 41-34 victory with four receptions for 80 yards. Ochocinco's first five Pro Bowl nods came after the 2003-07 seasons.

CATCHING THE CLINCHER: The last of Ochocinco's team-leading nine TD catches last season was a division championship clincher. His six-yard score on Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City broke a 10-10 tie with 2:03 to play, and the 17-10 win gave the Bengals their second AFC North title under head coach Marvin Lewis.

MORE 2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Cracked the 1000-yard receiving mark for the seventh time in his nine-year career ... On Sept. 20 at Green Bay, his 13-yard TD catch put Bengals ahead to stay at 28-21 in third quarter ... In win Oct. 4 at Cleveland, his TD catch on fourth-and-goal from the two sent the game into overtime, and he also had a five-yard TD in first quarter ... Caught seven-for-94 on Oct. 11 at Baltimore, and drew 25 yards in Ravens' penalties against him on Cincinnati's game-winning TD drive ... On Oct. 18 vs. Houston, gained 103 yards on five catches, including personal season-long 50-yarder in second quarter ... Had second straight 100-yard receiving game in win Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, catching personal season-high of 10, for 118 yards, including TDs of eight yards in first quarter and 13 yards in third quarter ... Logged a personal season-high 137 receiving yards (on nine catches) Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, including 36-yard TD in second quarter that put Cincinnati ahead for good at 14-7 ... On Dec. 20 at San Diego, his 49-yard TD gave Bengals a 10-7 lead in second quarter, and he set up another TD with 26-yard rush to Chargers' seven ... Played only briefly in regular-season finale on 1-3-10 at N.Y. Jets, and with no receptions, he saw the end of his club-record streak of 120 straight games with a catch ... Caught two-for-28 in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets ... In preseason, kicked PAT for winning margin in 7-6 victory at New England on Aug. 20 (subbing for injured PK Shayne Graham).

CHAD'S RECORD FILE: Following is a list of Bengals records held by Ochocinco:

- ▶ Receptions/career: 684.
- ▶ Receiving yards/career: 9952.
- ▶ Receiving yards/game: 260 on Nov. 12, 2006 vs. San Diego.
- ▶ Receiving yards/season: 1440 in 2007 (Ochocinco has the top five seasons in club history).
- ▶ Receiving yards/consecutive games: 450, vs. San Diego and at New Orleans in 2006 (also an NFL record).
- ▶ 100-yard receiving games/career: 29.
- ▶ 90+ receptions seasons: Four.
- ▶ 100-yard receiving games/season: Five (shared).
- ▶ Receiving TDs/game: Three (shared).

NOBODY BUT CHAD: Ochocinco is the only NFL player to lead his conference (AFC or NFC) in receiving yards in four straight seasons. He turned the trick from 2003 through '06. Only two other players, Oakland's Tim Brown and San Francisco's Jerry Rice, have been conference leaders for even three consecutive seasons. They both did three straight from 1993-95, Brown in the AFC and Rice in the NFC.

DUAL LEADS ARE DAZZLING: Ochocinco is the only Bengal to have won AFC season crowns in both receptions and receiving yards. He logged his only AFC receptions title in 2005, with 97 catches, and '05 was one of four consecutive years ('03-'06) when he won the AFC receiving yards title. Two other Bengals have won AFC receptions titles — Carl Pickens in 1995-96 and T.J. Houshmandzadeh in 2007 — but neither won a yardage title. Joining Ochocinco as former AFC receiving yards leaders are Isaac Curtis (1973) and Eddie Brown ('88), but neither Curtis nor Brown won a catches title.

MORE FROM PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2001—

Drafted by Cincinnati in second round (36th overall) ... Entered draft after his junior season at Oregon State ... Finished third on team in receiving yards (329), despite missing four games (Games 6-9) due to fractured left clavicle suffered Oct. 14 vs. Cleveland ... On Sept. 30 at San Diego, made his first two NFL catches, the second going eight yards for a TD from Jon Kitna. 2002—Cracked starting lineup in his second season, and his 1166 receiving yards stand as the most ever by a first or second-year Bengal ... Led team in receptions (69) and yards per catch (16.9), and had five TDs ... Caught seven-for-152 on Nov. 24 at Pittsburgh. 2003—His AFC-leading 1355 receiving yards set Bengals season record at the time, breaking Eddie Brown's mark of 1273 that had stood since 1988 ... Had 90 catches, led team with career-high 10 TDs, and earned his first Pro Bowl berth ... Tied club record for TD receptions in a game with three on Nov. 23 at San Diego ... Had career-long 82-yard catch (for a TD) in victory Oct. 19 vs. Baltimore ... His 53-yard TD catch Oct. 26 vs. Seattle lifted Bengals from 24-20 deficit to 27-24 win ... Had five catches for 156 yards in Pro Bowl, second-most yards in game history, and his 90-yard TD was second-longest in game history. 2004—Led AFC in receiving yards (1274), and his 95 catches ranked third in NFL ... Voted to second straight Pro Bowl ... Made diving 53-yard TD catch on Sept. 12 at N.Y. Jets in QB Carson Palmer's first NFL start ... In Monday night win Oct. 25 vs. Denver, caught seven-for-149, with a pair of 50-yard gains ... Had two TDs on Dec. 26 vs. N.Y. Giants, including game-winning four-yard grab with 44 seconds left. 2005—Posted career highs in receptions (97) and receiving yards (1432, since surpassed), leading AFC in both categories ... Named to third straight Pro Bowl ... Caught seven-for-139 Sept. 18 vs. Minnesota, electrifying home-opener crowd with a 70-yard TD on game's second scrimmage play, launching 37-8 Bengals win ... Had 189 receiving yards in Nov. 20 showcase game vs. Indianapolis ... Caught career-high 11 passes (since surpassed) in division-clinching win Dec. 18 at Detroit ... Caught four-for-59 in Wild Card playoff 1-8-06 vs. Pittsburgh. 2006—Named for third straight season to the Associated Press All-Pro team, and also named All-Pro by Pro Football Weekly/Pro Football Writers Association ... Voted to fourth straight Pro Bowl ... His NFL-leading 1369 yards came on 87 catches, and he scored seven TDs ... Made the most dramatic catch of the season on Oct. 22 vs. Carolina, setting up the winning TD in fourth quarter when he made good on a Bengals' fourth-and-one gamble, beating tight coverage for 32-yard gain to Panthers' three. 2007—His 1440 receiving yards broke his own team single-season record, and his 93 catches marked his fourth career 90-catch season ... Named to fifth straight Pro Bowl ... Had five 100-yard receiving games, tying team record he already shared ... Captured Bengals' all-time receiving yards lead on Sept. 16 at Cleveland, when his 209-yard game pushed him to 7229 total, ahead of Isaac Curtis (7101) ... Captured Bengals' all-time receptions lead on Nov. 25 vs. Tennessee, when his career-high tying 12 catches moved him to 537 total, ahead of Carl Pickens (530) ... Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week for the Tennessee game, when he had 103 yards with three TD catches ... His 209 yards Sept. 16 at Cleveland was the AFC high for the year, coming on 11 catches, and he scored two TDs ... Had two TDs among his four catches Dec. 30 at Miami, including 70-yarder that was Bengals' longest scrimmage play of the year. 2008—Limited to 13 games with 10 starts, and missed selection for Pro Bowl for the first time in six years ... Had 53 catches for 540 yards (10.2 avg.) and tied for team TD lead (four) ... Played in Games 1-10 and 12-14 ... Inactive for Game 11, Nov. 20 at Pittsburgh, due to team rules violation, halting streak of 113 consecutive games played (seventh in team history) ... Inactive for Games 15-16 with hamstring injury ... Opened regular season in lineup despite missing last two preseason games with shoulder injury ... In win Nov. 2 vs. Jacksonville, scored first two Bengals TDs, on receptions of two yards (first quarter) and 10 yards (second quarter).

NAME CHANGE: Ochocinco played as "Chad Johnson" for the first seven years of his Bengals career. He legally changed his last name to Ochocinco prior to the 2008 season. The Bengals and the NFL now use the name Ochocinco for all references to him, including notations of statistics and records he posted prior to the change.

COLLEGE: In 2000, his only major college season, averaged 21.8 yards per catch, helping Oregon State to No. 4 national ranking and Fiesta Bowl win over Notre Dame ... Caught TD passes of four and 74 yards in Fiesta Bowl ... College teammate of Seahawks WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh, with both players chosen by Bengals in 2001 NFL Draft ... Ochocinco played in 1997 and '99 at Santa Monica (Calif.) College; sat out '98 to concentrate on academics.

DANCING AND DATING: Ochocinco remained visible to fans across the nation during the recent offseason. He teamed with professional partner Cheryl Burke on ABC television's highly-rated "Dancing with the Stars," and women vied to be his date on "The Ultimate Catch," a program on VH1.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Miami, Fla. ... Attended Miami Beach High School ... Physical education major at Oregon State ... Attended Langston University (Okla.) in 1996, but did not play football ... Enjoys following international soccer ... Last name is pronounced "O-cho-SEEN-ko."

7th year in NFL

College: Alabama

2009 Games-Starts: 6-6

Career Games-Starts: 70-48

Acquired: UFA(Tenn.)'08

Born: 9-24-81

Odom opened 2009 with a record-setting sacks performance, but his season was cut short by a ruptured Achilles tendon suffered Oct. 18 vs. Houston ... Set NFL sacks record for Games 1-2 of a season, with 7.0, and through the five games he played fully, his 8.0 sacks were tied for NFL lead ... Despite missing 10 games, still led Bengals in sacks for the season and finished second in QB pressures (12) ... Also had a blocked FG ... Saw limited action in club's 2010 offseason work, but is forecasted to be at full speed for opening of training camp ... Joined Bengals in 2008 as unrestricted free agent, after four seasons with Tennessee ... Has 23.5 career sacks, plus two fumble returns of 25-plus yards for TDs.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-6 at RDE, but suffered ruptured right Achilles tendon in first quarter of Game 6, Oct. 18 vs. Houston ... Placed Oct. 19 on Reserve/Injured list.

RECORD RAMPAGE: Odom had 7.0 sacks in last season's first two games. Since 1982, when sacks became an official statistic, that stands as the most ever by an NFL player in Games 1-2. The former mark was 6.5, by Detroit DE William Gay in 1983. Odom had two sacks of Kyle Orton in the season opener vs. Denver, and on Sept. 20 at Green Bay, he earned AFC Defensive Player of the Week honors after sacking Aaron Rodgers five times. Odom also earned AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September.

MORE 2009 HIGHLIGHTS: His five sacks on Sept. 20 at Green Bay tied a Bengals single-game record, set only once previously, by DE Eddie Edwards on Dec. 21, 1980 vs. Cleveland ... Had five tackles in win Oct. 4 at Cleveland, and his eight-yard sack of QB Derek Anderson in fourth quarter helped keep Bengals within a one-score deficit, as Cleveland was forced to settle for a FG ... On Oct. 18 vs. Houston, before suffering Achilles injury, blocked a 28-yard Kris Brown field-goal attempt on Texans' first possession.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2004—Drafted by Tennessee in second round (57th overall) ... Played in every game as a rookie, with seven starts, posting 43 tackles with two sacks ... In his NFL debut Sept. 11 at Miami, had a sack and forced fumble against Jay Fiedler ... Had shared sack of Peyton Manning Dec. 5 at Indianapolis. 2005—Recorded career-best 50 tackles ... Had two fumble returns for TDs — 25 yards on Sept. 25 at St. Louis and 27 yards on Nov. 20 vs. Jacksonville ... Two sacks and a forced fumble in win Oct. 9 at Houston ... Blocked a Josh Brown FG attempt Dec. 18 vs. Seattle. 2006—Inactive for Games 1-3, due to knee injury ... Played in Games 4-7, but reaggravated the knee problem in Game 7, Oct. 29 at Houston, and was sidelined for rest of the year. 2007—Started every game for Tennessee, aiding 10-6 finish for a playoff berth with 8.0 sacks and team-best 29 QB pressures ... Sacked Jim Sorgi twice in playoff-clinching win Dec. 30 at Indianapolis ... Tied for front-seven lead in passes defended (seven) ... Helped preserve 13-10 season-opening win Sept. 9 at Jacksonville with a four-yard sack of David Garrard late in fourth quarter ... Halted two drives with third-down plays in victory Dec. 2 vs. Houston, sacking Matt Schaub in first quarter and deflecting a Schaub pass in third quarter ... Contributed a sack, a forced fumble and a blocked PAT in win Dec. 23 vs. N.Y. Jets ... Had three solo tackles and two QB pressures in Wild Card playoff on 1-6-08 at San Diego. 2008—Signed with Bengals on March 3 as unrestricted free agent ... Played in 12 games with eight starts ... Tied for team lead in sacks (3.0) and forced fumbles (two) ... Played as reserve in Games 1-2, after missing the entire preseason schedule due to foot injury suffered in opening training camp practice on July 28 ... Inactive for Games 10-13 due to a shoulder injury suffered in practice Nov. 12 ... Played as reserve in Games 14-15 as he came back from shoulder injury ... On game's third scrimmage play Oct. 12 at N.Y. Jets, made second sack-and-strip play of season, prying ball from Brett Favre for 16-yard loss, with S Chinedum Ndukwe returning fumble 15 yards for TD and a 7-0 Bengals lead.

COLLEGE: Played at Alabama from 2000-03 ... Granted a medical redshirt year for '01, when he was limited to two games by a shoulder injury ... Entered NFL Draft after his junior season of eligibility ... In 39 games for Alabama, posted 21 sacks, 26 tackles-for-loss and 40 QB pressures ... Earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2003, with 40 tackles, eight sacks, 9.5 TFL and 24 QB pressures.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Bayou La Batre, Ala. ... Attended Alma Bryant High School, where his 14-sack season as a senior helped earn him Parade All-America honors ... Has four sons (Antwan Jr., Baylor, Jeramiah and Memphis) and a daughter (Melissa) ... An avid fan of NASCAR racing and pro wrestling, and he also enjoys hunting and fishing ... Majored in human environmental studies at Alabama ... Name is pronounced "AN-twahn O-duhm."

College: California, Davis

2009 Games-Starts: 3-0

Career Games-Starts: 17-6

Acquired: UFA(S.F.)'09

Born: 8-25-79

After starting eight games for 49ers in 2008, O'Sullivan was active for every Bengals game last season in No. 2 QB role ... Played in three games following coaches' decisions to rest Carson Palmer ... Entered NFL in 2002 as a sixth-round draft choice of New Orleans, but did not see action as a passer until 2007 with Detroit ... NFL totals include 17 games played with eight starts.

2009 RECAP: Signed with Bengals on March 6, as UFA from San Francisco ... Played in Games 7, 13 and 16 ... Saw first action of regular season in lopsided win Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, playing most of fourth quarter, with no pass attempts and two-for-nine rushing ... Saw action in fourth quarter Dec. 13 at Minnesota, passing one-for-three for nine yards ... Played most of second half Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets, passing three-for-eight for 31 yards with no TDs or INTs ... Appeared in all four preseason games, making three starts as injury replacement for Carson Palmer, and posted 125.8 passer rating, completing 71.8 percent (28-39) for 358 yards with three TDs and no INTs.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2002—Drafted by New Orleans in sixth round (186th overall) ... Did not play, but on roster all season as Saints' inactive third QB. 2003—Did not play, but again on roster all season as Saints' inactive third QB. 2004—Opened season with New Orleans, was inactive third QB for Games 1-4 ... Traded along with a second-round draft pick on Oct. 4 to Green Bay, Saints acquiring DB Mike McKenzie and a conditional 2006 draft choice ... Served as Packers' third QB for final 11 games, and saw first official game action in a kneel-down situation in season-ending win on Jan. 2 at Chicago. 2005—Waived by Green Bay on Sept. 4 ... Signed Sept. 5 to Chicago practice squad ... Signed Nov. 8 to Minnesota's 53-player roster ... Served as Vikings third QB (did not play) for Games 9-16. 2006—Opened preseason with Minnesota, and was waived on Sept. 2 ... Signed Sept. 5 to New England practice squad ... Released from New England practice squad on Oct. 2 ... Signed Dec. 27 to Carolina practice squad ... Did not earn an accrued year of experience toward free agency. 2007—Signed Feb. 7 by Chicago ... Waived by Bears on July 6 ... Signed July 13 by Detroit, and was on Lions' roster all season, playing in four games ... Passed 13-for-26 for 148 yards, with one TD and two INTs ... Saw the bulk of his action on Sept. 16 vs. Minnesota, filling in for starter Jon Kitna for two quarters, passing 13-for-24 for 148-1-2. 2008—Had his busiest pro season, starting Games 1-8 and also playing in Game 10 ... Yielded starting position to Shaun Hill for Games 9-16 ... Finished with 73.6 passer rating, completing 128-of-220 (58.2 percent) for 1678 yards with eight TDs and 11 INTs ... Logged a memorable first NFL win as a starter on Sept. 14 at Seattle, posting a 106.4 passer rating in a 33-30 overtime shootout ... Passed 20-of-32 for 321-1-0 in the Seattle game, leading 49ers back from a 14-0 deficit ... Moved 49ers to a 2-1 record in a 31-13 win on Sept. 21 vs. Detroit, posting 123.3 passer with two TDs and no INTs ... Threw for three TDs on Oct. 5 vs. New England, but also suffered three INTs in 30-21 loss.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (1998-2001) at Division II California, Davis, three as the starting QB, and finished career as Aggies' all-time leader in total offense (11,544 yards) ... Passing totals were 669-of-1070 for 10,745 yards ... Threw more than twice as many TDs (96) as INTs (41) ... Set school records as a senior for passing yards (3826) and TD passes (38) ... Rushed for 473 yards as a junior.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Burbank, Calif. ... Attended Jesuit High School in Carmichael, Calif., where he set five football records, including career passing yards, and was a team captain as a senior ... Also an all-league catcher on Jesuit baseball team.

He was the inactive designated third quarterback for four regular-season games with New Orleans and one postseason game with Green Bay in 2004. In 2005, he was on the practice squad for eight games with Chicago, and he was the inactive designated third quarterback for eight games with Minnesota. In 2006, he was on the practice squad for four games with New England and one game with Carolina. In 2009, he was active but did not play in one postseason game with Cincinnati.

IN THE BEGINNING

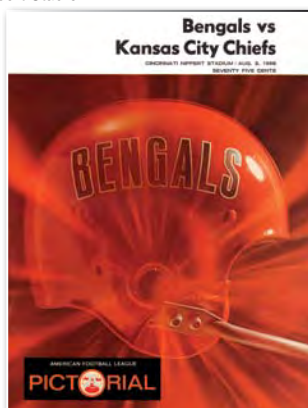

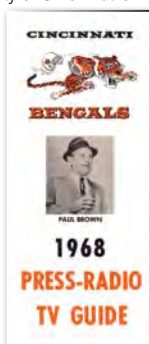

The Bengals' inaugural season was 1968, when they began play in the American Football League (which merged with the NFL in 1970).

Pictured below are the cover from the team's first media guide — then known as the Press-Radio-TV Guide — and the cover of the game program from the first-ever Bengals game, a preseason matchup vs. Kansas City on Aug. 3, 1968 at the University of Cincinnati's Nippert Stadium.

That first Bengals team had a seven-man coaching staff (in contrast to the 2010 club's 17-man staff).

Head coach Paul Brown was joined by Bill Johnson (offensive line coach), Rick Forzano (offensive backfield), Jack Donaldson (defensive line), Tom Bass (defensive backfield), Bill Walsh (offensive ends) and Frank Smouse (linebackers).

The first player acquired by the Bengals was quarterback John Stofa, obtained from the Miami Dolphins in a trade for two draft choices. The Bengals' first draft choice was center Bob Johnson, from the University of Tennessee.

Bengals' offensive cornerstone, holder of multiple club passing records, Palmer led club to a division title in 2009 after missing most of '08 with an elbow injury ... Two-time Pro Bowl selection started every game and was a key in franchise's first-ever sweep of divisional opponents ... Directed a remarkable early string of comebacks, as in four of the first five games, he led drives of 70 or more yards in last two minutes, to gain either a lead or a tie ... For the season, completed 282 passes in 466 attempts (60.5 percent) for 3094 yards ... His 21 TD passes included five vs. Chicago with no INTs, tying Bengals record for TD-INT differential in a game ... Had key rushing gains in wins at Cleveland and at Baltimore ... Maintains Bengals career record in passer rating (87.9), and also holds team's all-time best completion percentage (63.2).

COMEBACK WINS IN '09: In each of last season's first three AFC North Division games, Palmer led the Bengals from fourth-quarter deficits to victories ... On Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh, led TD drives of 85 and 71 yards in final period as Bengals rallied from 20-9 deficit to 23-20 win ... Winning TD pass vs. Pittsburgh was four-yarder to WR Andre Caldwell with 0:14 to play, and after going ahead 21-20, Bengals scored two-point conversion on Palmer pass to HB Brian Leonard ... On Oct. 4 at Cleveland, Palmer led 70-yard drive for tying TD in regulation (two-yard pass to Chad Ochocinco), and in overtime, he directed 67-yard drive for winning 31-yard FG ... In 17-14 win on Oct. 11 at Baltimore, Palmer drove offense 80 yards in 11 plays for TD at 0:22 to erase 14-10 deficit ... Winning score at Baltimore came on 20-yard pass to Caldwell.

CAREER FOURTH-QUARTER RALLIES: Palmer has 10 career wins in which he has led the team back from a deficit in the fourth quarter. The list:

Date	Opp.	*Deficit	Final score
11-28-04	CLEVELAND	44-48	Bengals, 58-48
12-5-04	@Baltimore	3-20	Bengals, 27-26

*Bengals' largest deficit in 4th quarter

5-and-0: Palmer posted a career-high 146.7 passer rating in Cincinnati's 45-10 win on Oct. 25 of last season vs. Chicago. He completed 20 of 24 passes (83.3 percent) for 233 yards, with five TDs and no INTs. The five TDs were the second-most of his career, and his plus-five differential on TDs-INTs was the best of his career, tying a club-best posted only once previously (Boomer Esiason vs. Tampa Bay in 1989). Palmer's performance earned him AFC Offensive Player of the Week honors.

THREAT ON THE GROUND: Palmer scored three rushing TDs in the 2009 regular season, one more than he had tallied in 65 career games entering '09. His rushing total of 93 yards was a career high. He made the key gain of the Bengals' overtime FG drive Oct. 4 at Cleveland when he scrambled for 15 yards to Browns' 26 on a fourth-and-11 play. On Oct. 11 at Baltimore, he had a six-yard run on fourth-and-one during game-winning TD drive.

MORE 2009 HIGHLIGHTS: In season opener Sept. 13 vs. Denver, led 91-yard TD drive late in fourth quarter for 7-6 lead, only to see Broncos steal victory with deflected 87-yard TD pass with 0:11 to play ... Posted 93.3 passer rating in win Sept. 20 at Green Bay, on 15-of-23 for 185 yards with three TDs and two INTs, and also scored third rushing TD of his career on one-yard sneak ... On Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, helped Bengals gain commanding lead in division by directing an 18-12 win that included no turnovers and comeback from a 9-6 halftime deficit ... On Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, secured eventual winning points with TD pass to TE J.P. Foschi on a third-and goal play from Browns' four ... Threw 36-yard TD to Chad Ochocinco on Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, and led offense to third straight game of over 38:00 in possession time (38:48) ... On Dec. 20 at San Diego, rushed to score the first two-point conversion of his career, and made a diving recovery of an Andre Caldwell fumble in fourth quarter, preserving FG drive that tied the game at 24-24 ... In 17-10 division-clinching win Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, led 14-play, 98-yard drive late in fourth quarter, breaking 10-10 tie on six-yard pass to Ochocinco with 2:03 remaining ... Passed 18-for-36 for 146-1-1 in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets (TD was 11 yards to Laveranues Coles) ... Sat out the final three preseason games, recovering from a sprained ankle suffered Aug. 14 at New Orleans.

FIFTH FASTEST: Only four QBs in NFL history have needed fewer games than Palmer to reach 100 career TD passes. Palmer threw his 100th on Dec. 15, 2007 at San Francisco, reaching the century mark in his 59th game. The only four passers to reach 100 more quickly would make a good start on a passers' hall of fame. They are Dan Marino (44 games), Kurt Warner (50), Johnny Unitas (53) and Peyton Manning (56). When Palmer got his 100th, he nudged Brett Favre and Daunte Culpepper (each at 62 games) out of a tie for fifth place.

PALMER'S BENGALS RECORDS CHECK: Entering his eighth Bengals season, Palmer holds the following official club records:

CAREER—Completion percentage (63.2), passer rating (87.9) and TD/INT ratio (1.6/1).

SEASON—Completions (373 in '07), passing yards (4131 in '07), TD passes (32 in '05) and passer rating (101.1 in '05); Palmer also is tied for most 300-yard passing games in a season (five in '07).

GAME—TD passes (six on 9-16-07 at Cleveland).

MORE ON PALMER RECORDS: 2007—His club-record 373 completions broke his own mark of 345 from 2005 ... His club-record 4131 passing yards broke mark of 4035 he had set in '06 ... His six TD passes at Cleveland surpassed record of five that had been set twice by Boomer Esiason. 2006—Became first Bengal to pass for 4000 yards, finishing at 4035 to top previous Bengals season mark of 3959 by Boomer Esiason in 1986. 2005—His NFL-leading 32 TD passes broke Bengals season record of 29 set by Ken Anderson in 1981 ... His 345 completions (later surpassed) broke Bengals mark of 326 set by Jeff Blake in 1995 ... Posted Bengals-record for season passer rating (101.1), topping Ken Anderson mark of 98.4 in 1981 ... His league-leading plus-20 differential between TD passes and INTs (32-12) bettered previous Bengals mark of plus-19 by Ken Anderson in '81 (29-10) ... Tied NFL record with nine consecutive games of 100-plus passer rating (streak covered his last three games of '04 and first six of '05) ... Tied NFL record for most 100-plus passer ratings in a season (11).

MORE FROM PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2003—Drafted by Bengals in first round (No. 1 overall) ... Signed April 24, two days prior to draft ... Did not play during regular season, as veteran Jon Kitna took every snap ... In preseason, Palmer led Bengals in completions (37) and yards (451), with four TDs and four INTs (87.8 passer rating). 2004—Made his regular-season playing debut, and took every offensive snap until he was sidelined by a season-ending knee ligament strain in Game 13, Dec. 12 at New England ... Showed strong progress as season went on, posting 96.9 passer rating in his last six games after scoring 62.6 for his first seven ... Posted 105.2 rating in NFL debut Sept. 12 at N.Y. Jets, and threw his first TD pass, six-yarder to HB Kenny Watson in third quarter ... Got first NFL win in Sunday night Sept. 19 vs. Miami, leading fourth-quarter drive for game-winning field goal in 16-13 verdict in first national prime time game at Paul Brown Stadium ... Named AFC Offensive Player of the Week after leading 27-26 win Dec. 5 at Baltimore, when he led fourth-quarter comeback from a 20-3 deficit. 2005—A superb season ended prematurely for Palmer, due to knee injury on second Bengals snap of Wild Card playoff on 1-8-06 vs. Pittsburgh ... Suffered two torn left knee ligaments (ACL and MCL) on a hit by Steelers' Kimo von Oelhoffen, and underwent surgery on 1-10-06 ... Chosen for Pro Bowl, but could not play due to the injury ... Prior to the injury, led club to 11-5 record and AFC North Championship ... Led NFL in completion percentage (67.8) ... Named as AFC Offensive Player of the Month for September, when his 114.0 passer rating fueled 3-0 start ... Electrified a sellout crowd at home opener Sept. 18 vs. Minnesota, launching a 37-8 win with a 70-yard TD pass to Chad Ochocinco on game's second scrimmage play ... Had 101.5 rating in crucial win Dec. 4 at Pittsburgh, passing for three TDs and no INTs ... Threw for three TDs in division-clinching win Dec. 18 at Detroit ... In Wild Card playoff 1-8-06 vs. Pittsburgh, played only two snaps before suffering knee injury, completing his only pass for 66 yards to Chris Henry on the play on which he was injured. 2006—Made standout return from severe knee injury that had ended his '05 season during the playoffs ... Started every game and became first Bengal to win MVP honors in Pro Bowl ... Placed second in the AFC in six major passing categories — TDs (28), yards (4035), completions (324), TD percentage (5.4), average gain per pass (7.76) and TD-INT differential (plus-15) ... Passed for four TDs in win Sept. 24 at Pittsburgh ... On Oct. 22 vs. Carolina, led an 86-yard, 13-play TD drive in the fourth quarter, bringing Bengals back from 14-10 deficit for 17-14 win ... His career-high 440 passing yards on Nov. 12 vs. San Diego was most in AFC for the season, and he passed to Chad Ochocinco for Bengals-record 260 individual yards. 2007—Was the only NFL QB to take every offensive snap for his team, and he reset two of his own club records with 373 completions and 4131 passing yards ... In season-opening win Sept. 10 vs. Baltimore, posted 100.3 rating, passing 20-of-32 for 194 yards with two TDs ... Palmer's six TD passes in loss Sept. 16 at Cleveland broke Bengals record of five, and the six TD throws tied for NFL's 2007 game high ... Palmer's 401 passing yards at Cleveland was the year's AFC high ... His career-high 37 completions Nov. 18 vs. Arizona were second-most in Bengals history (Ken Anderson, 40). 2008—Suffered elbow injury in Game 3, Sept. 21 at N.Y. Giants, and though he finished the game, he was inactive due to the injury Sept. 28 vs. Cleveland ... Returned to action and played all the way Oct. 5 at Dallas, but elbow soreness recurred, and he was a game-day inactive for Games 6-16 ... Was able to return to practice participation in season's final week ... Had a streak of 51 consecutive starts before missing Sept. 28 vs. Browns.

COLLEGE: Won 2002 Heisman Trophy at Southern California, leading Trojans to 11-2 record, including 38-17 Orange Bowl win over Iowa ... Played 53 games with 45 starts at USC, competing over five seasons (1998-2002) because of injury-shortened '99 campaign that counted as a redshirt year ... As a senior, set USC season records for completions (309), passing yards (3942) and TD passes (33), and threw only 10 INTs ... Left college as Pac-10 Conference's all-time leader in passing yards (11,818), completions (927) and total offense (11,621) ... His 72 career TD passes set a USC record ... Led Trojans to wins in the last eight games of his senior season, as team averaged 41.5 points per game during that stretch ... As a sophomore in 1999, Palmer led USC to victories in its first two games, but suffered season-ending broken right collarbone just before halftime of Game 3, Sept. 25 at Oregon.

CARSON AND ARCHIE: Palmer was the second Heisman Trophy winner drafted by the Bengals. The first was Ohio State RB Archie Griffin, a two-time Heisman winner. Griffin was the No. 24 overall pick in the 1976 NFL Draft, the second of two first-rounders by Cincinnati. He played eight seasons (1976-83) for the Bengals, rushing for 2808 yards and catching 192 passes for 1607 yards.

HALFWAY TO A MILLION: Palmer and his wife, Shaelyn, established the Carson Palmer Foundation in 2004, with the mission of supporting children's charities in both his hometown community and his NFL home city. The Palmers have donated both time and money to the Foundation, focusing on helping abused and abandoned children in the Cincinnati and Orange County (Calif.) areas. Through the Foundation annual charity events, more than $550,000 has been raised for Lighthouse Youth Services in Cincinnati and for Hillview Acres Children's Home in California.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Mission Viejo, Calif. ... Attended Santa Margarita High School (in Rancho Santa Margarita, Calif.), where as a senior in 1997 he passed for 31 TDs and just four INTs, leading his team to a 14-0 record and its second consecutive state championship ... Set 27 school records in high school ... Married (wife Shaelyn), with two children ... Hobbies include golf and fishing ... Younger brother, Jordan, played QB at Texas-El Paso and is entering his third Bengals season in 2010.

BENGALS 'HARD KNOCKS' EARNS TWO SPORTS EMMYS

Last summer's HBO production, "Hard Knocks: Training Camp with the Cincinnati Bengals," won two Sports Emmy awards from the National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences.

Employing crews and cameras from NFL Films, Hard Knocks was granted special access to follow the Bengals throughout a 2009 preseason that helped lead the team to a division championship. The insider's look covered five one-hour episodes, which were aired in August and September.

Hard Knocks won its Emmys for Outstanding Edited Sports Series or Anthology, and for Outstanding Post Produced Audio/Sound.

"We are proud of what we do and how we go about it," said Bengals president Mike Brown, "and we're gratified that it served to make a compelling program for sports television. The hard work of our players and staff was matched in full by the HBO and NFL Films personnel who partnered with us. Their dedication and professionalism was impressive for us to witness firsthand."

Hard Knocks was as big a hit with viewers as it was with the Academy. Its ratings were the highest among the series' first five seasons, up 57 percent over the 2008 edition.

"We attribute it to the Bengals' unprecedented access and honesty," said NFL Films president Steve Sabol.

Palmer was in uniform for every 2009 game as designated third QB, but did not see action ... Played in all four preseason games ... Played in three regular-season games in 2008 ... Contract expired after '09 season, and re-signed with Bengals on 3-29-10 ... Entered NFL in 2007 as sixth-round draft choice of Washington ... Younger brother of Bengals QB Carson Palmer.

2009 RECAP: Saw action in all four preseason games, completing 22 of 40 passes for 281 yards, three TDs, three INTs and passer rating of 70.9 ... On Aug. 27 vs. St. Louis, passed five-for-six for 102 yards, with 54-yard TD pass to WR Chris Henry ... On Sept. 3 vs. Indianapolis, had TD passes of seven yards to Chris Henry and 25 yards to TE Kolomona Kapanui.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2007—Drafted by Washington in sixth round (205th overall) ... With Redskins for the entire preseason, but played only in preseason finale on Aug. 30 at Jacksonville, passing two-for-eight for 10 yards with no TDs and one INT ... Waived on Sept. 1. 2008—Signed with Bengals as free agent on Jan. 30 ... Made his NFL regular-season debut, playing in Games 7 and 12-13 as late-game reliever for starter Ryan Fitzpatrick ... Was designated third QB on inactive list for Games 1-3 and 5, and was active-DNP in No. 2 QB role for Games 4, 6, 8-11 and 14-16 ... Made NFL debut Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, completing three of four passes for 11 yards ... On Dec. 7 at Indianapolis, passed four-for-six for 30 yards with one INT.

BROTHER ACT: In 2008, Jordan Palmer and Carson Palmer became the first brother QB tandem during the Super Bowl era to be active NFL roster teammates. When Jordan Palmer saw his first action, on Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, he and Carson also became the first brothers to both actually play QB for the same team in the same season. Philadelphia had a brother QB tandem, Ty and Koy Detmer, but though they both were with the Eagles in the 1997 regular season, Koy was never on the active roster, due to an injury. The Palmers are the third brother tandem (regardless of position) to be on the Bengals' active roster in the same regular season. The Bengals careers of RB Archie Griffin and CB Ray Griffin overlapped from 1978-83, while DE Ross Browner and S Jim Browner had overlapping Bengals seasons in 1979 and '80.

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2003-06) for Texas-El Paso, setting school records for career passing yards (11,084) and TD passes (88) ... Finished career ranked 13th in NCAA Division I annals in TD passes and ranked 19th in passing yards ... Had 851 career completions in 1427 attempts (59.6 percent) ... As a senior in 2006, set UTEP season marks for passing yards (3595), completions (282), completion percentage (65.7) and passer efficiency (149.6 rating) ... Played in 46 games with 42 starts ... Redshirt year in 2002; did not play.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Mission Viejo, Calif. ... Attended Mission Viejo High School, where he passed for 1300 yards and 14 TDs as a senior ... Also participated in basketball and track in high school ... Communications major at UTEP ... Married (wife Dottie) ... Enjoys hunting and fishing.

BENGALS IN HALL OF FAME GAME

The Bengals and Dallas Cowboys will kick off the 2010 NFL preseason when they meet in the Pro Football Hall of Fame Game at 8 p.m. on Sun., Aug. 8 from Fawcett Stadium in Canton, Ohio, with national television coverage on NBC's Sunday Night Football.

For the first time in 28 years, the game will pit two defending NFL division champions. The Bengals won the AFC North in 2009 with a 10-6 record, and Dallas won the NFC East at 11-5. The last time two defending division champs played in the game was 1981, when defending AFC Central champion Cleveland played defending NFC West champ Atlanta.

The game will also mark the Bengals' first-ever preseason meeting against Dallas.

Playing in the Hall of Fame Game means that the Bengals and Cowboys will play five preseason games in 2010.

The Bengals have played twice previously in the Hall of Fame Game, and in both instances it was the start to what proved to be a successful season. In 1988, Cincinnati opened in Canton with a 14-7 win over the Los Angeles Rams and went on to reach the Super Bowl. The Bengals made their first Hall of Fame Game appearance in 1975, and though they lost 17-9 to Washington, they finished the regular season with an 11-3 record and the AFC Central Division championship. Cincinnati's .786 winning percentage in 1975 still stands as the highest in franchise history.

Bengals D-line leader in tackles in 2008, Peko looks for a fully healthy 2010 after weathering the first injury problems of his career last season ... Was again in No. 1 LDT role in '09, but played several games at less than 100 percent and missed the last five regular-season contests, halting a streak of 59 straight games played ... Returned to action in the Wild Card playoff ... Logged 31 tackles for the season ... Voted by teammates as one of two 2009 defensive captains.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Started Games 1-11 ... Sidelined by left knee injury in first quarter of Game 6, Oct. 18 vs. Houston, and was limited due to the injury in Game 7 ... Suffered right knee injury in second half of Game 10, Nov. 22 at Oakland ... Returned to start in Game 11, Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, but aggravated the injury and was inactive for Game 12, Dec. 6 vs. Detroit ... Underwent arthroscopic knee surgery on Dec. 7, and was inactive for Games 13-16 ... Started in Wild Card playoff.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Posted season-high of six tackles in two games, Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh and Oct. 4 at Cleveland ... On Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, took on brief action as a blocking FB in goal-line situations and provided key block on Cedric Benson one-yard TD run in fourth quarter ... Had four tackles Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh as defense limited Steelers to 226 net yards, 156 yards below their average entering the game (382.0) ... On Nov. 22 at Oakland, tied for line lead with four tackles, despite leaving game in second half with a knee strain.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2006—Drafted by Bengals in fourth round (123rd overall) ... Played in every game in D-line rotation, and made one start, Nov. 30 vs. Baltimore, subbing for injured John Thornton ... Logged 49 tackles with 2.5 sacks, and had a forced fumble ... On Oct. 29 vs. Atlanta, had a season-high seven tackles that included a shared sack of Michael Vick in fourth quarter ... Had his biggest impact game Dec. 24 at Denver, as his six tackles included two sacks, and he added a forced fumble that Bengals recovered, setting up TD drive. 2007—Logged 65 tackles, including 1.5 sacks, while starting every game at LDT ... On Oct. 21 vs. N.Y. Jets, his fumble recovery on an aborted shotgun snap gave Bengals possession at midfield in fourth quarter, setting up TD drive that helped secure win ... Had a season-high eight tackles Dec. 15 at San Francisco, including shared sack against Shaun Hill in third quarter. 2008—Signed a Bengals contract extension on June 12 ... Led line with 108 tackles, ranked third on team ... Led team in tackles-for-loss (six) ... Had eight tackles in each of the first three games, leading line in each contest ... Led line Oct. 12 at N.Y. Jets with a personal season high of 10 tackles ... On Nov. 20 at Pittsburgh and on Dec. 7 at Indianapolis, led line with nine tackles ... Also had line-leading nine stops in shutout win Dec. 21 at Cleveland ... Tied for line lead with six tackles Dec. 28 vs. Kansas City, and had two passes defended.

COLLEGE: Played at Michigan State in 2004 and '05, after spending 2002-03 at College of the Canyons (Santa Clarita, Calif.) ... Played as a reserve for MSU in '04, and broke out as a senior, starting every game at LDT ... Posted 53 tackles as a senior, with a sack, two fumble recoveries, a forced fumble and a blocked PAT ... Had one of 2005 college season's most publicized plays, a 74-yard fumble return for a TD vs. Michigan that tied score in fourth quarter before Michigan pulled out 34-31 OT win.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Pago Pago, American Samoa ... Played both offensive and defensive line at Samoana High School ... Married (wife Anna), with two sons, Domata Jr. and Joseph ... Brother, Tupe, played OL at Michigan State and played in NFL with Indianapolis Colts ... Lifelong friend of Bengals DE Jonathan Fanene, who is also from American Samoa ... Sociology major at Michigan State ... His name is pronounced "DOE-mah-tah PECK-o."

Starting WLB missed three games last season due to calf injury, but still finished second on team in tackles (101) ... Twice tied the team's season-high in tackles for a single game (14) — Oct. 4 at Cleveland and Jan. 3 at N.Y. Jets ... A key piece of the defense's plans for continued improvement, the 2008 first-round draft pick looks for his first 16-game season in 2010.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Played and started 13 games (Games 1-8 and 12-16) ... Sideline in third quarter of Game 8, Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, with calf injury, and was inactive for Games 9-11.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Had seven tackles and a pass defended Sept. 13 vs. Denver ... Led team with 12 tackles in win Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh ... Tied for front-seven tackles lead (five) Oct. 25 vs. Chicago ... Had six tackles Nov. 8 vs. Baltimore, before leaving in third quarter with calf injury ... Returned to starting WLB spot Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, logging four tackles ... On Dec. 20 at San Diego, his fourth-quarter INT gave Bengals possession at Chargers' 33, setting up TD that closed San Diego's lead to 24-21 ... Also at San Diego, had an eight-yard sack of Philip Rivers in fourth quarter and added two QB pressures plus a tackle-for-loss on a rushing play.

2008: Drafted by Bengals in first round (ninth overall) ... Signed Aug. 5 after missing first week of training camp due to contract negotiations ... Started Games 1-7, but suffered jaw fracture in Game 7, Oct. 19 vs. Pittsburgh, in collision with Steelers WR Hines Ward ... Placed on Reserve/Injured list on Oct. 21 ... Ranked second on team in tackles (50) at the point of his injury ... Opened pro career with a pair of 11-tackle games, on Sept. 7 at Baltimore and Sept. 14 vs. Tennessee ... On Oct. 5 at Dallas, forced a Marion Barber fumble and recorded his first INT, returning 39 yards with a Tony Romo pass.

COLLEGE: Played from 2004-07 at USC, capped by earning first-team All-America honors in 2007 from Sports Illustrated and Pro Football Weekly ... Played 49 games (36 starts), and helped USC to a 47-5 record over his four seasons ... As a senior, finished second in tackles (78) on a defense that ranked second in nation in fewest points allowed (16.0 avg.) and fewest yards allowed (273.2 avg.) ... Played in all 13 games as a freshman for 2004 club that claimed national championship with a 55-19 dismantling of Oklahoma in FedEx Orange Bowl ... Career totals included 240 tackles, 5.5 sacks, 18.5 tackles-for-loss, six fumble recoveries, five forced fumbles and two INTs.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Lake Mary, Fla. ... Attended Lake Mary High School, where his multiple All-America football honors included nods from USA Today and Parade ... Named Gatorade Florida Football Player of the Year as a senior ... Born in Riverside, Calif., and lived in nearby San Bernardino for eight years before his family moved to Florida ... Majored in public policy, management and planning at Southern Cal.

Wt: 320

3rd year in NFL

College: Georgia

Career Games-Starts: 18-13

Acquired: FA'08

Born: 3-10-83

After playing in only two games in his first three NFL seasons, the former college free agent saw his career blossom in 2009 ... Played 16 games, with 12 starts, and also started Wild Card playoff ... Held No. 1 ROT spot for Games 6-16, and saw significant action in a "move tight end" role when offense brought in an extra blocker ... Helped Bengals finish ninth in NFL rushing (128.5 yards per game), including a team-record of eight games of 100 or more yards by individual backs ... His pass blocking helped Cincinnati finish ninth in league in fewest sacks allowed (29) ... His contract expired after 2009 season, but he re-signed with Cincinnati as an exclusive-rights player on 3-29-10.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Aided 141-yard rushing game by HB Cedric Benson on Sept. 20 at Green Bay ... Helped lead fourth-quarter drives of 85 and 71 yards during comeback win Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh ... On Oct. 11 at Baltimore, helped limit Ravens to one sack, while helping Benson (27-for-120) become first player in 40 games to rush for 100 yards against Baltimore ... In first 2009 start at ROT, Oct. 18 vs. Houston, helped lead pass protection that allowed only one sack for the second straight week ... Helped Benson rush for a career-high 189 yards Oct. 25 vs. Chicago, while also aiding a sack-free performance ... On Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, helped offense control line of scrimmage for fourth-quarter FG drives of 50 and 54 yards for Cincinnati's winning six-point margin ... On Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, supported third straight game of more than 38 minutes possession time (38:48) ... On Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, supported Benson's 133-yard game for his Bengals-record sixth 100-yard game of season ... Supported Benson for Bengals postseason-record 169 rushing yards in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2006—Signed by Dallas as college free agent on May 4 ... Waived on Sept. 2, and signed Sept. 3 to Tampa Bay practice squad, where he spent the full season. 2007—Opened training camp with Tampa Bay ... Waived on Sept. 1, and signed Sept. 2 to Bucs' practice squad ... Signed to Bucs' 53-player roster on Oct. 3, and was a game-day inactive on Oct. 7 at Indianapolis and Oct. 14 vs. Tennessee ... Waived by Tampa Bay on Oct. 20, and re-signed on Oct. 24, to Bucs' practice squad, where he finished the season. 2008—Signed Jan. 8 to Tampa Bay's offseason roster ... Played in all four Bucs preseason games ... Waived on Aug. 30, and signed Sept. 3 to Bengals' practice squad ... Released on Sept. 11, but re-signed to Bengals' practice squad on Sept. 16 ... Signed to Bengals' 53-player roster on Nov. 19 ... Was active-DNP for Games 11-14 ... Made his NFL debut on Dec. 21 at Cleveland, subbing in fourth quarter for injured Stacy Andrews at ROT ... Started in place of Andrews on Dec. 28 vs. Kansas City, and in the victory, he aided season-best team totals of 204 rushing yards and 37:39 possession time.

COLLEGE: Played all 25 games and started 24 over his final two seasons at Georgia ... Named SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week for his play as a senior vs. South Carolina ... Started the SEC Championship Game and the Capital One Bowl as a sophomore.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Bolivar, Mo. ... Attended Bolivar High School, where he earned All-Central Ozark Conference honors on offense and defense ... Also lettered in basketball as a junior ... Married (wife Kristy), with a son, Hayden ... Earned sociology degree from Georgia ... Has worked with underprivileged youth at Gatorade Junior Training Camp ... Hobbies include golfing, fishing and reading.

Born: 2-10-84

Rookie from NCAA Division II ranks proved to be a draft bargain in 2009 ... A sixth-round choice (209th overall), he displayed big-play ability as both a rusher and a kickoff returner, with the strength to break tackles and excellent instincts in traffic ... Second on team with 321 rushing yards ... Made late-season move into No. 1 KOR role, and had a 31.5-yard average on 16 returns, including a 96-yarder for a TD that keyed win Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh ... In his first game as a primary rusher, filling in for injured Cedric Benson on Nov. 22 at Oakland, he logged 119 rushing yards and the team's second-most yards from scrimmage (151) of the season ... Named AFC Special Teams Player of the Week for the Nov. 15 Pittsburgh game, with total of five KORs for a 41.2-yard average.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Played 13 games (Games 1-11 and 15-16), and also played in Wild Card playoff ... Credited with two starts, on Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland and on 1-3-10 at N.Y. Jets ... Inactive for Games 12-14 due to toe injury suffered in Game 11, Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Scott's 31.5-yard KOR average bested the 29.1 mark of NFL leader Clifton Smith of Tampa Bay, but Scott fell four short of the 20 returns needed to qualify for the league rankings ... Saw significant time on offense in win Oct. 4 at Cleveland, rushing for 41 yards on six carries (6.8 avg.), including gains of 11 and 16 yards on the fourth-quarter TD drive that sent the game into overtime ... Had the only TD of the game in win Nov. 15 at Pittsburgh, on a 96-yard kickoff return in first quarter, and his 206 total KOR yards (on five returns) ranks third in Bengals history ... Also at Pittsburgh, filled in for injured Cedric Benson at HB in second half and was 13-for-33 rushing, and had a 21-yard reception ... Saw most extensive action of the season Nov. 22 at Oakland, and led all rushers with 119 yards on 21 carries, including 61-yard rush in third quarter that stands as Bengals' longest rush since 2002 ... Rushed 18-for-87 on Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland, including a 21-yard gain on a first-and-20 play on Cincinnati's only TD drive ... In Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets, averaged 37.0 yards on two KOR, including 56-yarder to Jets' 36 on game's opening play.

COLLEGE: Posted mind-boggling numbers in two seasons (2007-08) at Abilene Christian and won the 2008 Harlon Hill Award (the NCAA Division II "Heisman") ... Rushed for 4321 career yards (2165 followed by 2156) and scored 73 touchdowns (63 rushing and 10 receiving) ... Averaged 8.6 yards per rush as a junior and 8.1 yards as a senior ... His season-low game rushing total in 2008 was 116 yards, and he had three games over 250 ... Began his college career at Central Arkansas in 2004 and played at Blinn JC in Brenham, Texas, in '06 ... Did not play football in 2005, due to off-field issues.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Vernon, Texas ... As a junior at Vernon High School in 2001, rushed for 2424 yards and 19 TDs in 13 games, earning Class 3A all-state honors ... Graduated from Wichita Falls (Texas) High School in 2003.

Born: 9-30-85

Shirley will open 2010 on the sidelines due to injury ... Was set to start his second season as an offensive lineman, after '09 position shift from defensive line, but he suffered a ruptured Achilles tendon in April while participating in a charity basketball game ... Is not likely to be cleared for any on-field work until at least several weeks into the regular season ... Spent the full 2009 season on Bengals' practice squad, and was signed on 1-11-10 to team's offseason roster.

2009 RECAP: Opened preseason at DT position, where he played in three Bengals games in 2008, but was switched early in training camp to offensive line ... Played on O-line in all four preseason games ... Waived Sept. 5, and signed Sept. 6 to practice squad, where he spent the full season.

2008: Drafted by Bengals in fifth round (145th overall) ... Signed July 15 ... Played in all four preseason games at DT, posting seven tackles and one sack ... Played in Games 12-14 of regular season ... Inactive or DNP for the other 13 games ... Made NFL debut Nov. 30 vs. Baltimore and had two tackles ... Recorded two tackles on Dec. 7 at Indianapolis (one for-loss).

COLLEGE: Played four seasons (2004-07) as a defensive lineman at Fresno State ... Played 12 games in 2006, with 20 tackles, two sacks, 4.5 tackles-for-loss and three blocked kicks ... Redshirted in 2003; did not play.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Fontana, Calif. ... Finished his prep career at Kaiser High School, where as a senior he helped lead team to a 13-0-1 record and the Division III state title ... Prior to attending Kaiser High, he spent his first three seasons at A.B. Miller High School ... African-American studies major at Fresno State.

*NOTE: Shirley did not earn an accrued year of experience toward NFL free agency in 2009 because he was not on a 53-player roster, a Reserve/Injured list or a Reserve/Physically Unable to Perform list for the required minimum of six games. He is designated a second-year player in 2010.

Ht: 6-4Wt: 3452nd year in NFLCollege: Alabama2009 Games-Starts: 6-1Career Games-Starts: 6-1Acquired: D1'09

Born: 1-25-87

First-round selection from 2009 draft targets starting ROT spot this season, following a rookie year slowed by extended contract negotiations and an early injury ... Consensus 2008 All-America selection saw regular action at ROT for Bengals over last season's final six games, and also played in Wild Card playoff ... Saw most of his time at ROT when Bengals employed formations with six offensive linemen, with starting ROT Dennis Roland switched to "move tight end" role ... Showed excellent quickness at Alabama as a pass blocker, and is rated among the most powerful run blockers in Southeastern Conference history.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Drafted by Bengals in first round (sixth overall) ... Missed most of preseason due to contract negotiations ... Signed on Aug. 30, but suffered fracture in left foot in practice on Sept. 1 ... Was on roster exemption for season opener, Sept. 13 vs. Denver ... Added to roster on Sept. 14, and returned to practice the week of Game 7 ... Gameday inactive for Games 2-10 ... Played in Games 11-16, and credited with one start ... Made NFL debut on Nov. 29 vs. Cleveland ... In starting lineup at ROT on Dec. 13 at Minnesota, when No. 1 ROT Dennis Roland opened in extra TE spot.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Supported three individual 100-yard rushing efforts over season's final six games, and aided a Bengals playoff record of 169 rushing yards by HB Cedric Benson in Wild Card playoff on 1-9-10 vs. N.Y. Jets ... On Dec. 6 vs. Detroit, blocked for 110-yard rushing effort by Benson and helped team post third straight game of 38-plus minutes possession time (38:48) ... On Dec. 20 at San Diego, aided blocking effort that led 407-yard net offensive output, the team's second highest of season ... On Dec. 27 vs. Kansas City, supported Benson's 133-yard game for his Bengals-record sixth 100-yard game of season.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons (2006-08) at Alabama, entering NFL Draft after his junior year ... Started 38 games at LOT over three seasons, and was credited with 46 TD-producing blocks ... Was only the seventh true freshman in Crimson Tide history to start his first game in the program ... As a junior in 2007, he shared SEC's Jacobs Blocking Trophy with Arkansas C Jonathan Luigs, who also is a Bengal.

SMITH MAKES IT FIVE: As a junior at Alabama, Smith won the 2008 Outland Trophy, the "Heisman" for linemen. The award currently goes to the player voted as the nation's top offensive lineman or interior defensive lineman. In earlier years, defensive ends were also eligible. Smith is the fifth Bengal to have won the Outland, joining DT Mike Reid (1969 winner, Penn State), DE Ross Browner (1976, Notre Dame), C Dave Rimington (1981 and '82, Nebraska) and DE Jason Buck (1986, Brigham Young). All five of the Bengals' Outland winners were first-round draft choices by Cincinnati.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Birmingham, Ala. ... Attended Huffman High School, where he was the consensus top-rated offensive lineman in the nation as a senior ... Also as a prep senior, became the first OL to win the state of Alabama's "Mr. Football" award ... General studies major at University of Alabama.

SEE-SAW IT WASN'T

The Bengals held at least a share of the AFC North Division lead for the last 12 weeks of the 2009 season. For eight of those weeks, including the last seven, Cincinnati was alone in first place.

After losing their season opener to Denver in stunning fashion, the Bengals grabbed their first share of the lead on Oct. 4, when they won at Cleveland while Baltimore was losing at New England. The Bengals and Ravens both were 3-1. The Bengals took sole possession of first place on Oct. 11, when they won at Baltimore to go 4-1. On Oct. 18, when the Bengals lost to Houston, Pittsburgh pulled into a first-place tie at 4-2 by beating Cleveland for its third straight win. The Bengals and Steelers remained tied until Nov. 15, when the Bengals moved ahead to stay with a win at Heinz Field.

The Bengals wound up winning the division by one game over Baltimore and Pittsburgh, as the Ravens and Steelers each finished 9-7 to Cincinnati's 10-6. The Ravens earned a Wild Card playoff berth, and the Steelers were eliminated from the postseason via tiebreakers.

HONORING BOBBIE WILLIAMS

RG Bobbie Williams was selected as the Bengals' 2009 recipient of the Ed Block Courage Award, which honors NFL players who demonstrate commitment to the values of sportsmanship and courage.

Known for his leadership, determination and outgoing nature, Williams has been a pillar of the Bengals' locker room since 2004.

"Bobbie has proven to be durable and tough, missing only three games in six years, and that was due to an emergency appendectomy in 2006," says Paul Sparling, Bengals head athletic trainer. "He always has a positive attitude and understands the real meaning of being a professional. He is an inspiration to us all."

Williams entered the league in 2000 as a second-round draft pick of Philadelphia, where he spent four seasons. Since signing with the Bengals in 2004, he has started 95 of 98 possible games, including the postseason.

A five-time Pro Bowl selection with Dallas, Williams joined Bengals last season as a free agent, but was limited to four games due to a forearm injury ... Has earned recognition as one of the NFL's most powerful hitters at safety, and though best known for his physical play, he also has 20 career interceptions (including one in postseason) ... Has three INT returns for TDs ... Played 98 of a possible 99 Dallas games from 2002-07, with 96 starts ... Credited with three seasons in Dallas of 100-plus tackles ... Became an unrestricted free agent on 3-5-10, and re-signed with Cincinnati on 3-15-10.

2009 PARTICIPATION: Released by Dallas on March 5, and signed as free agent with Bengals on May 7 ... Placed on Reserve/Injured list Nov. 13 due to forearm injury suffered in Game 3, Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh ... Started Games 1-3 and 5 at SS, and was inactive for Games 4 and 6-8 due to forearm injury.

2009 HIGHLIGHTS: Led team in tackles (nine) in Bengals debut, Sept. 13 vs. Denver, and had a pass defended ... Recorded eight tackles and two passes defended Sept. 20 at Green Bay ... His eight tackles in win Sept. 27 vs. Pittsburgh included teaming with DT Jonathan Fanene to stop RB Willie Parker for no gain on third-and-goal from one-yard line in first quarter, forcing Steelers to settle for FG.

PREVIOUS SEASONS: 2002—Drafted by Dallas in first round (eighth overall) ... Enjoyed immediate success, starting every game and tying for team lead in INTs (five) ... Returned two INTs for TDs ... Second on team in tackles (127), and tied for team lead in forced fumbles (three) and fumble recoveries (two) ... Snagged first pro INT on Nov. 17 at Indianapolis, against QB Peyton Manning ... Scored on an 85-yard INT return Dec. 29 at Washington, and also had a fumble recovery. 2003—Followed outstanding rookie season with an even better sophomore year, earning starter's role in Pro Bowl while also earning All-Pro honors from the Associated Press and The Sporting News ... Major force on NFL's top-ranked defense as Cowboys went 10-6 for Wild Card playoff berth ... In postseason debut on 1-3-04 at Carolina, had a forced fumble and eight tackles. 2004—Earned second straight Pro Bowl berth while posting 106 tackles, second on team ... Had career-high 14 tackles in

Monday night win Sept. 27 at Washington ... Helped lead effort of only 49 rushing yards allowed in Thanksgiving win Nov. 25 vs. Chicago. 2005—Second on Cowboys in tackles (82) and had three INTs while earning third straight Pro Bowl nod ... Tied for team lead in forced fumbles (three) ... In overtime win Oct. 16 vs. N.Y. Giants, helped send game into the extra period when he forced and recovered a Brandon Jacobs fumble at goal line with 1:26 left in fourth quarter ... Scored game-winning TD in Monday nighter Nov. 14 at Philadelphia, returning INT 46 yards for a TD with 2:43 left in game to produce 21-20 final margin. 2006—Led team with five INTs and earned fourth straight Pro Bowl trip while helping lead Dallas into playoffs with 9-7 record ... Added two fumble recoveries and led team in total takeaways (seven) ... Second on team in passes defended (17) ... His INT against Jake Delhomme set up game-clinching TD in Sunday night win Oct. 29 at Carolina ... In win Nov. 19 vs. previously unbeaten Indianapolis, had his second career INT against Peyton Manning, swiping pass at Cowboys' one on third-and-goal play in second quarter ... Posted first postseason INT on 1-6-07 at Seattle. 2007—His 115 tackles ranked second on team as Dallas posted 13-3 record for NFC East championship ... Named to fifth consecutive Pro Bowl ... Started his 92nd consecutive regular-season game Nov. 18 vs. Washington, leading team with 11 tackles, but his streak of starts ended Nov. 22 vs. N.Y. Jets when defense opened in three-CB formation ... Had 11 tackles in division-clinching win Dec. 9 at Detroit ... Missed his first pro game Dec. 22 at Carolina, on one-game league suspension for a horse-collar tackle on Dec. 16 vs. Philadelphia. 2008—Played for Dallas in Games 1-2, but suffered forearm fracture in Game 2, Sept. 15 vs. Philadelphia ... Missed the next four games, and reinjured the forearm when he attempted to return to action on Oct. 19 at St. Louis ... Placed on Reserve/Injured list on Oct. 22.

COLLEGE: Played three seasons (1999-2001) at Oklahoma, entering NFL Draft after his junior year ... Won dual major honors as a junior, copying Bronko Nagurski Award (nation's top defender) and Jim Thorpe Award (top DB) ... His '01 totals included 101 tackles and five INTs, and he was also named Big 12 Defensive Player of the Year and earned consensus All-America recognition ... Posted school career record of 27 passes defended in addition to his nine career INTs ... As a sophomore in 2000, played on unbeaten team that claimed national title with an Orange Bowl victory over Florida State.

IN THE COMMUNITY: Williams was the 2004 Cowboys team nominee for the NFL's Walter Payton Award, due to a long record of service off the field ... His Roy Williams Safety Net Foundation continues to operate, ensuring that low-income, single-parent households are provided with support and assistance ... After signing his first pro contract, he made $100,000 contribution to University of Oklahoma for a strength-training facility that bears his name ... Has worked with a wide range of community providers in the Dallas area, including United Way, Salvation Army, Make-A-Wish Foundation, Taste of the NFL and various hospitals ... Has served as an NFL spokesman in the league's national public service announcements for United Way.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Union City, Calif. ... Attended James Logan High School, where he was PrepStar's top-rated DB in western region and also played WR and QB ... Sociology major at Oklahoma ... His aunt, Vecepia Towerly, was the winner in spring of 2002 of the CBS reality series "Survivor: Marquesas."

THE LONGEST VICTORY

The Bengals' 23-20 win at Cleveland last Oct. 4 was the longest game the Bengals ever won. Four seconds remained in the overtime period when K Shayne Graham booted a 31-yard field goal to break a 20-all tie.

The previous longest Bengals win was 34-31 in a road game against the Los Angeles Rams on Oct. 7, 1990. Jim Breech's 44-yard field goal ended that game with 3:04 remaining in overtime.

The longest Bengals loss came on Sept. 23, 1979 against the Houston Oilers at Riverfront Stadium. The Oilers won 30-27 on a 29-yard Toni Fritsch field goal with 0:32 left in the extra period.

The only 75-minute game in Bengals history was the 13-13 tie with Philadelphia on Nov. 16, 2008. The only other tie in team history — a 31-31 deadlock in 1969 at Houston — took place before overtime was instituted in the regular season.

JERMAINE GRESHAM

Tight End

Draft Round: 1st
Overall Selection: 21st
College: Oklahoma

Height: 6-5
Weight: 260
Born: 6-16-88

Gresham carries great size on a lean, athletic frame and has all the tools to be a top NFL tight end ... A 2008 first-team All-America selection by The Sporting News, he played 14 games in each of his three Oklahoma seasons (2006-08), and he dramatically improved his numbers each year ... Did not play in 2009, due to a knee injury suffered in August drills, but was fully recovered before entering the draft ... Declined an option to return to OU for 2010, as he was eligible to count '09 as a redshirt year ... In 2008, set Sooners TE single-season records for TD catches (14) and receiving yards (950) ... Scored 25 TDs in his last 28 college games.

COACH MARVIN LEWIS SAYS: "Jermaine fits a position of need, and we felt very good about being able to get him with the 21st pick. He does a great job of catching and running after the catch, and he has shown he's a hard worker who will finish blocks. And when he got to our minicamps, his level of understanding was ahead of where we expected it to be."

GRESHAM ON GRESHAM: "I would describe myself as a player who will find a way to get it done. I'm going to find a way to win, whatever it takes. I want to put in the work to become the best tight end in the NFL. I'd like it if somewhere down the road, media is asking young tight ends, 'Do you compare yourself to Jermaine Gresham?'"

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played in all 42 Sooners games from 2006-08, helping team to 34-8 record with two Fiesta Bowls and one berth in BCS National Championship ... Totaled 111 catches for 1629 yards (14.7 avg.) ... His 26 career TDs rank second in Big 12 history for tight ends, behind only Bengals teammate Chase Coffman, who had 30 for Missouri. 2009—Suffered torn right knee cartilage during August drills and missed the season ... Underwent surgery on Sept. 8. 2008—In addition to setting OU tight end records for receiving yards (950) and TD catches (14), he caught a career-high 66 passes ... Helped lead Sooners to 12-1 record before they fell 24-14 to Florida in BCS title game ... Scored both Sooners TDs in BCS title game, totaling eight catches for 62 yards ... On Nov. 29 at Oklahoma State, had career highs of nine catches and 158 yards, with two TDs ... Totaled five two-TD games on the season. 2007—Played in every game with three starts, and nearly one third of his catches (11 of 37) were for TDs ... All-America honorable mention from Sports Illustrated ... Had career-high four TDs on Nov. 8 at Texas A&M ... Scored two TDs in Oct. 6 win over rival Texas. 2006—Played in every game as a true freshman for 11-3 Sooners squad ... Averaged 20.1 yards per catch (8-161) ... Had a 41-yard catch vs. Texas ... Scored first career TD on Sept. 23 vs. Middle Tennessee State.

COACH BOB BRATKOWSKI SAYS: "Jermaine will increase our offensive options. He gives us another weapon in this physical division we play in. He plays the way we like to play. He can be a great receiver and a great blocker, and there haven't been many tight ends come out in recent years who you could count on to be really efficient in both areas."

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Ardmore (Okla.) High School, where as a senior he was rated the top TE prospect in the nation by PrepStar and Rivals.com ... Caught 70 passes for 1205 yards and 24 TDs as a senior ... Team was 12-0 in games he played as a senior, and he missed semifinal playoff loss after suffering knee injury in the preceding game ... Was also an outstanding basketball player before giving up the sport after his knee injury.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Ardmore, Okla. ... Multidisciplinary studies major at Oklahoma ... His name is pronounced "jer-MAIN GRESH-em."

Draft Round: 2nd
Overall Selection: 54th
College: Florida

Height: 6-6
Weight: 285
Born: 2-28-89

Dunlap was a prime-time playmaker the last two seasons for Florida teams that went 26-2 ... Named Defensive MVP of 2008 season BCS national championship win over Oklahoma ... Will play his rookie NFL season at age 21, and has high potential to further develop an already tall and strong frame ... Logged 18.5 sacks and 24 tackles-for-loss over 2008-09, and had four blocked kicks in his three-year career ... Entered the NFL Draft after his junior season.

COACH MIKE ZIMMER SAYS: "We like big guys. We want to out-physical some people. Carlos did that at the highest level in college, and physically, he has a tremendous upside."

COACH JAY HAYES SAYS: "Carlos could eventually be a 305-pound guy who could give you a lot of versatility. He could be a left end on first and second down and a tackle on third down. He has rushed as a tackle, and you're always looking to get some pressure in the quarterback's face from up the middle."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played three seasons (2007-09) at Florida, with totals of 84 tackles, 19.5 sacks, 26 tackles-for-loss and eight passes defended ... Gators were 13-1 in each of his last two seasons, winning BCS national title game over Oklahoma in 2008 and closing with 51-24 Sugar Bowl victory over University of Cincinnati in '09. 2009—Played 14 games/13 starts at LDE ... Led the team in sacks (9.0) for the second consecutive year, and finished second in tackles-for-loss (10.5) ... Had two sacks of Cincinnati's Tony Pike in Sugar Bowl win. 2008—Started just two games as a sophomore, but led the SEC in sacks (9.5) as Gators won NCAA title ... Had a blocked FG, a shared sack and 1.5 TFL in winning Defensive MVP honors during 24-14 conquest of Oklahoma for BCS national title ... Had 13.5 TFL and three blocked kicks on the season ... Named to All-SEC second team by Associated Press. 2007—Played in every game as a true freshman, seeing action as a nickel rusher and on special teams.

FLORIDA COACH URBAN MEYER SAYS: "Carlos has all the physical tools to be successful at the next level. If he continues to grow and mature, he will have a very long career in the NFL. He provided matchup problems for opposing teams and was a big part of our success during the last several years."

THAT'S NO SCATBACK: At 240 pounds as a senior in high school, Dunlap was the rare defensive end with the athletic ability to be used at times as a kick returner. He had one 95-yard kickoff return for a TD.

MORE FROM HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Fort Dorchester High School in North Charleston, S.C. ... Closed his career ranked 15th on ESPN's Top 150 team, and ranked second among defensive ends on the squad ... As a senior, had 24 sacks and 35 tackles-for-loss.

PERSONAL: Hometown is North Charleston, S.C. ... Majored in family, youth and community sciences at Florida ... Selected to SEC Academic Honor Roll as a freshman.

JORDAN SHIPLEY

Wide Receiver

Overall Selection: 84th
College: Texas

Height: 6-0
Weight: 190
Born: 12-23-85

An elite slot receiver who also showed the ability to produce outside, Shipley left Texas as the school's all-time receptions leader (248) ... Ranks second in receiving yards (3191) and TD catches (33) ... Also a standout kick returner, he averaged 12.5 yards on punts with three TDs and 24.6 yards on kickoffs with one score ... Durable performer who played in all 53 games of his four active seasons, helping lead Longhorns to a 45-8 record ... First player in UT history to score TDs by a reception, punt return and kickoff return in the same season (2008).

BENGALS QB CARSON PALMER SAYS: "It's a great pick for me. I especially love the way he produced in big games."

SHIPLEY ON BEING COMPARED TO WES WELKER: "That's a player I've been watching for a long time, and why would I mind being compared to Wes Welker? It's a compliment, because you're talking about a guy that's as productive as anybody in the NFL."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played four seasons (2006-09) at Texas, appearing in all 53 games with 35 starts ... Entered the program in 2004, but did not play in '04 due to knee injury and in '05 due to hamstring injury ... His 248 receptions topped the Texas-record 241 by Roy Williams (2000-03), and he had 205 of those catches over his last two seasons ... His three TDs on punt returns tied school record ... In addition to his standout special teams work as a returner, he was the holder for field goals and PATs. 2009—Set UT season records for receptions (116) and receiving yards (1485), and tied for first in TD catches (13) ... Named first-team All-American by Associated Press and Sporting News and was a finalist for the Biletnikoff Award (nation's top WR) ... Played the first six games at flanker (slot receiver) and shifted to split end for remainder of year ... Closed career with 10 catches for 122 yards and two TDs against Alabama in national championship game, despite Longhorns' loss of No. 1 QB Colt McCoy to first-quarter injury ... Had six games of 10 or more catches and seven games of 100 or more yards, including school-record 273 yards vs. Central Florida ... Averaged 13.0 yards on 24 punt returns, including two for TDs. 2008—Third-team All-America pick by Associated Press, starting all 13 games at flanker ... His 89 catches included a school-record 15 vs. Oklahoma State ... His 96-yard kickoff return TD rallied Texas from early 14-3 deficit in crucial win over Oklahoma ... Set school record with at least one TD catch in each of team's first eight games. 2007—Played 13 games, with seven starts at flanker ... Ranked fourth on team in receptions (27), gaining 417 yards with five TDs. 2006—Played 13 games with one start in his first active season in three years in the program ... Earned UT's Frank Medina Rehabilitation Award, as he came back from missing entire 2005 campaign due to hamstring injury ... Began his career-long assignment as UT's holder for placekicks.

COACH MIKE SHEPPARD SAYS: "Jordan proved himself to be a consistent, solid target against a high level of competition. His strength would be inside, filling the role that T.J. Houshmandzadeh had when he was here. He'll be a great target for Carson (Palmer). It's like Marvin (Lewis) has said. We're trying to give Carson more weapons to work with, and in this case I think we've certainly given him a productive one."

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Rotan (Texas) High School as a freshman, then transferred to Burnet (Texas) High ... Coached by his father, Bob Shipley, at both schools ... Set state career records for receptions (264), receiving yards 5424 and receiving TDs (73) ... Earned 2003 Parade All-America honors, and was named '03 Class 3A Texas

Player of the year by Texas Football magazine ... Twice named Class 3A first-team all-state ... Also played DB and returned kicks, and had 23 career INTs with 18 TD kick returns ... Also lettered in track, basketball and golf.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Burnet, Texas ... Earned degree from Texas in kinesiology in 2008, and was in graduate school while playing in '09 ... Active in UT's community service program, he regularly visited patients at Austin Children's Hospital.

Draft Round: 3rd
Overall Selection: 96th
College: Wake Forest

Height: 6-0
Weight: 190
Born: 6-6-87

A three-year starter for Wake Forest teams that reached two bowl games, Ghee brings measurables that compare favorably with CBs drafted in the first and second rounds ... One of the fastest and most athletic corners available, and he has good size at 6-0 and 190 pounds ... Clocked at NFL Combine at 4.39 seconds in 40-yard dash ... Had only one career INT, but contributed 25 passes defended, five forced fumbles, two fumble recoveries, 12.5 tackles-for-loss, two sacks and a blocked punt.

COACH KEVIN COYLE SAYS: "We're excited to work with a player who has the kind of tools Brandon brings us. And he's a quality young man who will handle himself like a pro. When you look at the whole picture — his speed and his size, good hands and feet — it's pretty impressive. His key is to play with more consistency, and we're going to challenge him to do that right from the get-go."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played three seasons (2007-09) at Wake Forest, appearing in 36 games with 34 starts ... Logged 154 tackles ... Redshirted in 2005 (did not play), and did not see action in '06 due to eligibility issues. 2009—Started all 12 games at RCB ... Third on team in tackles (56), including 2.5 tackles-for-loss ... Had four passes defended in 42-32 win vs. Maryland. 2008—Played and started 11 games at RCB for 8-5 team that closed season with Eagle Bank Bowl win over Navy... Led team and finished second in Atlantic Coast Conference in forced fumbles (four) ... Had an INT, a forced fumble and a tackle-for-loss in 30-28 win vs.

Mississippi ... Blocked a punt and returned it 10 yards in 23-10 win vs. Vanderbilt. 2007—Played in all 13 games, with 11 starts at RCB, in his first season of college action ... His career-best 63 tackles ranked fourth on 9-4 team that closed season with 24-10 win over Connecticut in Meineke Car Care Bowl ... Logged career-best 10 passes defended and had one sack.

ANOTHER J-JOE?: Bengals coaches have compared Ghee in raw ability to Johnathan Joseph, the 2006 first-round draft choice who is now Cincinnati's starting LCB. "Athletically, when we looked at Johnathan, we felt there was something special there," says secondary coach Kevin Coyle. "As you study these guys, there are certain things that they can do with their bodies in space, when they have to move and react. And other guys, even though they try really hard, are just going to be a little short. We put Johnathan in that first group, and I think Brandon has a lot of the same qualities."

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Jack Britt HS in Fayetteville, N.C., where he earned all-state honors at CB and all-region accolades at WR ... Helped lead team to state championship game as a senior ... Also lettered in track and field, posting times of 10.5 in the 100-meters and 21.47 in 200-meters.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Fayetteville, N.C. ... Communications major at Wake Forest ... Older brother, Patrick, played S at Wake Forest ... Last name is pronounced "JEE."

Draft Round: 4th
Overall Selection: 120th
College: Georgia

Height: 6-1
Weight: 290
Born: 3-28-88

Atkins was named Georgia's defensive MVP last season ... Helped Bulldogs post 38-14 record over his four seasons, including a 4-0 mark in bowl games ... Showed strength to play inside, and had the quickness to also see action at DE in some situations ... Had 11 career sacks ... Played in 45 consecutive games to wind up his career.

TEST HIM, HE'S READY: "I come in with the idea that I have something to prove," Atkins says. "A lot of people think I'm undersized for defensive tackle. So I think I have a little chip on my shoulder."

COACH JAY HAYES SAYS: "Geno is not small. He's short, but he's a 298-pound guy who runs a 4.8 and benched 34 times at the Combine. He's strong. His father (Gene Atkins) was a heck of a player in this league. This kid has a legacy behind him. He's known what the NFL is like from an early age. He's quick and uses his hands well. That's why we project him as being a guy that can help us."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played four seasons (2006-09) at Georgia, appearing in 50 games with 23 starts ... Posted 11 sacks and 33 tackles-for-loss, with 120 total tackles ... Starting with his freshman season, helped Georgia to bowl wins over Virginia Tech (Chick-Fil-A), Hawaii (Sugar), Michigan State (Citrus) and Texas A&M (Independence). 2009—Won team defensive MVP honors with 36 tackles, three sacks and 10.5 tackles-for-loss ... Season-high eight tackles in 34-10 win at Vanderbilt ... Two sacks in 38-0 win vs. Tennessee Tech. 2008—Started all 13 games at RDT for Bulldog team that went 10-3 with Citrus Bowl win ... Had 34 tackles and 7.5 tackles-for-loss ... Season-high seven tackles, including two for-losses, vs. Alabama ... Saw action in two games as a blocking fullback in goal-line situations. 2007—Played 13 games with seven starts for team that finished 11-2 with 41-10 Sugar Bowl win over previously unbeaten Hawaii ... Posted career highs in tackles (41), sacks (7.5) and tackles-for-loss (14.5) ... Three sacks in 31-17 win over rival Georgia Tech. 2006—Played in 11 games as a freshman and was named team's Defensive Newcomer of the Year.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended St. Thomas Aquinas HS in Pembroke Pines, Fla. ... Named Florida Class 5-A Defensive Player of the Year as a senior ... Led team to state runner-up status as both a junior and a senior ... Played mostly at LB as a junior ... Also threw shot for track team.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Pembroke Pines, Fla. ... Housing major at Georgia ... Father, Gene Atkins, had 10-year NFL career at S with New Orleans and Miami ... First name is pronounced "JEE-no."

RODDRICK MUCKELROY

Linebacker

56

Draft Round: 4th
Overall Selection: 131st
College: Texas

Height: 6-2
Weight: 240
Born: 10-27-86

A two-time selection for first-team All-Big 12 honors, Muckelroy was a force of consistency and leadership for Texas, though sometimes in the shadow of more flashy players ... Led team in tackles in both 2008 and '09, when Longhorns posted 25-2 record ... Helped Texas lead nation in '09 in rush defense ... Versatile player who switched seamlessly from OLB to MLB as a senior, when fall camp injuries produced a need ... Started for Texas as a freshman, though his season was cut short by injury ... Known as an avid student of game film, spotting opponent tendencies and mentoring younger players.

COACH JEFF FITZGERALD SAYS: "Rodd really ran the show for one of the best defenses in the country. When I interviewed him, trying to get a feel for his football knowledge, that really lit him up. All I had to do was ask a couple of questions and before you knew it, it was, 'Hey, time's up.' So I feel very good about his football knowledge. He had great workouts at the Combine, and his versatility is a big plus. You want a guy that can do some different things."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played four seasons (2006-09) at Texas, appearing in 42 games with 30 starts ... Totaled 292 tackles, including 214 over his last two seasons ... Logged 5.5 sacks, 24 tackles-for-loss and two INTs ... Redshirted (did not play) in 2005. 2009—Started every game at MLB and led team with 102 tackles ... Contributed to nation's-best yield of only 72.4 rushing yards per game ... In victory vs. Texas Tech, had a 14-yard sack, seven tackles, two tackles-for-loss and a pass defended ... Logged 11 tackles, a 15-yard sack and two tackles-for-loss in win vs. Colorado. 2008—Starting all 13 games at WLB, led team with career-best 112 tackles ... Had 16 tackles and a forced fumble in win vs. Oklahoma ... Key cog in nation's third-best rush defense (83.5 yards per game). 2007—Played in every game as a sophomore ... Made first career start in Holiday Bowl victory vs. Arizona State, with a 10-yard sack and a 12-yard tackle-for-loss ... Had 11-yard INT return vs. Rice. 2006—As redshirt freshman, started in first three games, with 10 tackles and a sack, before a ruptured tendon in a ring finger during the Rice game ended his season. 2005—Redshirted.

HIGH-MOTOR MAN: "I am not a two-down linebacker; I can play all three downs," Muckelroy says. "I don't like coming off the field. I'm going to bring this same attitude to Cincinnati and put it on the field. I'm a player that's going to give it 100 percent on every snap."

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Hallsville (Texas) HS, where he was a Class 4A all-state selection by Associated Press and Texas Sports Writers Association as a senior ... Totaled 378 tackles for his career ... Also lettered in basketball and track.

COMMUNITY LEADER: Muckelroy was notably active in community service during his Texas career ... Made regular visits to patients at Dell Children's Medical Center ... Helped deliver team food donation to shelter for domestic violence victims ... Helped welcome U.S. troops back to Fort Hood following overseas deployments ... Member of Longhorn Leaders program, which mentors elementary and middle school children ... Has spoken at schools and worked at a football camp in his hometown of Hallsville ... Visited San Antonio Children's Hospital during team's Alamo Bowl trip his freshman year.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Hallsville, Texas ... Earned degree from Texas in corporate communications ... Member of UT's Athletics Director's Honor Roll.

Guard

60

Overall Selection: 152nd
College: Eastern Illinois

Height: 6-5
Weight: 320
Born: 7-19-86

Hudson brings excellent "measurables" to his bid to make Bengals roster from college FCS ranks ... Combines classic NFL size (6-5, 320) with 34-inch arms, 10.5-inch hands and 26-inch vertical jump ... Timed at 5.1 in 40-yard dash ... Athletic prospect who began his college career as a defensive lineman.

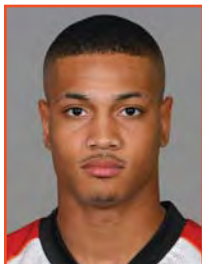

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Otis is a big, explosive man with NFL talent. In camp, you'll see that physically, he's a good-looking prospect. He's a guy who has more ability than polished technique at this point, but in the fifth round, you want a guy with ability rather than just another lineman who might not be good enough. Otis is a player I can work with and develop."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played two seasons (2008-09) at Eastern Illinois, after beginning career in '06-07 at Minnesota. 2009—Started all 12 games at ROT for Eastern Illinois club that went 8-4 with berth in FCS playoffs ... Aided offensive output of 315.1 yards per game ... Second on team in offensive snaps, and credited with 22 "de-cleater" blocks. 2008—Started nine games at ROT in his first Eastern Illinois season ... Credited with 15 "de-cleater" blocks. 2007—As a sophomore at Minnesota, played in four games as a reserve defensive lineman before switching to offensive line. 2006—Played in five games on Minnesota defensive line as a freshman ... Had three tackles and a forced fumble at Ohio State. 2005—Redshirted.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Barrington (Ill.) High School, in Greater Chicago ... All-Conference performer who was named to Chicago Tribune's Top 100 recruits list ... Also a four-year letter winner in track and basketball.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Barrington, Ill. ... Industrial technology major at Eastern Illinois.

DEZMON BRISCOE

Wide Receiver

88

Draft Round: 6th
Overall Selection: 191st
College: Kansas

Height: 6-2
Weight: 210
Born: 8-31-89

Strong and physical receiver was a record-setting machine for Kansas ... In just three collegiate seasons, became school's all-time leader in receiving yards (3240), TD catches (31) and 100-yard receiving games (14) ... Smashed former Jayhawk record of 2266 receiving yards ... Posted KU's top two all-time receiving yard totals for a season and also for a game ... Has shown innate skill for beating defenders and getting open against top competition ... Signed Bengals contract on 6-25-10.

COACH MARVIN LEWIS SAYS: "We have a really good relationship with Dezmon's former coach (Mark Mangino), and we received a high evaluation of him as a player. We feel good about the time our coaches spent with him, and we also have a coach who has a best friend on their (Kansas) staff. Sometimes you get some helpful insight. Now, Dezmon has to come and prove himself and make our football team better."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played three seasons (2007-09) at Kansas, entering NFL Draft after his junior season ... Played 37 games with 33 starts ... In addition to leading KU in career receiving yards and receiving TDs, he ranks second in Jayhawk annals in catches (219) ... Had 49 receiving gains of 20 or more yards ... Averaged 24.1 yards on 27 kickoff returns, with one TD ... Sixth in KU history in scoring (198). 2009—Posted career-best average of 15.9 yards per catch, with 84 receptions for 1337 yards ... Played in only 11 games, as compared to 13 in each of his first two seasons, and his receiving yards per game (121.5) was his career high ... First-team All-Big 12 selection, with seven 100-yard receiving games ... Had 242 receiving yards vs. Missouri. 2008—Sophomore had career highs in catches (92), receiving yards (school-record 1407) and TD catches (school-record 15) ... Earned honorable mention All-America from SI.com ... Set school single-game record with 269 receiving yards vs. Oklahoma

... Named Offensive MVP of Insight Bowl, when he caught 14-for-201 with three TDs in 42-21 win over Minnesota ... Seven games of 100 receiving yards, setting school record that he tied the next year. 2007—Started 11 of his 13 games as a true freshman, helping lead Kansas to 12-1 record with 24-21 FedEx Orange Bowl win over Virginia Tech ... Caught 43-for-496 with seven TDs on the season.

HIGH SCHOOL: Attended Cedar Hill HS in Greater Dallas, Texas ... Helped lead team to a state championship as a senior, scoring 11 TDs.

PERSONAL: Hometown is Dallas, Texas ... Physical education major at Kansas ... Father, Alvin Briscoe, played football at Oklahoma State ... Name is pronounced "DEZ-mon BRISS-ko."

Draft Round: 7th
Overall Selection: 228th
College: Iowa State

Height: 6-3
Weight: 320
Born: 8-28-87

Stephens has NFL size and strength, and he earned first-team All-Big 12 honors last season while playing through an appendectomy with just one game missed ... Helped lead Cyclones to Insight Bowl victory with offense-dominated team ... Credited with strong performance against DT Ndamukong Suh, No. 2 overall pick in 2009 NFL Draft, during ISU's 9-7 win last season at Nebraska ... Played center last season, and previously was at guard.

COACH PAUL ALEXANDER SAYS: "Reggie is a tough guy who played a lot of games at a high level in the Big 12. He can also play more than one position, and versatility is a key when you're a young guy trying to make the roster."

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS: CAREER—Played four seasons (2006-09) at Iowa State, with 44 appearances and 40 starts ... Redshirted (did not play) in 2005.

2009—Anchored line that helped ISU to only the third bowl victory in school history, 14-13 over Minnesota in Insight Bowl ... SLOW START, FAST FINISH

In 2009, for only the second time in their nine seasons of making the playoffs, the Bengals qualified despite losing their season opener. In both years when the Bengals overcame a season-opening loss, that loss was to Denver.

On Sept. 16, 1973, the Broncos won 28-10 at Denver against a Bengals team that would go 10-4 and win the AFC Central Division. And on Sept. 13 of 2009, Denver won 12-7 against the eventual AFC North champs.

Prior to 2009, the Bengals' last six playoff qualifying seasons had begun with a win.

2009 BENGALS GAME SUMMARIES

Game 1 Broncos 12, Bengals 7 Sunday, Sept. 13, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals suffered one of the most stunning losses in franchise history, as the Broncos scored an 87-yard game-winning touchdown with 11 seconds to go on a pass that was deflected by the Cincinnati defense to WR Brandon Stokley, who was not the intended receiver. It was the longest game-winning touchdown play from scrimmage in the final minute of the fourth quarter in NFL history. The Bengals had taken a 7-6 lead with 38 seconds remaining on a Cedric Benson one-yard TD run that completed a 91-yard drive. The Bengals had held the Broncos to 215 net yards and nine first downs until the game-winning deflected pass to Stokley.

Game 2 Bengals 31, Packers 24 Sunday, Sept. 20, at Lambeau Field

The Bengals overcame deficits of 14-7 and 21-14 in securing the franchise's first-ever win at Lambeau Field, and Cincinnati took a 6-5 lead in its overall series with the Packers. The Cincinnati defense played more effectively than Green Bay's 24 points would indicate, as the Packers returned one Bengals INT for a TD and returned a second pass theft to the Bengals' 11, setting up another TD. The leader of Cincinnati's defensive charge was DE Antwan Odom, who tied the Bengals' single-game record with five sacks. Odom raised his season sacks total to seven, most in the NFL in the first two games of a season since 1982, when individual sacks became an official statistic. The Bengals took the lead for good at 28-21 late in the third quarter, on the third of Carson Palmer's three TD passes, a 13-yarder to WR Chad Ochocinco. The Packers used an onside kickoff recovery to keep things interesting until the final gun, but time expired after a 25-yard pass to the Bengals' 10. The result left both teams with 1-1 records.

Game 3 Bengals 23, Steelers 20Sunday, Sept. 27, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals rallied from a 20-9 deficit after three quarters to post their first home victory over Pittsburgh since 2001. QB Carson Palmer led the Cincinnati offense on TD drives of 85 and 71 yards in the fourth quarter. HB Cedric Benson's 23-yard TD run closed the gap to 20-15 with 9:14 to play, and the Bengals got the game-winning score with 14 seconds left on a four-yard pass from Palmer to WR Andre Caldwell. Cincinnati's defense scored the first Bengals TD, on a 30-yard INT return by CB Johnathan Joseph in the third quarter, and the defense limited Pittsburgh to 19 yards and one first down in the fourth quarter. The defense allowed 258 Pittsburgh yards in the first half, but kept the game within comeback reach by forcing the Steelers to settle for FGs on drives which reached the Bengals one- and six-yard lines. The Bengals improved to 2-1 on the season, and the Steelers fell to 1-2.

Game 4 Bengals 23, Browns 20 (OT)Sunday, Oct. 4, at Cleveland Browns Stadium

The Bengals went to 0:04 remaining in the overtime period in claiming their first OT victory since 2001. K.Shayne Graham's 31-yard FG put down the Browns and ended a drought of four OT games in which the Bengals had lost three and tied one. Cincinnati jumped to a 14-0 first-half lead, but saw the Browns go ahead 20-14 with 6:34 left in the fourth quarter. The Bengals tied the score at 20 with 1:55 left, on the second of two TD passes from QB Carson Palmer to WR Chad Ochocinco, but Cleveland NT Shaun Rogers blocked the ensuing PAT try, sending the game into OT. Each team had three OT possessions before Cincinnati drove 67 yards for Graham's winning FG. The key play on the winning drive was a 15-yard scramble by Palmer on a fourth-and-11 play from the Cleveland 41. Had the Bengals not converted that fourth down, Cleveland could have had good field position for a run at a game-winning play. The Bengals improved to 3-1 on the season, with all four of their games being decided in the last minute of play. The Browns fell to 0-4.

Game 5 Bengals 17, Ravens 14

Sunday, Oct. 11, at M&T Bank Stadium

The Bengals continued the storybook start of their season, winning for the third straight game after trailing in the fourth quarter. Down 14-10 with 2:15 to play, Cincinnati went 80 yards in 11 plays to notch the winning TD on a 20-yard pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Andre Caldwell with 0:22 remaining. The Cincinnati defense, inspired to support coordinator Mike Zimmer, whose wife died suddenly the previous Thursday, limited the Ravens to one TD and 257 net yards. Zimmer brought three close family members with him on the trip and coached the game. Heading into the contest, Baltimore's offense had ranked third in the NFL in both average points per game (31.0) and average net yards (413.5). HB Cedric Benson rushed for 120 yards on 27 carries for the Bengals, becoming the first back in 40 games to rush for 100 yards against Baltimore. In the third quarter, Benson scored the first Cincinnati TD on a 28-yard rush, running free after breaking several tackles. The Ravens had taken a 14-10 lead on a 48-yard pass to RB Ray Rice with 6:59 to play prior to the Bengals' game-winning drive. Cincinnati improved to 4-1 and secured sole possession of first place in the AFC North Division. Baltimore fell to 3-2.

Game 6 Texans 28, Bengals 17

Sunday, Oct. 18, at Paul Brown Stadium

After a run of four straight stirring victories not decided until inside the final minute, the Bengals came down to earth with a hard landing against the Texans. Houston, badly in need of a win with a 2-3 mark entering the game, logged 26 first downs and 472 net yards while limiting the Bengals to 14 first downs and 296 yards. The Bengals managed a 17-point second quarter and went into halftime leading 17-14, but they were blanked in the second half, managing just six net yards in the third quarter. Most of their 78-yard total for the second half came late in the fourth quarter, with Houston playing conservatively to protect a two-score lead. For the Texans, QB Matt Schaub threw four TD passes. Furthering the Bengals' bad day, DE Antwan Odom was lost for the season to a torn Achilles tendon in the first quarter. Odom, the AFC Defensive Player of the Month for September, had entered the game tied for the NFL lead in sacks at 8.0. The Bengals dropped to 4-2 on the season while Houston improved to 3-3.

Game 7 Bengals 45, Bears 10Sunday, Oct. 25, at Paul Brown Stadium

After an early season filled with hair-raising finishes, the Bengals romped over Chicago, scoring six TDs and a FG on their first seven possessions. QB Carson Palmer posted a career-high 146.7 passer rating with a performance that included five TD passes and no INTs. Former Bear Cedric Benson rushed for 189 yards against his former team and scored a TD. Bengals WR Chad Ochocinco scored two TDs while recording 10 catches for 118 yards. The Bengals also burned the Bears in turnovers, with four takeaways and no giveaways. CB Leon Hall had two INTs for Cincinnati, with returns for 48 yards. The Bengals improved to 5-2, holding a share of first place with Pittsburgh in the AFC North. The Bears fell to 3-0.

The Bengals started strong against Baltimore, scoring two TDs and a FG on their first three possessions for a 17-0 lead, and they held on with relative ease to claim a season sweep over their division rival. The Ravens closed the gap to 17-7 with 12:54 to play, and they gained possession at the Bengals' 47 with 7:56 still remaining, after recovering a Chad Ochocinco fumble. But Cincinnati's defense stepped up to force a 38-yard Ravens FG try — which was missed — and the Bengals were not again seriously threatened. Bengals HB Cedric Benson rushed for 117 yards and a TD on 34 carries, and combined with his 120-yard rushing effort at Baltimore on Oct. 11, he became the first player to rush 100-plus against the Ravens in two straight games since Miami's Ricky Williams, who did it over 2002 and '03. The Bengals defense held Baltimore to one-for-10 on third-down conversions, and starting CBs Leon Hall and Jonathan Joseph each had INTs for Cincinnati. The Bengals improved to 6-2 on the season while Baltimore fell to 4-4.

Game 9 Bengals 18, Steelers 12

Sunday, Nov. 15, at Heinz Field

In a game that head coach Marvin Lewis called "the most physically grinding win I've ever been on the sidelines to experience," the Bengals won a battle of 6-2 teams to take a one-game lead in the AFC North Division race. The winning formula included stout defense, four FGs by K Shayne Graham and a 96-yard kickoff return for a TD by rookie HB Bernard Scott. It was the only TD by either side in the game. The Bengals allowed only 226 yards to a Pittsburgh offense that had entered the game averaging 382.0, and Pittsburgh's three-for-15 performance on third-down conversions included a zero-for-10 finish. The Bengals trailed 9-6 at halftime, but got a quick tying FG after DE Froste Rucker made the game's only takeaway, intercepting a deflected Ben Roethlisberger pass at the Pittsburgh 40 and returning it 26 yards to the 14. In the game's last 11:20, after the Steelers had tied the score at 12-12, the Bengals mounted drives of 50 and 54 yards for FGs while the Steelers failed to make another first down.

Game 10 Raiders 20, Bengals 17

Sunday, Nov. 22, at Oakland Coliseum

A heavily favored Bengals team jumped to a 14-0 second-quarter lead but was outplayed the rest of the way as Oakland rallied to win only its third game of the year. The Raiders drove 80 yards on 11 plays to tie the game at 17-17 with 0:33 left, and K Sebastian Janikowski kicked a game-winning FG at 0:15 following TE Brandon Myers' force and recovery of a fumble by Cincinnati KOR Andre Caldwell. The Bengals lost for only the eighth time in 51 games under head coach Marvin Lewis in which they held a lead entering the fourth quarter. QB Carson Palmer scored both Bengals TDs on one-yard runs, scoring twice in a game for the first time in his career. Rookie HB Bernard Scott, filling in for injured HB Cedric Benson, rushed for 119 yards for Cincinnati and had 151 yards from scrimmage. But the Bengals lost a season-high three fumbles and finished minus-one in turnover differential. The loss left the Cincinnati franchise with an 0-10 all-time record in games in Oakland. The Bengals fell to 7-3 on the season, losing for the first time in five road games, as Oakland improved to 3-7.

Game 11 Bengals 16, Browns 7
Sunday, Nov. 29, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals held Cleveland to 169 net yards — the lowest total allowed by Cincinnati since 1983 — while completing a 6-0 sweep of their AFC North Division foes for 2009. The Cincinnati offense rolled for 210 rushing yards, including 107 by HB Larry Johnson, and the Bengals topped 38 minutes in possession time. QB Carson Palmer passed four yards to TE J.P. Foschi for the only Bengals TD, which came on a third-and-goal play in the second quarter and gave Cincinnati a 10-0 lead. Just before halftime, K Shayne Graham tied his career-long FG with a 53-yarder for a 13-0 edge. The Bengals won against the rival Browns for the ninth time in their last 11 meetings and continued to hold first place in the AFC North Division with an 8-3 record. The Browns fell to 1-10 on the season.

Game 12 Bengals 23, Lions 13
Sunday, Dec. 6, at Paul Brown Stadium

Detroit scored a TD on its second possession on a 54-yard pass from QB Matt Stafford to WR Calvin Johnson. On a slow-starting offensive day, the Bengals did not even the score until DE Jonathan Fanene returned an INT 45 yards for a TD with 11:50 remaining in the second quarter. The INT was set up by a deflection by rookie DE Michael Johnson. The Bengals went ahead to stay on a 36-yard TD pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Chad Ochocinco later in the quarter, and K Shayne Graham's three FGs gave the Bengals a 23-7 edge before Detroit added a TD with just 1:20 to play. Ochocinco had a season-high 137 receiving yards, and HB Cedric Benson rushed for 110 after missing the two previous games with a hip injury. The Bengals became the first team since the 1993 Seattle Seahawks to have three different backs post 100-yard rushing games in a span of three weeks, as HBs Bernard Scott and Larry Johnson each had a 100-yard game while Benson was out. The Bengals improved to 9-3 on the season, posting more than 38:00 possession time for the third straight game. The Lions fell to 2-10.

Game 13 Vikings 30, Bengals 10

Sunday, Dec. 13, at Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome

The Bengals were no match for a 10-2 Minnesota team in a contest that saw each team trying to clinch its division title. The Vikings were the success story of the day, limiting the Bengals to 210 net offensive yards, their second-fewest of the season. The Bengals also drew 11 penalties, their second-most on the year. After a scoreless first quarter, the Vikings mounted a 16-7 halftime lead and essentially put the game away with a TD drive to open the third quarter. Minnesota QB Brett Favre played his first game for Minnesota against the Bengals, and for the sixth time against Cincinnati overall. He ran his record to 5-1 against the Bengals. HB Cedric Benson's 96 rushing yards for the Bengals pushed him to 1065 yards for the season, the first 1000-yard run of his five-year career. Benson became the eighth Bengal to post at least one 1000-yard rushing season. The Bengals fell to 9-4 on the season while Minnesota improved to 11-2. The Bengals remained winless (0-5) in franchise history in games at Minnesota.

Game 14 Chargers 27, Bengals 24

Sunday, Dec. 20, at Qualcomm Stadium

The game was a battle to gain the inside track for the AFC's No. 2 playoff seed, and San Diego prevailed in a thrilling fashion that befitted the stakes. The Bengals rallied from a 24-13 deficit to tie at 24-24 when K Shayne Graham kicked a 34-yard FG with just 0:54 to play. But after reaching the Cincinnati 49-yard line with 12 seconds left (and no timeouts remaining), the Chargers moved to the Bengals' 35 on a 15-yard pass from QB Philip Rivers to WR Malcolm Floyd, and Floyd went out of bounds to stop the clock at :08. On came San Diego K Nate Kaeding — the NFL's all-time leader in career FG accuracy — and Kaeding won the game on a 52-yard kick. The Bengals played the game just three days after the accidental death of WR Chris Henry. Bengals QB Carson Palmer passed for a season-high 314 yards, but Rivers passed for 308 yards and three TDs. The Bengals fell to 9-5 on the season but retained the lead in the AFC North Division. The Chargers improved to 11-3 and clinched the AFC West title while gaining a stranglehold — though not yet a clinch — on the No. 2 playoff seed.

Game 15 Bengals 17, Chiefs 10

Sunday, Dec. 27, at Paul Brown Stadium

The Bengals got almost all they could handle from a 3-11 Kansas City team before prevailing for a win that clinched their second AFC North Division championship under coach Marvin Lewis. With the score tied 10-10 with 9:21 remaining in the fourth quarter, the Bengals were pinned at their two-yard line by a Dustin Colquitt punt. But the offense responded with its longest drive of the season — a 14-play, 98-yarder that culminated with a TD pass on third-and-goal at the six from QB Carson Palmer to WR Chad Ochocinco. The Chiefs' last gasp expired when CB Leon Hall recorded his sixth INT of the year, picking off a long Matt Cassel pass at the Bengals' 19 with 1:06 remaining. HB Cedric Benson rushed for 133 yards for Cincinnati, posting his team-record sixth 100-yard rushing game of the season. The Bengals improved to 10-5 on the year as the Chiefs fell to 3-12.

Sunday night, Jan. 3, at the Meadowlands

With a division championship and a Wild Card playoff at home already in hand, the Bengals faced a Jets club that had to win to make the playoffs. And though the Bengals did not engage in wholesale resting of their starters, the Jets prevailed in historically dominating fashion. Cincinnati's 72 yards of net offense was the fewest in franchise history. The previous low was an 83-yard output on Oct. 31, 1971 at Houston. New York's 37-point victory margin tied the largest ever against Cincinnati (third time), and the Bengals were shut out for the first time under head coach Marvin Lewis (first time since 2001). Bengals QB Carson Palmer left the lopsided game in the early third quarter with zero net passing yards, and the team finished with zero net passing yards. The result set up a Wild Card playoff rematch between the two clubs the following week. The Bengals finished the regular season 10-6 as AFC North champions, and the Jets finished 9-7 as a Wild Card team.

AFC WILD CARD PLAYOFF

Saturday, Jan. 9, 2010, at Paul Brown Stadium

In a Wild Card Playoff that was relatively even in most statistical categories, the AFC North champion Bengals were minus-two in turnover differential and could not hold an early lead against the visiting Jets. Cincinnati led 7-0 after the first quarter, on an 11-yard TD pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Laveranues Coles, but New York gained a 14-7 halftime lead with two scores in a span of less than six minutes in the second quarter. Possession for the go-ahead TD drive was gained by the Jets on an INT by Pro Bowl CB Darrelle Revis. The Bengals' second-half comeback efforts were crippled by missed FG attempts of 35 and 28 yards by K Shayne Graham. Bengals HB Cedric Benson scored on a 47-yard run in the fourth quarter, and his 169 rushing yards for the game set a Bengals postseason record. The Jets defeated the San Diego Chargers in their Divisional Playoff the following week to advance to the AFC Championship game, where they lost to the Indianapolis Colts.

CHRIS HENRY: 1983-2009

Bengals WR Chris Henry died at age 26 in an auto accident on Dec. 17, 2009 in Charlotte, N.C. He was buried on Dec. 22 in New Orleans. Henry's hometown was Belle Chasse, La., a New Orleans suburb.

Born May 17, 1983, Henry played during five Bengals seasons (2005-09). He saw action in 55 games with 12 starts, catching 119 passes for 1826 yards and 21 touchdowns.

Henry played in the first eight games of 2009, but was sidelined Nov. 8 with a left forearm fracture he suffered vs. Baltimore. After follow-up exams in Cincinnati, he was cleared in December to be in Charlotte to be with his fiancé, Loleini Tonga, and her family.

The couple had announced plans to be married in March. Henry leaves three children — a daughter (Denayla) and two sons (Chris Jr., DeMarcus).

"We knew Chris as a teammate and a close friend," said Mike Brown, Bengals president. "To us, he was a warm, pleasant and easygoing person. He was popular with the players, coaches and team management. His death was a tragedy, and we will miss him."

Henry played in college at West Virginia and joined the Bengals as a third-round draft choice in 2005.

A RARE RUNNER

The only Bengals quarterback ever to rush for 100 yards in a game was Virgil Carter, who gained 110 on nine carries against Cleveland on Nov. 15, 1970.

The game was the first Bengals-Browns match in Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field), and marked Cincinnati's first victory (14-10) over its Ohio rival.

GET THE POINT?

Only three times in the Bengals' first 42 seasons has a non-kicker led the team in scoring. In 1979, FB Pete Johnson was the team's leading scorer with 90 points (15 TDs). FB Ickey Woods led the 1988 Bengals with 90 points (15 TDs), and in 2001, HB Corey Dillon scored a team-high 78 points (13 TDs).

The Bengals' single-season scoring record was set in 2005 by K Shayne Graham, who scored 131 points (28 FGs, 47 PATs). He broke the previous mark of 122 points that he set in 2004.

A SPECIAL EXPLOSION

The Bengals record for most points in a game by the special teams is 31, from a 43-14 victory at Buffalo on Nov. 8, 1970.

CB Lemar Parrish scored two special teams touchdowns, one on a 95-yard kickoff return and another on an 83-yard return of a blocked field goal attempt. K Horst Muhlmann added 15 points on five field goals, and four PATs by Muhlmann completed the special teams onslaught.

The offense scored only one TD, on a one-yard run by RB Jess Phillips. The defense scored a TD on an eight-yard fumble return by DE Royce Berry.

NO TDs; NO PROBLEM

Four times in their history, the Bengals have won without scoring a touchdown:

- On Sept. 24, 1972, K Horst Muhlmann's five field goals (41, 32, 20, 32, 34) fueled a 15-10 victory over Pittsburgh at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field).
- On Oct. 21, 1984, K Jim Breech kicked four field goals (24, 23, 25, 33) for all the Bengals' points in a 12-9 victory over Cleveland at Riverfront.
- On Nov. 6, 1994, K Doug Pelfrey booted six field goals (36, 44, 36, 47, 28, 26) and LB-DE Alfred Williams scored on a safety as the Bengals posted a 20-17 overtime victory at Seattle.
- On Nov. 11, 2007, K Shayne Graham kicked a team-record seven field goals (34, 19, 22, 35, 35, 21, 33) for all of Cincinnati's points in a 21-7 victory at Baltimore.

DOUBLE WHAMMY

Twice in Bengals history, two Cincinnati players have broken the 100-yard rushing mark in the same game.

On Oct. 29, 1972, in a 30-7 win vs. Houston, RB Doug Dressler gained 110 yards and HB Essex Johnson ran for 103 yards.

On Dec. 7, 1986, in a 31-7 victory at New England, HB James Brooks rushed for 163 yards and FB Stanley Wilson gained 120 yards.

THE LONGEST SHOTS

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster for a regular-season game was K-P Dave Green of Ohio University. Green was the 418th selection in the 1972 draft, taken in the 17th round. He didn't make the roster in 1972, and had a brief stint (no games played) with Houston in '73 before being re-acquired by Cincinnati. Green played for the Bengals from 1974-75, scoring 70 points and averaging 40.1 yards on 134 punts. He was acquired by Tampa Bay in 1976, and stayed in the NFL through '79.

The latest-drafted player ever to make the Bengals roster in the same season of his selection was LB Larry Ely of Iowa. Ely was the 397th selection in 1970, a 16th-round pick. He played for Cincinnati in 1970 and '71.

RILEY REIGNS SUPREME

In the Bengals record book, the most dominant lead in a major career category belongs to CB Ken Riley. His 65 interceptions nearly double the total (33) of second-place CB Louis Breeden.

1979

Cincinnati traded CB Lemar Parrish and DE Coy Bacon to Washington on June 26, 1978 for the Redskins' first-round pick in '79 (which ended up being No. 12 overall).

BENGALS TAP THE BUCKEYE PIPELINE

Ohio State is the top supplier of college talent to the Bengals, with 22 former Buckeyes having qualified for the team's official all-time roster.

The list is headlined by former Pro Bowl FB Pete Johnson (1977-83), the No. 4 rusher in Bengals history, as well as by RB Archie Griffin (1976-83), CB Ray Griffin (1978-84), OT Rufus Mayes (1970-78) and DT Dan Wilkinson (1994-97).

Michigan and Florida are tied for second place, each with 16 Bengals alumni. The University of Cincinnati and Penn State are tied for fourth place with 15 each.

BENGALS ALL-TIME ROSTER

To be eligible for the all-time roster, a player must have been in uniform for at least one regular-season or postseason game, or spent a minimum of four games on the roster (including inactive status). A player who qualifies under these guidelines will also be credited for seasons in which he was on a reserve list but did not play or dress for a game. Players who spend time on a reserve list but have never played or dressed for a game do not qualify for the all-time roster. The Practice Squad does not qualify.

BENGALS ALL-TIME UNIFORM NUMBERS

This all-time uniform numbers list is organized in chronological order for each number.

Generally, this list credits a player for having ownership of a uniform number for an entire season, even if he was with the team for only part of that season. However, game-by-game breakdowns within seasons are provided if (1) a player changed his uniform number during a season, or (2) more than one player wore the same number in the same season.

Numbers in parentheses behind players' names denote other uniform numbers worn by those players during their careers with the Bengals.

PARRISH HITS PAYDIRT

The only Bengals player ever to score two touchdowns in a game on returns and/or recoveries is Lemar Parrish — and he did it three times.

Parrish, a Bengals cornerback and kick returner from 1970-77, scored two TDs on Nov. 8, 1970 at Buffalo (95-yard kickoff return and 83-yard return of a blocked FG attempt); on Dec. 17, 1972 at Houston (25-yard interception return and 33-yard interception return); and on Oct. 6, 1974 vs. Washington (90-yard punt return and 47-yard fumble return).

6-0 WASN'T EASY

The Bengals' 6-0 march through the AFC North last season was the first perfect division run in franchise history.

This piece of team lore was accomplished in historically hair-raising fashion. In Weeks 3-5, the Bengals defeated each division rival by three points (23-20 vs. Pittsburgh, 23-20 in overtime at Cleveland, and 17-14 at Baltimore). When the Elias Sports Bureau researched the feat as far back as the 1970 NFL-AFL merger, the Bengals were found to be the only team to have won division games that closely (three points or less) in three successive weeks.

The second meetings against each division rival were slightly less frantic. Cincinnati beat Baltimore by 10, Pittsburgh by six and Cleveland by nine.

The Bengals completed their division schedule in the first 11 games, their earliest such finish in a season since 1993.

BENGALS BOAST WINNING MARK IN OVERTIME

The Bengals are 15-11-1 in regular-season overtime games, for a winning percentage of .574. Overtime was put in place for regular-season games in 1974. The Bengals have not played an overtime game in postseason.

Cincinnati won its only overtime game last season, prevailing 23-20 at Cleveland and breaking a four-game OT winless streak. In their previous four OT games, the Bengals had lost three and tied one. Their 13-13 tie in 2008 vs. Philadelphia was the NFL's first deadlocked game since 2002.

THIS RECORD HOLDS THE RECORD

The oldest season record in Bengals history, and the only one still standing from the Nippert Stadium years, is QB Greg Cook's average of 9.41 yards gained per passing attempt in 1969. The only other average of more than nine yards was 9.21 by QB Boomer Esiason in 1988.

BENGALS CHRONOLOGY

Paul Brown, who left the Cleveland Browns following the 1962 season with an NFL record of 115-49-6, seven conference titles, and three NFL championships, had the urge to get back into football. His son Mike did a study on pro football expansion and recommended Cincinnati as a potential site. In 1965, Brown met with Ohio Governor James Rhodes and the two agreed the state could accommodate a second pro football team.

1966 Fearful the Reds baseball team would leave town and feeling pressure from local businessmen pushing for a pro football franchise, Cincinnati's city council approved the construction of Riverfront Stadium.

1967 Brown's group was awarded an AFL expansion franchise. Brown called the team the Bengals, the name of Cincinnati's pro teams in the old AFL of the late 1930s. The Bengals acquired their first player late in the year when they traded two draft picks to Miami for QB John Stofa.

1968 The Bengals were awarded 40 veteran players in the allocation draft. In the college draft, they selected Tennessee center Bob Johnson as their first pick. The Bengals lost their first preseason game, 38-14, to Kansas City, before 21,682 fans at Nippert Stadium. The Bengals upset Denver, 24-10, and Buffalo, 34-23, in their first two regular-season home games. Paul Robinson led the AFL in rushing with 1,023 yards and he was named Rookie of the Year.

1969 Brown drafted quarterback Greg Cook of the University of Cincinnati in the first round. The same draft also produced linebacker Bill Bergey. The Bengals jumped out to a 3-0 record, but finished 4-9-1. Brown was named AFL Coach of the Year. Bergey was honored as the AFL Defensive Rookie of the Year, and Cook won the AFL passing title.

1970 The NFL-AFL merger took place before the season, and the Bengals made their first NFL campaign a memorable one. After losing 6 of their first 7 games, they rallied to finish 8-6 and win the new AFC Central Division. In their first playoff game, they lost, 17-0, to eventual Super Bowl champion Baltimore. QB Greg Cook was forced to the Injured Reserve list in training camp with a shoulder injury that would end his career, and Virgil Carter took over as the starter.

1971 The Bengals drafted QB Ken Anderson in the third round. Anderson would go on to play 16 seasons for the club and set numerous team passing records.

1972 Anderson unseated Carter as the starting QB and the Bengals won three of the last four games to finish 8-6. DT Mike Reid and WR Chip Myers were selected for the Pro Bowl.

1973 The Bengals split their first eight games, then swept their last six and won their second AFC Central Division title. Cincinnati lost to Miami, 34-16, in the AFC playoffs. Rookie Boobie Clark, who finished the year with 988 yards rushing and 45 pass receptions, was named AFC Rookie of the Year. Essex Johnson led Cincinnati with a career-high 997 yards rushing and rookie Isaac Curtis caught 45 passes.

1974 Cincinnati traded Bill Bergey to Philadelphia for two first-round draft choices and a third-round pick in 1977. Jim LeClair replaced Bergey at middle linebacker. Anderson won the NFL passing championship and completed a then club-record 64.9 percent of his attempts. Cornerback Lemar Parrish led the NFL in punt returns.

1975 The Bengals opened with six straight wins and went on to post an 11-3 record, their best regular-season mark. The Bengals qualified as the AFC wild card team for the playoffs, but they lost to Oakland, 31-28, in the playoffs. Anderson won his second NFL passing championship. A serious blow was the loss of defensive tackle Mike Reid, who retired at age 26 to pursue a career in music.

1976 Brown announced his retirement after 41 seasons of coaching and named Bill Johnson, his long-time assistant, as the successor. Brown continued to serve as the club's general manager and vice president. The Bengals acquired defensive end Coy Bacon in a trade with San Diego and drafted halfback Archie Griffin, the two-time Heisman Trophy winner from Ohio State. The Bengals won nine of their first 11 games and finished 10-4, but did not make the playoffs. Cornerback Ken Riley led the AFC with nine interceptions.

1977 A loss to Houston in the final game cost the Bengals a spot in the playoffs. The team finished with an 8-6 record.

1978 QB Ken Anderson missed the first four games with a broken bone in his right hand, and Homer Rice replaced Bill Johnson as head coach after the Bengals started 0-5. The team dipped to marks of 0-8 and 1-12 before rebounding under Rice to win the last three games. In the season finale, the Bengals blasted Cleveland, 48-16, setting series records for points and victory margin.

1979 Fullback Pete Johnson powered his way to 15 touchdowns, but the Bengals struggled to their second straight 4-12 record. After the season, former Cleveland coach Forrest Gregg was named to replace Homer Rice as Bengals head coach.

1980 The Bengals went 6-10 and managed only 244 points, lowest in the AFC. They did upset defending Super Bowl champion Pittsburgh twice. First-round draft choice Anthony Muñoz began his Hall of Fame career.

1981 The Bengals unveiled new uniforms with tiger-striped helmets, jerseys and pants. They had at least a share of the AFC Central lead the entire season and, on Dec. 13, Anderson threw two touchdown passes as the Bengals clinched the division with a 17-10 win over the Steelers. Anderson led the NFL in passing with a 98.5 rating. On Jan. 3, the Bengals beat Buffalo, 28-21, in an AFC Divisional Playoff game. A week later, playing in their first AFC Championship Game, the Bengals defeated San Diego, 27-7, at Riverfront Stadium in a temperature of nine degrees below zero with a wind-chill factor of minus-59. In Super Bowl XVI on Jan. 24 in Pontiac, Mich., the Bengals trailed 20-0 at halftime and lost to San Francisco, 26-21.

1982 The Bengals posted a 7-2 record in a strike-shortened season to earn a postseason berth, but lost to the Jets in the first round of the playoffs, 44-17. Anderson led the AFC in passing for the fourth time as the Bengals boasted the second-best offense in the NFL.

1983 The Bengals started the season by losing six of their first seven games and finished 7-9. Despite the losing record, the Bengals claimed the top overall defense in the NFL. In the offseason, Gregg resigned as head coach and Sam Wyche was named as his replacement.

1984 Pete Johnson was traded to San Diego for running back James Brooks. The Bengals lost their first five games, then bounced back to win eight of the last 11 and force the AFC Central Division championship race into the final week of the season, only to fall a game short of Pittsburgh. Cincinnati finished 8-8.

1985 Wide receiver Isaac Curtis, a premier Bengal for 12 years, retired shortly before training camp opened. Second-year QB Boomer Esiason replaced Ken Anderson. The Bengals set a club scoring record with 441 points.

1986 Boomer Esiason passed for a then team-record 3959 yards and James Brooks rushed for 1087 yards as the Bengals went 10-6, narrowly missing a playoff berth. LB Reggie Williams was selected NFL Man of the Year for his efforts with charity and the community.

1987 The Bengals posted a 4-11 record in a strike-interrupted season. Individual bright spots included Jim Breech leading the AFC in scoring with 97 points, Anthony Muñoz being voted to his seventh straight Pro Bowl, and nose tackle Tim Krumrie making his first Pro Bowl.

1988 The Bengals brought about one of the biggest turnarounds in NFL history by rising from their 4-11 finish of 1987 to a 12-4 regular-season record. They won the AFC Central Division title, and defeated Buffalo, 21-10, for the AFC Championship on Jan. 8 (1989). On Jan. 22 (1989), they appeared in their second Super Bowl and lost, 20-16, to San Francisco when the 49ers scored a touchdown with 34 seconds remaining in the game. Coach Sam Wyche's team posted a 14-5 mark in regular and postseason play, best in the NFL. Wyche received numerous honors for his brilliant coaching and nine Bengals were selected for the Pro Bowl — QB Boomer Esiason, NT Tim Krumrie, OT Anthony Muñoz, G Max Montoya, TE Rodney Holman, WR Eddie Brown, RB James Brooks, S David Fulcher and CB Eric Thomas. Esiason was voted the NFL's Most Valuable Player. In January of '88, LB Reggie Williams received the "Sportsman of the Year" award from Sports Illustrated. Rookie "Ickey" Woods led the Bengals in rushing with 1,066 yards.

1989 The Bengals traded their first round draft choice to Atlanta for three later selections. Hit hard by injuries throughout the season, the Bengals went 8-8 and narrowly missed a spot in the playoffs, despite outscoring the opposition 404-285.

1990 The Bengals posted a 9-7 regular-season record to win the AFC Central Division and move into the playoffs, where they defeated the Houston Oilers, 41-14, before losing to the Los Angeles Raiders, 20-10, in the second round.

1991 Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame, died on Aug. 5. The Bengals had a 3-13 season record. Dave Shula replaced Sam Wyche as head coach following the season.

1992 The Bengals had a 5-11 record, but Harold Green rushed for 1,170 yards and was selected to play in the Pro Bowl. All-Pro OT Anthony Muñoz played his final game.

1993 Quarterback Boomer Esiason was traded to the New York Jets for a third-round draft choice. The young Bengals lost their first 10 games before defeating the Raiders. Cincinnati then had wins over the Rams and Falcons in the final weeks of the season to finish 3-13.

1994 The Bengals lost their first eight games of the season. With quarterbacks David Klingler and Erik Wilhelm sidelined with injuries, third-string QB Jeff Blake started in Game 8 against two-time defending Super Bowl champion Dallas and nearly pulled off an upset before losing, 23-20. Blake kept his starting role for the rest of the season, passing for 2154 yards and 14 TDs. The Bengals finished 3-13.

1995 The Bengals traded up in the draft's first round for the first time, and selected Penn State RB Ki-Jana Carter with the No. 1 overall pick, obtained from Carolina. Carter suffered a knee injury in the third preseason game and missed his entire rookie season. Nonetheless, the Bengals made a dramatic improvement over the previous four years, going 7-9 with five losses by just three points each. QB Jeff Blake, WR Carl Pickens and PK Doug Pelfrey posted record Bengal seasons, and Blake and Pickens went on to start in the Pro Bowl.

1996 On March 19, Hamilton County voters approved a half-cent sales tax increase to fund two new stadiums, taking a major step to ensure the Bengals' future in Cincinnati. The team lost six of its first seven games, but Cincinnati's fortunes took a U-turn after offensive coordinator Bruce Coslet was promoted to head coach on Oct. 21, replacing Dave Shula. Coslet directed the team to a 7-2 finish, including a 5-0 mark at Cinergy Field, and the final 8-8 record was Cincinnati's first .500-or-better season since 1990. The defense set a team record with 34 interceptions, and CB Ashley Ambrose was named a Pro Bowl starter along with WR Carl Pickens, who caught 100 passes to break his own team receptions record.

1997 The Bengals and Hamilton County officials reached agreement on a western riverfront site for a new football stadium and, on May 29, team president Mike Brown signed a lease committing the team through 2026. The team and the county declined to sell naming rights, christening the facility Paul Brown Stadium in honor of the Bengals' founder. The team held training camp in a new complex at Georgetown (Ky.) College, ending its 29-year arrangement at Wilmington (Ohio) College. On the field, the team suffered a 1-7 start but rallied to go 6-2 in the second half and finish 7-9. Rookie HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1129 yards, third-most in club history (at the time), and his 246-yard effort vs. Tennessee on Dec. 4 broke Jim Brown's 40-year-old NFL single-game rookie record. Boomer Esiason started the last five games at QB and posted a 106.9 passer rating for the season.

1998 Demolition work for Paul Brown Stadium began early in the year, and official groundbreaking for the new facility was held April 25. HB Corey Dillon rushed for 1130 yards, then third-most in team history, and became the first Bengal to top the 1000-yard rushing mark in each of his first two seasons.

1999 Throughout the year, work continued on Paul Brown Stadium, the team's new, state-of-the-art home on the Cincinnati riverfront. But the final season at Cinergy Field was not a success, as the team endured a 1-10 start before rallying to win three of its last five for a 4-12 finish. Corey Dillon rushed his way to the Pro Bowl with 1200 yards, then the second-most in team history. Kickoff returner Tremain Mack also made the Pro Bowl, leading the AFC with a club-record average of 27.1 yards per return.

2000 The Paul Brown Stadium era began on Aug. 19, as the Bengals christened Cincinnati's new football showplace with a 24-20 preseason win over the Chicago Bears. WR Peter Warrick scored the first Bengals points in PBS on a 14-yard end-around run in the first quarter. In the stadium's Grand Opening regular-season game Sept. 10 vs. Cleveland, a Cincinnati sports record crowd of 64,006 turned out (since surpassed), but the Browns won the game, 24-7. Rookie WR Ron Dugans scored the first Bengals regular-season points in PBS on a four-yard TD pass from Akili Smith. The Bengals drew four other crowds which exceeded the pre-PBS record for a sports crowd in Cincinnati, but the Browns game stood as the new record. On Sept. 25, following an 0-3 start to the season, Bruce Coslet resigned as head coach and was replaced by assistant head coach/defensive coordinator Dick LeBeau. The team finished 4-9 under LeBeau, including 4-6 in the final 10 games and a 2-2 mark in the final four. On Dec. 20, LeBeau signed a multi-year contract to begin in 2001. LeBeau's first victory, on Oct. 22 vs. Denver, featured a then NFL-record 278 rushing yards by Corey Dillon, who went on to set a Bengals record (since broken) of 1435 yards for the season, earning his second straight trip to the Pro Bowl.

2001 In his first full season as Bengals head coach, Dick LeBeau fashioned a two-game improvement over the previous season with a 6-10 record. It was the Bengals' most wins since 1997. The team displayed a foundation for the future in a young defense that ranked No. 9 in the NFL, the club's highest rank since 1989. HB Corey Dillon led the offense with 1315 rushing yards, and moved to within 238 yards of James Brooks for the all-time team rushing lead. Security procedures at Paul Brown Stadium were significantly increased in response to the Sept. 11 terrorist attacks, but the full home schedule was played without incident. On Oct. 14, the Bengals re-set their own record for the largest crowd ever at a Cincinnati sports event, as 64,217 fans watched Cincinnati defeat Cleveland, 24-14. Due to the terrorist attacks, the Bengals' Sept. 16 game at Tennessee was postponed, and the season was extended a week to allow postponed games to be played the weekend of Jan. 6 (2002).

2002 The Bengals entered the season with high hopes after an encouraging 2001 finish. But despite some noteworthy individual performances, the team sunk to the worst record (2-14) in franchise history. The team was hit hard by injuries, losing the league's second-highest number of games by starters. The offense got off to a very slow start with free agent signee Gus Frerotte at QB, and Cincinnati was outscored 119-23 in the first four games. The offense perked up noticeably after 2001 starter, Jon Kitna, returned to the No. 1 QB role. For the first time since 1989, Cincinnati had a 3000-yard passer (Kitna), a 1000-yard rusher (Corey Dillon) and a 1000-yard receiver (Chad Ochocinco). The Bengals set a team record for pass completions with 350 (since surpassed). But the team was 0-7 before getting a win at Houston. The defense was inconsistent, and with nine touchdowns allowed on special teams or by the offense, the Bengals as a team allowed the second-most points (456) in club history. On Dec. 30, it was announced that head coach Dick LeBeau would not be retained for 2003.

2003 The Bengals launched a new era on Jan. 14, when Marvin Lewis was hired as the ninth head coach in franchise history. The results wound up being nationally noted, as the club drew a then-record regular-season attendance of 479,488 to watch Lewis' first team finish 8-8, six games better than the 2-14 Bengals of 2002. Architect of the Baltimore Ravens' record-setting Super Bowl defense in 2000, Lewis received a broad mandate from ownership to implement his program. Though the Bengals missed the playoffs — eliminated on the final weekend of the season — their six-game improvement was the biggest of any NFL team from '02 to '03. It was also the second-biggest one-year improvement in Bengals history. Lewis finished second to Bill Belichick, coach of the World Champion New England Patriots, in Associated Press voting for NFL Coach of the Year. The season included the four largest pro sports crowds in Cincinnati history (to that time), topped by 65,362 on Dec. 28 vs. Cleveland, and the highlight game was a 24-19 win on Nov. 16 over an unbeaten (9-0) Kansas City team. WR Chad Ochocinco led the AFC with 1355 receiving yards, and LOT Willie Anderson joined Johnson in the Pro Bowl. Prior to the season, the Bengals had the No. 1 overall pick in the NFL Draft for the third time in team history, and chose Southern California QB Carson Palmer. Palmer did not play as a rookie, as veteran Jon Kitna was the only NFL QB to play every offensive snap for his team.

2004 In their second season under head coach Marvin Lewis, the Bengals attracted record home attendance. All eight regular-season games at Paul Brown Stadium were sellouts — the first sold-out regular season since 1992 at Riverfront Stadium — and the total regular-season attendance of 524,248 put the team over the half-million mark for the first time. A record home crowd of 65,806 (later topped) saw the Bengals host Denver on Monday night, Oct. 25. The team finished 8-8 on the field, a creditable performance given that injuries were severe (18 players were placed on season-ending medical reserve lists) and that QB Carson Palmer was seeing his first NFL playing time. HB Rudi Johnson rushed for a club-record 1454 yards (since broken), and the team had four players named to the Pro Bowl, its highest total since 1990. The Pro Bowl quartet was HB Rudi Johnson, WR Chad Ochocinco, OT Willie Anderson and CB Tory James. K Shayne Graham set a club record with 122 points (a mark he later broke). Home games were played on a new, synthetic FieldTurf surface, on which installation was complete in early July. The team also made its first significant uniform change since 1981. The signature striped helmet was not changed, but the jersey design was modernized, black pants were added as a regular option to white pants, and a special-occasion orange jersey was added for up to two games per year.

2005 In head coach Marvin Lewis' third season, the Bengals returned to the playoffs, winning the AFC North Division title with an 11-5 record. Cincinnati lost 31-17 to Pittsburgh in a Wild Card round playoff game at Paul Brown Stadium, losing QB Carson Palmer to a serious knee injury on the club's second offensive snap. Palmer was among five Bengals voted to the Pro Bowl, the largest Bengals contingent since the 1989 team placed six. The other 2005 season Pro Bowlers were OT Willie Anderson, K Shayne Graham, WR Chad Ochocinco and CB Deltha O'Neal. On Dec. 29, just before the end of the regular season, Palmer signed a new agreement with the club, extending his contract through 2014. A number of club individual single-season records were set, including 32 TD passes by Palmer; 1432 receiving yards by Chad Ochocinco (since broken); 1458 rushing yards by Rudi Johnson; 10 INTs by O'Neal; and 131 points by Graham. The club posted a record regular-season attendance of 526,469 (later surpassed), and another sellout for the playoff game vs. Pittsburgh pushed to 20 the team's streak of consecutive regular and postseason home sellouts. The season's home crowds included the top four attendance figures in franchise history (to that time), headed by 66,104 for the Bengals-Steelers game on Oct. 23.

2006 For the first time since 1992, the Bengals sold out all games before the season began, and a waiting list was established for new season ticket buyers. The regular-season attendance mark was 527,870, as the club set a record for the third straight year. It was also announced prior to the season that head coach Marvin Lewis signed a contract extension through 2010. Lewis completed his fourth season by joining Paul Brown as the only Bengals head coaches to go four straight seasons without a losing record, but though the team remained in contention until the final weekend, it missed the playoffs with an 8-8 mark. QB Carson Palmer set a club record with 4035 passing yards (since surpassed), and he boldfaced his status as the cornerstone of the roster by winning the Most Valuable Player Award in the Pro Bowl on Feb. 10, 2007. He was the first Bengal to win the award. Other individual Bengals achievements in '06 included an NFL receiving yards title for Chad Ochocinco (1369), the first such crown in Bengals history, and Ochocinco also became the first NFL player to lead the AFC or NFC in receiving yards for a fourth consecutive season. Palmer, Ochocinco and OT Willie Anderson each were named to the Pro Bowl.

2007 In a Harris Interactive survey released in February, Paul Brown Stadium was the only football stadium to make a list of "America's favorite 150 buildings and structures." PBS ranked 101st on the list, whose range included all manner of major structures (the Empire State Building ranking first). Among all sports venues, only Wrigley Field (31) and the old Yankee Stadium (84) ranked higher than PBS. For the second straight season, the Bengals sold out all games before the season began, and the team ran to 36 its streak of consecutive home sellouts (regular and postseason). The team entered the season with high expectations, with its first two home games selected for ESPN Monday Night Football. But the season's first half ended with a disappointing 2-6 record, and a second-half rally lifted the club only to 7-9, the first losing season for head coach Marvin Lewis. WR T.J. Houshmandzadeh tied for the league receptions title (112) — becoming the first Bengal ever to lead or share the league lead. Other notable statistical accomplishments included Chad Ochocinco breaking his own team record with 1440 receiving yards, Carson Palmer re-setting two of his own marks with 4131 passing yards and 373 completions, and Shayne Graham kicking a club-record 31 field goals while re-setting his own mark for season field goal accuracy (91.2 percent). Houshmandzadeh and Chad Ochocinco earned trips to the Pro Bowl.

2008 With a club-record 23 players sent to the Reserve/Injured list, the Bengals struggled to a 4-11-1 finish. That list of 23 did not include the biggest missing name, QB Carson Palmer, who stayed on the roster all season but played in only four games due to an elbow injury. Ryan Fitzpatrick replaced Palmer at QB. The team partly salvaged the season, going 4-3-1 in the campaign's second half, but that was after an 0-8 start. Though the offense was near record lows in many statistical categories, the defense was promising under new coordinator Mike Zimmer, rising to a No. 12 NFL yardage ranking, the team's best since 2001. All home games were declared sold out before the season began. The Bengals' 13-13 tie on Nov. 16 vs. Philadelphia was the NFL's first deadlock since 2002.

2009 The Bengals won their second division championship under head coach Marvin Lewis, finishing with a 10-6 record. Their march to the AFC North title included a 6-0 mark in division games, marking the first time in franchise history for Cincinnati to sweep its divisional opponents. The club was led by its defense, which continued rapid improvement under second-year coordinator Mike Zimmer. The Bengals finished fourth in the NFL in fewest yards allowed (301.4 per game). The Bengals were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs, losing 24-14 to the visiting New York Jets, who went on to reach the AFC Championship Game. All nine home games (regular season and postseason) were sellouts, extending the club's franchise-record sellout streak to 53.

ANTHONY MUÑOZ PUTS BENGALS STAMP ON PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Anthony Muñoz, who defined the art of playing offensive tackle in the National Football League, was inducted on Aug. 1, 1998 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

It was the first year of Hall eligibility for Muñoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. It was the first year of Hall eligibility for Muñoz, whose final NFL season was 1992 with the Bengals. Including Jerry Rice and Emmitt Smith from the 2010 class, Muñoz is one of only 68 players elected in their first year of eligibility.

Muñoz was a consensus All-American at the University of Southern California, and the Bengals claimed him with the third overall pick in the 1980 draft, despite the fact some teams considered him damaged goods due to past knee surgery. The move turned out as the best draft gamble in franchise history, as Muñoz went on to play 13 Bengals seasons (1980-92), including 11 seasons (1981-91) in which he was chosen for the AFC-NFC Pro Bowl game. At the time of his retirement (1992), that was the most selections of any player in NFL history. He also earned All-Pro honors (full NFL) every season from 1981-91.

Muñoz is the only player who performed primarily for the Bengals to gain entry to the Hall. One other Hall of Fame player, wide receiver Charlie Joiner, was a Bengal from 1972-75, but he played the majority of his career with San Diego. Paul Brown, founder of the Bengals and the Cleveland Browns, also is in the Hall of Fame, but was inducted before the Bengals' first season.

Though there are Hall of Fame members with some Hispanic ancestry, Muñoz is generally considered the first player of primarily Hispanic background to gain entry to the Hall. Muñoz was born in Ontario, Calif. His parents also are native Californians, and his grandparents were born in Chihuahua, Mexico.

BENGALS PRO BOWL HISTORY

Former Bengals tackle Anthony Muñoz was selected to play in 11 AFC-NFC Pro Bowl games. At the time of his retirement (1992), that was the most selections of any player in NFL history.

BENGALS QBs AS LEAGUE MVPs

Two Bengals, both quarterbacks from the club's Super Bowl teams, have been named by nationwide panels of media as winners of the Associated Press NFL Most Valuable Player Award.

Ken Anderson was the winner in 1981, leading the NFL with a 98.4 passer rating. He completed 300 of 479 passes (62.6%) for 3754 yards, with a then-club record 29 TD passes against 10 interceptions.

Boomer Esiason was the 1988 winner, leading the league with a 97.4 rating and tying for the AFC lead in TDs with 28. He completed 223 of 388 passes (57.5%) for 3572 yards, with 14 interceptions.

Both QBs led their teams to 12-4 records in the regular season.

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XVI

Jan. 24, 1982, at Pontiac Silverdome (Pontiac, Mich.)

Cincinnati outgained San Francisco by 81 yards (356-275), marking the first time in Super Bowl history the losing team led in scrimmage yardage. Bengals QB Ken Anderson set Super Bowl records (since surpassed) for completions (25) and completion percentage (73.5), and his 300 passing yards nearly doubled the 157 by 49ers QB Joe Montana, the game's MVP. But Cincinnati suffered four turnovers to San Francisco's one, and three of those giveaways led to 17 first-half points for the 49ers, who led 20-0 at intermission.

Leading 20-7, San Francisco staged a memorable goal-line stand late in the third quarter, stopping Cincinnati for no gain on three straight plays from the one-yard line. The Bengals still closed the gap to 20-14 with a four-yard TD pass from Anderson to TE Dan Ross with 10:06 left, but the 49ers added FGs of 40 and 23 yards by K Ray Wersching to pull away. Cincinnati crept to within 26-21 with 16 seconds left on a second Anderson-to-Ross TD pass, but San Francisco recovered the Bengals' ensuing onside kick to seal the victory. Wersching's four FGs tied a Super Bowl record (still tied) and Ross' 11 receptions set a Super Bowl record (since tied).

BENGALS IN SUPER BOWL XXIII

Jan. 22, 1989, at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, Fla.)

NFL commissioner Pete Rozelle termed it the most exciting of the first 23 games in Super Bowl history, and the result regained some respect for the AFC, which had lost the last four contests by an average of more than 27 points. But the dominant emotion of the day still was heartbreak for head coach Sam Wyche's underdog Bengals, who took a 16-13 lead with 3:20 to play on Jim Breech's 40-yard FG before succumbing to a 92-yard, 11-play TD drive led by San Francisco QB Joe Montana. WR John Taylor's game-winning 10-yard TD catch from Montana came with just 34 seconds remaining. Never before had a Super Bowl been won on a TD so late in the game.

Cincinnati played without FB Stanley Wilson, who was suspended for a substance abuse violation that occurred the night before the game. In addition, the Bengals played almost the entire contest without All-Pro NT Tim Krumrie, who suffered a severe broken leg early in the first quarter.

The teams were tied 3-3 at halftime, tied again at 6-6 late in the third quarter, and then swapped TDs in quick succession. A 93-yard kickoff return by Cincinnati's Stanford Jennings was countered by a four-play San Francisco TD drive. The third of Breech's three FGs gave Cincinnati its third lead of the day before Montana's final heroics saved the day for the 49ers. San Francisco WR Jerry Rice tied a Super Bowl record with 11 receptions (still tied; originally set by Bengals TE Dan Ross in Super Bowl XVI) for 215 yards and one TD, earning the game's MVP award. Montana completed 23 of 36 passes for 357 yards, two TDs and no INTs. The victory made San Francisco the first NFC team to win three Super Bowls.

CINCINNATI PRO FOOTBALL HISTORY

Cincinnati was home to two other football teams in the National Football League prior to the present-day Bengals.

One of the teams, known as the Cincinnati Celts, was a member of the NFL — then known as the American Professional Football Association — in the league's second season in 1921. That team finished with a 1-3-0 record in its only season.

In 1933, the NFL granted the city another franchise, this time called the Cincinnati Reds. They competed in the league for two seasons before folding. The Reds finished with a 3-6-1 record and fourth place in the league's Western Division in 1933. In 1934, they lost their first eight games before suspending operations. The St. Louis Gunners, an independent team, joined the NFL by buying the Cincinnati franchise and went 1-2 the last three weeks of the season.

It was a third team, however — one which was not a member of the NFL — that eventually proved to be the closest link to today's modern-era team.

In 1937, a team called the Cincinnati Bengals was formed as a member of the rival American Football League. It was that team's nickname which was later adopted by today's NFL franchise.

The 1937 Bengals finished with a 2-4-2 record in their first year, but the AFL folded after the season. The Bengals continued as an independent team in 1938, playing three NFL teams that year. They beat the Chicago Bears, 17-13, and the Pittsburgh Pirates, 38-0, and tied the Chicago Cardinals, 7-7.

In 1939, the Bengals joined a new AFL, finishing in second place with a 6-2 record. But again, the league folded after the season.

Once again in 1940, another new AFL emerged, and again the Bengals joined. They recorded 1-7-0 and 1-5-2 marks in 1940 and '41, respectively. That AFL suffered the fate of the two AFLs before it, folding after the 1941 season as the United States entered World War II. Only this time, the Bengals folded along with it.

Pro football returned to Cincinnati 26 years later, in 1967, when Paul Brown headed an ownership group which landed an expansion franchise in the modern-era American Football League. Brown, a Pro Football Hall of Famer who founded and coached the Cleveland Browns from 1946-62, picked the name Bengals for the new team "to give it a link with past professional football in Cincinnati."

Hundreds of names were suggested by fans in an effort to name the new Cincinnati team, the most popular being Buckeyes. It was rejected to avoid confusion with the Ohio State Buckeyes.

The Bengals began play in the AFL in 1968. The AFL merged with the NFL in 1970.

DOUBLING UP

Twice in Bengals history, a Cincinnati player has managed 100-plus yards both rushing and receiving on the same day. HB Essex Johnson was the first, rushing for 121 yards on 21 carries and getting 116 yards on two receptions on Sept. 30, 1973 at San Diego. He stood alone in the category until Dec. 7, 1986, when HB James Brooks burned the Patriots at New England for 163 yards on 18 rushes and 101 yards on six receptions. Cincinnati won both games.

Bengals opponents have managed double 100-yard performances twice, and Cincinnati lost both of those games. On Nov. 23, 1975, Cleveland HB Greg Pruitt had 121 yards on 17 rushes and 106 yards on seven receptions vs. Cincinnati at Cleveland Stadium. On Sept. 22, 1985, San Diego RB Lionel James became the only NFL player to record dual 100s at Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field). James had 127 yards on 12 rushes and 118 yards on five receptions.

BENGALS FRANCHISE FIRSTS

FIRST HEAD COACH: Paul Brown, who coached the team from 1968 through '75.

FIRST PLAYER: QB John Stofa, who was acquired in December, 1967, from the Miami Dolphins in a trade for two draft choices. Stofa played for the Bengals in 1968 and '69.

FIRST DRAFT CHOICE: Center Bob Johnson, from the University of Tennessee, was the Bengals' No. 1 draft choice in their inaugural season of 1968.

FIRST GAME: Aug. 3, 1968 — a preseason home game against the Kansas City Chiefs at Nippert Stadium. The Chiefs won, 38-14, in front of 21,682 fans.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON GAME: On Friday night, Sept. 6, 1968, in San Diego, the Bengals began play in the American Football League. They lost to the Chargers, 29-13.

FIRST BENGALS REGULAR-SEASON SCORING PLAY: On the Bengals' first possession of their first regular-season game — Sept. 6, 1968 at San Diego — RB Paul Robinson scored a touchdown on a 2-yard run. Dale Livingston kicked the extra point for a 7-0 Cincinnati lead. The Chargers came back to win, 29-13.

FIRST REGULAR-SEASON VICTORY: On Sunday, Sept. 15, 1968, the Bengals won their home opener, defeating the Denver Broncos, 24-10. A crowd of 25,049 watched at Nippert Stadium.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME: On Saturday, Dec. 26, 1970, the Bengals lost to the Baltimore Colts, 17-0, at Memorial Stadium in Baltimore in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game. The Bengals reached the playoffs in just the franchise's third season by winning the AFC Central Division title with an 8-6 regular-season record.

FIRST PLAYOFF GAME VICTORY: On Jan. 3, 1982, the Bengals defeated the Buffalo Bills, 28-21, at Riverfront Stadium in Cincinnati in an AFC Divisional Playoff Game. A week later, the Bengals beat San Diego in the AFC Championship Game to earn a trip to Super Bowl XVI.

The Bengals selected Univ. of Tennessee center Bob Johnson with their first choice in the 1968 NFL-AFL draft. Johnson played 12 seasons for the Bengals, from 1968-79.

BENGALS UNIFORMS — THEN & NOW

1968-79 — THE ORIGINAL

The original Bengals uniform pictured here debuted when the team began play in the modern-era American Football League in 1968, and it defined the team's appearance well beyond the AFL's merger with the National Football League in 1970. Except for its socks and shoes, this uniform remained unchanged for 12 seasons through 1979.

The helmet was orange with a gray facemask. Simple in design, it had "Bengals" arched across both sides in block letters. The letters were black with a thin white outline.

This original uniform had both a black jersey and a white jersey. The black jersey had one orange stripe surrounded by two white stripes on each sleeve. Its uniform numbers were white block numerals, appearing on both the front and back. Likewise, its nameplate had white block letters. The white jersey had an orange stripe surrounded by black stripes on each sleeve, its uniform numbers were black block numerals on the front and back, and it had black block letters on the nameplate.

The team wore the same white pants with both the black and white jerseys of this uniform. The pants had one orange stripe surrounded by two black stripes on the side of each leg. The stripes ran the full length of the legs.

For its first seven seasons, the team wore two sock designs, based on whether it was wearing a black or a white jersey. With black jerseys, the team wore black-topped socks — white socks with a black top from the rim to the bottom of the calf. In the middle of the black top appeared one orange stripe surrounded by two white stripes, matching the striping pattern on the black jersey's sleeves. With white jerseys, the team wore white socks with mid-calf striping that matched the pants and the white jersey's sleeves — one orange stripe surrounded by two black stripes.

The team wore the socks pictured here through 1974. In 1975, the team began wearing only one sock design, regardless of whether it was wearing a black or a white jersey. That sock, pictured with the 1980 uniform illustration on the following page, was white, and at its mid-calf had one black stripe surrounded by two orange stripes.

The team primarily wore black shoes through 1973, and white shoes in 1974 and thereafter.

Interesting facts from this uniform era:

- Black shoes were in — then out of — style, and now they're back again: During this time period, neither the AFL nor the NFL had rules requiring players on the same teams to wear shoes of the same color. In the franchise's first six seasons through 1973, most Bengals players chose to wear black shoes. In 1974, the team's dominant shoe color shifted to white. Not until 1990 did the NFL begin to regulate shoe colors. To help standardize uniforms, the league required each team to select a primary shoe color. The Bengals chose white, since that was still the players' color of choice at the time. The white shoes continued to remain in place through 2003. At the players' request, the team switched back to black shoes with its 2004 uniform redesign.

- Incorrect stripes were placed on cold-weather jersey: For the entire run of this uniform, the stripes on the sleeves of the official Bengals jersey were slightly separated, while the stripes on the sides of the legs and around the calves of the socks were joined together. However, in wintry conditions throughout this time period, the team often wore special cold-weather versions of its jersey that had long sleeves extending to mid-forearm. Due to an oversight in the designing process at the manufacturer, the stripes on the cold-weather jersey were joined, just like the striping on the pants and the socks. The discrepancy was never corrected. The cold-weather jersey was worn as needed through the late-1970s. When the uniform was changed in 1980 — and again in '81 — the team chose not to create another cold-weather jersey. In wintry conditions from that point on, players instead wore jerseys with normal-length sleeves on top of long-sleeve undershirts.

NOTE: The socks pictured here were worn from 1968-74 only.

1980 — THE CHANGE BEFORE THE STRIPES

While the overall original appearance remained intact, the Bengals' uniform underwent four alterations in 1980 to constitute a subtle — yet noticeable — uniform change.

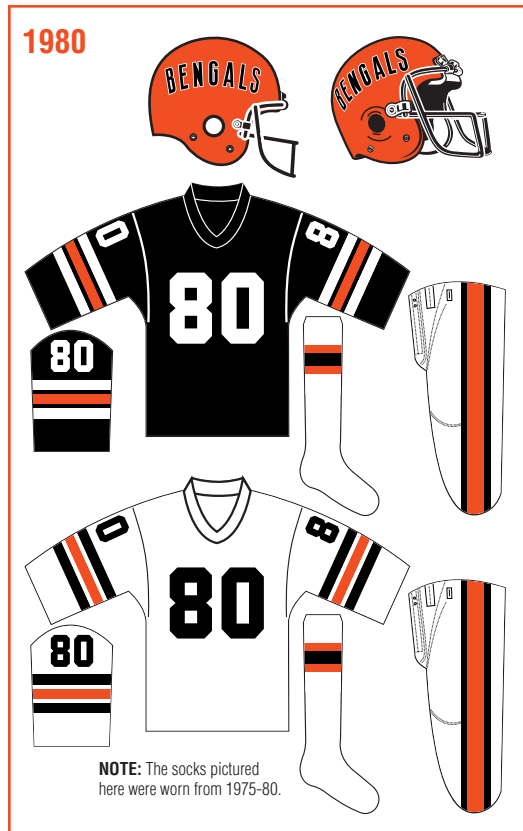

On the helmet, the team made two alterations — it switched facemask colors from gray to black, and added black uniform numbers on the back. On the jersey, the team added uniform numbers to the sides of the sleeves, just above the existing stripes. And on the pants, the orange stripe was widened to about twice its original thickness, though the width of the surrounding black stripes remained the same.

The socks pictured here — white, with one black stripe surrounded by two orange stripes at its mid-calf — had actually been the team's lone sock design since 1975.

Interesting facts from this uniform era:

• Television changed football, including the uniforms: The popularity of professional football grew immensely from the 1960s through the '80s, and much of the NFL's progress throughout that era was attributed to significant television exposure. Television changed the game in many ways, both substantially and minutely. When the Bengals added uniform numbers to the sides of their jersey sleeves in 1980, they were following a slow, evolving uniform design trend that started in the mid-1960s as a result of the league's desire to become more viewer-friendly on television. In fact, uniform numbers that were added to sleeves or shoulders were referred to as "TV numbers," since their placement was intended to aid broadcast announcers and viewers in quickly identifying players from various camera angles. The league did not have a rule requiring teams to place TV numbers on uniforms until 1991, though by that time nearly all uniforms already had them. Also in 1980, the Bengals added uniform numbers to the team's helmet. Those numbers, however, were affixed for the purpose of quickly identifying which player a helmet belonged to if it was taken off and set down during a game. There still is no league rule requiring teams to place uniform numbers on helmets.

• The new pants were official in 1980, but debuted in '79: While the Bengals did not officially add the pants with the widened orange stripe to their uniform until 1980, that design actually appeared on a limited trial basis in 1979. The 1979 trials were not team-wide, with only a few players wearing the new design during select games that season.

1981-96 — THE STRIPES

In 1981, the Bengals introduced a bold new uniform which was dramatically different than the relatively conservative designs the team had used since 1968.

Perhaps the most eye-catching distinction of the complete makeover was the team's new helmet. The helmet remained orange and retained its black facemask, but replacing the block-letter "Bengals" logotype were the team's new signature tiger stripes. Six black tiger stripes were placed on the helmet, extending from one side to the other.

Paul Brown, the team's founder who then held the title of Vice President and General Manager, said the team wanted a helmet that would be instantly identifiable with the Cincinnati franchise, something akin to the Baltimore Colts' horseshoe helmet and the San Diego Chargers' lightning bolt helmet.

"You couldn't read 'Bengals' on our helmet from a distance," Brown said at the time. "When you were far away, it looked like Cleveland's helmet."

The black jersey, the white jersey and the white pants of the new uniform featured a black tiger-stripe pattern on top of a wide orange stripe. On the jerseys, the pattern appeared on the shoulders. On the pants, it extended straight down the full length of each leg.

In addition, the uniform numbers on the front and back, as well as those on sides of the sleeves, were given orange outlines. The letters on the players' nameplates, however, remained solid color — white on the black jersey, and black on the white jersey — and were not given outlines.

The new uniform was assigned orange-topped socks — white socks with an orange top from the rim to the bottom of the calf. The team's primary shoe color remained white.

Interesting facts from this uniform era:

- Sleeves became shorter over time: From when the Bengals began play in 1968 through the mid-'80s, the sleeve length of the jersey was somewhat long by today's standards, reaching to just above the elbow. In the mid-'80s, sleeves began shortening over time to the current-day length, reaching only to the lower shoulder or upper biceps. By 1991, all of the team's jerseys were made with the shorter sleeves, and the original elbow-length sleeves were never produced again.

- NFL marks were added in 1991: Not pictured here, small NFL shield logos were added to the Bengals' helmets, jerseys and pants in 1991. All NFL teams added the logos as part of a minor league-wide alteration. On the helmets, the shields appeared in the rear left area. On the jerseys, it appeared on the front center of the collar. And on the pants, it was placed on the front left area just below the waist. In 2002, the NFL Equipment logo replaced the shield logos on the jerseys and the pants, though the shield remained on the helmet. Though they are not included on these 1981-96 uniform illustrations, the shield and equipment logos are incorporated into the 1997-2003 and '04-present illustrations on the following two pages, respectively.

- The stripes did not remain entirely the same: The black tiger-stripe patterns on the shoulders of the jersey and the legs of the pants during this era did not always perfectly match those on the illustrations pictured here. Though hardly noticeable, the patterns differed slightly from one uniform manufacturer to the next. In most cases, the stripes were less wide and more numerous. At the time, minor variations of this nature were considered acceptable as long as they were negligible and did not change the overall appearance of the uniform design.

1997-2003 — THE UPDATED STRIPES

In 1997, the Bengals introduced alterations to their uniform which were termed “evolutionary, not revolutionary.” While the helmet remained unchanged and the general look of the uniform remained intact, several modifications were made on the jerseys, pants and socks.

Perhaps the most notable of the changes was the addition of the team's new leaping tiger logo on the sleeves of the jersey. Because the new logo was placed where uniform numbers previously had been, the numbers on the sleeves were moved to the tops of the shoulders.

Also on the jersey, the black tiger-stripe patterns on the shoulders were simplified with wider stripes. The white jersey was altered further to include black trim on the sleeves and collar. And the letters on the nameplates of both the black jersey and white jersey were given orange outlines to match the jersey numbers, which had been given orange outlines in the uniform's 1981 redesign.

On the pants, the black tiger-stripe patterns on the sides of the legs were simplified with wider stripes to match the new jersey stripes. And, the orange-topped socks that the team had been wearing since 1981 were replaced by black-topped socks.

Interesting facts from this uniform era:

• Another not so noticeable change was made in 1997: There was another alteration made with this Bengals uniform change — not in design, but in makeup. All of the jersey numbers and the letters of the nameplates were converted from printed images to stitched fabric. The stitched fabric process — called “tackle twill” — produced more vivid colors, and the result was much more durable. With the nameplate letters and the jersey numerals altered to tackle twill, the black tiger-stripe pattern on the shoulders and pants were the only remaining printed items. The tiger stripes were not changed because the additional stitching required for tackle twill would have significantly reduced the elasticity of the ends of the shoulders and the sides of the pants. And, since those were considered high-stretch areas, the print process remained the better choice for the tiger stripes.

• Incorrect stripes were placed on 1999 pants: Two years after the Bengals made the 1997 alterations, a new manufacturer of the uniforms mistakenly produced pants with the previous tiger-stripe pattern that was used from 1981-96. The discrepancy was considered minor, since most of the 1997 alterations had occurred on the jersey. In fact, the mistake wasn't even noticed until after the 1999 season had started. Thus, the team wore the incorrectly-striped pants for the rest of the season, and the error was corrected for the following year.

2004-PRESENT — THE NEW STRIPES

For the first time in 23 years and just the second time in team history, the Bengals' uniform underwent a complete redesign in 2004.

The team's signature tiger-striped helmet, widely considered among the most distinctive in football since its introduction in 1981, was not altered. The changes to the rest of the new uniform, however, were numerous.

The most noticeable differences from the previous design were the additions of a third jersey, a second pant and a second sock. To supplement its regular black and white jerseys, the team added a special-occasion orange jersey which could be worn in up to two games per year. Black pants were added to the lineup, marking the first time in team history that pants of a color other than white were officially part of the team's uniform. And, the orange-topped sock — worn in the 1981-96 uniform era — returned to the lineup as a mix-and-match option, joining the black-topped sock introduced in '97.

All three jerseys displayed a new tiger-stripe pattern on the shoulders. The black jersey featured orange sleeves, and orange trim on the sleeves and collar. The white and orange jerseys had black sleeves, with black sleeve and collar trim. The sleeves of all three jerseys were given white undersides. On the black and orange jerseys, the white undersides on the sleeves continued as wide stripes down the sides.

Modern, more rounded numerals replaced the block-letter uniform numbers that had adorned Bengals jerseys of the past, and the orange outline on the new numbers was given a shadow effect. In addition, the leaping tiger logo was removed from the sleeve, while the team's new striped "B" logo was placed in the center of the chest area, just below the neckline.

Both pants featured a new tiger-stripe pattern on the sides of the legs. However, unlike the old stripes, the new stripes did not extend straight down the full length of the legs. Instead, the new stripes curved slightly forward to a point just above the knees.

Interesting fact from this uniform era:

- 2004 black pants were the first to be official, but not the first to be worn: The Bengals' uniform officially included black pants for the first time in team history in 2004. However, 2004 did not mark the first time the team had worn black pants in a game. A year before, in 2003, the team was granted by the NFL the option to use black pants in two games as part of the redesign process that resulted in the new 2004 uniform. The team exercised that option, wearing black pants on a temporary trial basis for both their 2003 regular-season opener and finale. Those 2003 black pants, however, possessed the team's older tiger-stripe pattern of that era (see 1997-2003 illustrations on previous page), and were never worn again. The black pants that were permanently added to the lineup in 2004 were updated with the new tiger-stripe pattern.

2004-PRESENT

BENGALS LOGOS — THEN & NOW

1967-69 — RUNNING TIGER

The Cincinnati Bengals franchise was founded in 1967, a year before it began play in the modern-era American Football League. For its first logo, the team chose a caricature of a tiger, running with a football under its right arm. Flying off the tiger's head was a white helmet with another tiger's head painted on its side.

The team used this logo while they were members of the AFL through the 1969 season, though the logo never appeared on the team's uniform.

1970-80 — BLOCK-LETTERED HELMET

When the AFL merged with the NFL in 1970 — the same year the Bengals began play in the new Riverfront Stadium (later renamed Cinergy Field) — the team's logo shifted from the running tiger to a representation of the helmet the players had been wearing since the team began play in 1968.

The helmet representation, which like the real helmet was orange with "Bengals" arched across both sides in block letters, remained the team's logo through the 1980 season. The helmet logo, however, used much larger letters for "Bengals" than what actually appeared on the real helmets.

1981-96 — STRIPED HELMET

Prior to the Bengals' 1981 season — the season of their first Super Bowl appearance — the team introduced a bold new uniform that featured a distinctive, eye-catching new helmet that was orange with six black tiger stripes extending from one side to the other. With the uniform redesign, the team's logo changed from a representation of the block-lettered helmet to a representation of the new striped helmet.

When it was first introduced, the striped helmet logo was a two-dimensional side view with a two-barred face mask. By the end of the 1980s, the logo evolved into the image pictured here — a three-dimensional angled view with a multi-barred face mask. As a result of the angled view, only five of the six stripes are visible in this striped helmet logo.

1997-2003 — LEAPING TIGER

In 1997, the Bengals made subtle alterations to their uniforms. With the alterations, the team unveiled a new logo of a leaping tiger which adorned the sleeves of the uniform's new jersey. That new leaping tiger replaced the striped helmet as the team's primary logo.

The leaping tiger logo, pictured here with the team's logotype of that era, was an illustration of an aggressive-looking orange tiger with black stripes that matched those on the team's helmet and white facial accents. The leaping tiger's head by itself was the team's secondary logo. In addition, the striped helmet logo also was still commonly used.

2004-PRESENT — STRIPED "B"

The Bengals' uniform underwent a complete redesign in 2004. As part of the change, the team introduced a new striped "B" logo and created a new team font. Simple in design, the logo was the new font's letter B, colored orange with three black tiger stripes.

The striped B was placed in the center of the team's new jersey, just below the neckline, while the Bengals font was used to create the team's new logotype. The striped B replaced the leaping tiger as the team's primary mark, though the leaping tiger and the leaping tiger's head were kept as secondary marks and are still used frequently.

TOP CATS IN OHIO

For the first time since after the second meeting of 1992, the Bengals have a three-game lead in their "Battle of Ohio" series against the Cleveland Browns. If the Bengals win the first meeting this season (Oct. 3 at Cleveland), they'll match their all-time largest lead at four.

Cincinnati leads 38-35 after defeating the Browns twice last season — 23-20 in OT on Oct. 4 in Cleveland and 16-7 on Nov. 29 at Paul Brown Stadium. The most recent previous three-game lead by the Bengals in the series was at the conclusion of 1992, when Cincinnati's edge was 24-21. The Bengals' largest series lead was four games at 24-20 after a win in the first meeting of 1992.

The Browns won a series-record seven straight from Cincinnati after falling behind 24-20, and the Bengals went all the way until 2006 without any lead in the series. The Bengals finally climbed back on top again when they gained a 34-33 edge with a two-game sweep in 2006. The Browns have since pulled into a couple of ties, but they have not led the series since prior to the first meeting of 2006.

The largest lead in series history has been five games by the Browns, who led 6-1 after the first meeting of 1973.

NO-WIN SITUATIONS

In the Bengals' first 42 seasons (1968-2009), two games have resulted in ties — one in 60 minutes of action and the other in a 75-minute contest.

On Nov. 9, 1969, at the Astrodome in Houston, Cincinnati kicker Horst Muhlmann's 18-yard field goal with 22 seconds left in the fourth quarter enabled the Bengals to tie the Oilers at 31-31. That effectively ended the game as regular-season overtime was not in the rules at the time (OT was added in 1974).

The only other tie game in Bengals history came on Nov. 16, 2008 at Paul Brown Stadium. The Bengals and Philadelphia Eagles battled to a 13-13 overtime deadlock for the NFL's first tie since 2002.

P.B. AND THE HALL OF FAME

Paul Brown, founder of the Cincinnati Bengals, was enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1967, and numerous other Hall of Fame members played and/or coached under Brown.

The most recent addition to P.B.'s disciples in the Hall of Fame was Bengals tackle Anthony Muñoz, considered by many to be the greatest offensive lineman in NFL history. Muñoz, a 1998 inductee, played his entire 13-year pro career (1980-92) with the Bengals. Some analysts thought he was too risky a prospect for an early first-round draft selection because he had experienced knee injuries in college. But Brown, as Bengals general manager in 1980, selected Muñoz with the No. 3 overall pick.

The 1997 Hall of Fame class included Don Shula, winningest coach in NFL history, who played defensive back in the NFL and was a rookie on Brown's defending NFL champion Cleveland Browns in 1951.

WR Charlie Joiner, who played for the Bengals under Brown from 1972-75, was elected to the Hall of Fame in the 1996 class of inductees. Also, 15 other players Brown coached for the Cleveland Browns are in the Hall of Fame. These players, and the years Brown coached them in Cleveland, are: Doug Atkins, DE, 1953-54; Jim Brown, FB, 1957-62; Willie Davis, DE, 1958-59; Len Dawson, QB, 1960-61; Len Ford, WR, 1950-57; Frank Gatski, C, 1946-56; Otto Graham, QB, 1946-55; Lou Groza, T/PK, 1946-59, 1961-62; Gene Hickerson, G (1958-60, 1962); Henry Jordan, DT, 1957-58; Dante Lavelli, WR, 1946-56; Mike McCormack, T, 1954-62; Bobby Mitchell, RB/WR, 1958-61; Marion Motley, FB/LB, 1946-53; and Bill Willis, G, 1946-53.

Former assistant coaches under Paul Brown who are in the Hall of Fame are Weeb Ewbank and Bill Walsh. Also in the Hall of Fame are Forrest Gregg, hired by Brown as Bengals head coach in 1980, and 2010 Hall inductee Dick LeBeau, whose assistant coaching tenure with the Bengals began in 1980, when Brown was the team's general manager.

STADIUM, NFL & MEDIA

Paul Brown Stadium, home of the Bengals on Cincinnati's downtown riverfront, plays host to its 11th NFL season in 2010. PBS, as it's known for short, opened in 2000. The first game was a preseason contest on Aug. 19 vs. the Chicago Bears, won 24-20 by the Bengals. The first regular-season game was on Sept. 10, when Cleveland posted a 24-7 win over Cincinnati.

The stadium has won numerous honors and has helped keep Cincinnati in the national sports spotlight. In 2010, three nationally televised prime time games are scheduled for the Bengals at home — on Aug. 20 vs. Philadelphia (FOX), on Nov. 8 vs. Pittsburgh (ESPN) and on Dec. 26 vs. San Diego (NBC).

PBS has hosted Bengals sellouts for a franchise-record 53 consecutive games (regular and postseason) as the 2010 season begins.

National recognition for PBS has come in various modes. In 2007, PBS was the only football stadium to make a Harris Interactive list of "America's favorite 150 buildings and structures." PBS ranked 101st on a list whose range included all manner of major structures — skyscrapers, museums, churches, hotels, bridges, national memorials and more. No other football stadium was voted among the top 150, and among all sports venues, only two historic baseball parks — Wrigley Field and the old Yankee Stadium — ranked higher than PBS.

In 2002, in an industry rarity, the stadium was singled out by both of the nation's premier architecture magazines, Architectural Record and Architecture. The two stories came on the heels of PBS receiving the 2001 Merit Award from the American Institute of Architects (California Council). It marked the first time an NFL stadium received the award from the prestigious AIA.

And in May of 1998, well before its completion, studies of the stadium's design led to it being among 15 winners from a field of more than 300 projects for an American Architecture Award.

Named for the Pro Football Hall of Fame legend who founded both the Cleveland Browns and Bengals franchises, Paul Brown Stadium includes 132 suites and 7600 club seats.

Additional facts and figures on PBS:

SEATING CAPACITY: 65,515.

DIMENSIONS: The stadium site covers approximately 22 acres, and Paul Brown Stadium itself reaches a height of 157 feet.

PLAYING SURFACE: FieldTurf.

PAUL BROWN

Paul Brown Stadium honors not only the founder and first coach of the Bengals, but a man who was also one of the great innovators in pro football history.

"Whether they know it or not, nearly everyone in football has been affected by Paul Brown," former NFL Commissioner Pete Rozelle said in 1991. "His wealth of ideas changed the game."

Elected in 1967 to the Pro Football Hall of Fame, Brown also was founder and first coach of the Cleveland Browns, whom he guided to seven league championships in their first 12 seasons. He posted a .665 winning percentage over 25 years of pro coaching (222-112-9, including playoffs). Earlier in his career, he created an Ohio dynasty at Massillon High School and coached Ohio State University to a national championship (1942).

Brown pioneered coaching as a year-round profession, invented the draw play, introduced the use of face masks on helmets, initiated film study and classroom instruction of players, and was the first coach to call plays from the sidelines. He also broke the color barrier in modern American pro sports, as his Cleveland team featured black stars Marion Motley and Bill Willis in 1946, a year before Jackie Robinson's debut in Major League Baseball.

Born in Norwalk, Ohio, and reared in Massillon, Brown was Bengals coach and general manager from 1968-75. He stepped down as coach following an 11-3 season in 1975, and continued in the GM's role until his death at age 82 on Aug. 5, 1991.

Bengals players report July 28 to training camp at Georgetown (Ky.) College, with the first practice scheduled for July 29.

The training camp facility, anchored by 5000-seat Toyota Stadium, is one of the finest in use by an NFL team. Athletic Management, a national sports management magazine, has recognized the complex with its "Excellence in Outdoor Facilities" award.

The Bengals moved their training camp to Georgetown in 1997 after 29 seasons of training at Wilmington (Ohio) College. Georgetown's commitment to meet state-of-the-art standards has brought unprecedented media attention to training camp and has helped the Bengals develop their Central Kentucky fan base.

The facility is an hour's drive south of downtown

Cincinnati. Training camp admission is free, though the college collects fees for on-campus parking.

The team will break camp on Aug. 13. Camp is closed to the public and/or media on selected days, due to team practice and travel schedules. Daily schedule information is available at (502) 868-6300.

DIRECTIONS: From downtown Cincinnati, take I-75 South approximately 70 miles to Exit 126 (Georgetown). Turn right off ramp onto Cherry Blossom Way (US 460 Bypass). Stay on this main thoroughfare for approximately two miles and turn right at the sixth traffic light, Lemons Mill Rd. (Route 1962 West). Pass the Johnson Controls plant on the right and turn right onto Crawford Drive, which leads directly to the training camp facility.

Reaching out to help others

The Bengals organization is committed to improving lives in Greater Cincinnati and the surrounding region.

Bengals players, coaches and staff acknowledge their unique public role and are devoted to working with non-profit organizations, schools and civic groups to make positive contributions and change. The club promotes an understanding of how team involvement can bring a voice to critical issues. The Bengals welcome the opportunity to give back to a community that has unconditionally supported the team for more than 40 years.

Non-profit organizations throughout Greater Cincinnati and the surrounding region look to the Bengals for assistance. Beneficiaries may receive money, food, toys, clothing, autographed items, tours, training camp visits, or something as simple as a smile brought about by a visit from a player or coach.

Community involvement takes many forms. The Bengals sponsor fund-raising events, make donations to many charitable organizations, make personal appearances, and provide vital community information on the team's Web site (bengals.com). Staff, players and coaches also serve on various community boards and commissions.

The Bengals provide support to the annual United Way of Greater Cincinnati campaign through both corporate and individual gifts by coaches, players and administrative employees.

Head coach Marvin Lewis continues to use his voice, doing public service announcements for a range of non-profit organizations in the region.

Running backs coach Jim Anderson has been a member on the steering committee of United Way's African-American Leadership Initiative — The Herbert R. Brown Society. Assistant head coach Paul Alexander and defensive backs coach Kevin Coyle have both worked for the D.A.R.E. drug resistance program in schools. Alexander gives time to the Boy Scouts, and Coyle has spoken to emotionally troubled youth at Cincinnati's Children's Hospital, assisted the Boys & Girls Club and aided non-profit initiatives to interest high school students in technology-based careers.

Tight ends coach Jonathan Hayes is a board member of the Greater Cincinnati chapter of the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation, and Jeff Berding — Bengals director of sales and public affairs — has graduated from his leadership service with the United Way to join Cincinnati City Council, elected in 2005 and re-elected in '07 and '09.

Today's children face an endless array of challenges and decisions, which makes community role models and leaders more important than ever. With this in mind, Coach Lewis and his wife, Peggy, launched the Marvin Lewis Community Fund in 2003 with an initial $10,000 donation from the Bengals. Since its inception, the MLCF has donated more than $5.5 million, touched the lives of over 310,000 individuals, and is proud to invest an astounding 93 cents of every dollar back into the community. The mission of the MLCF is to empower, educate and inspire individuals in the Greater Cincinnati region.

The MLCF's two largest and most recognizable fundraisers are The Marvin Lewis Golf Classic (MLGC) each May and Football 101, which takes place during the Bengals' bye week. This year's MLGC raised over $300,000 and enabled the awarding of four $20,000 college scholarships to deserving high school seniors. One of those scholarships was given in the name of Vikki Zimmer, late wife of Bengals defensive coordinator Mike Zimmer. Also at the MLGC, through proceeds from the second annual Pink Out at Paul Brown Stadium on March 5, 2010, two more $20,000 scholarships were awarded in honor of Sharon Thomas, the Fund's late Executive Director.

Football 101 sells out every year and brings nearly 400 women to Paul Brown Stadium to learn about foot-

Money raised from these events supports the Marvin Lewis Scholarship Fund, Marvin Lewis USA Football Coaching Clinic, Marvin Lewis Football Camp, Marvin Lewis Coach of the Year Award, Hometown Huddle, and the MLCF's newest initiative, Learning is Cool.

Learning is Cool is an educational incentive program that rewards students for strong academic performance and is a partnership between the MLCF and Cincinnati Public Schools. The program is designed to encourage all first-through-eighth grade students in Cincinnati Public Schools to make the "A" honor roll each quarter. Students who reach that goal two quarters of the year are invited to the Academic Achievement Ceremony at Paul Brown Stadium. For the 2010-2011 school year, spokesmen for the program include Marvin Lewis, Robert Geathers, Domata Peko, Johnathan Joseph, Anthony Collins, Andrew Whitworth, Nate Livings, Andre Smith, Leon Hall and Roy Williams.

Coach Lewis has been a tireless community activist and youth advocate, making hundreds of community appearances and using his celebrity to bring a voice to shine a light on many area needs.

He has strengthened the franchise's ties to the community. A partial list of organizations that have benefited includes: The Wellness Community, Big Brothers Big Sisters, The Children's Home of Cincinnati, Cancer Family Care, Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center, the Ronald McDonald House, Down Syndrome Association, FreeStore/FoodBank, Boys Hope Girls Hope, Drug Free Cincinnati, Boys and Girls Clubs of Greater Cincinnati, the National Multiple Sclerosis Society, One City Foundation, Cincinnati Reds Community Fund, Richard E. Lindner YMCA, Salvation Army, Youth Incorporated, University of Cincinnati, and Minorities in Mathematics, Science and Engineering (M2SE).

In recent years, Bengals players have continued to increase their level of involvement in the community. Last season, they made more than 300 community appearances to schools, youth groups and teams and charity events.

Many Bengals players have their own foundations or sponsor charitable fund-raising activities dedicated to improving the community. Those players include Cedric Benson, Quan Cosby, Leon Hall, Chinedum Ndukwe, Chad Ochocinco, Antwan Odom, Carson Palmer, Froste Rucker, Pat Sims, Andre Smith, Andrew Whitworth and Roy Williams.

Other team programs include:

NFL GRASSROOTS GRANT PROGRAM: The Bengals and the NFL have teamed up to support youth sports by contributing to local efforts to improve football fields throughout the region. More than $800,000 has been contributed in the last few years to Withrow, Oak Hills, Lockland and Clinton-Massie high schools to install state-of-the-art synthetic playing fields. In addition to boosting football programs, these multi-use fields serve as valuable assets for the entire community.

HOMETOWN HUDDLE: The NFL/United Way "Hometown Huddle" is an NFL-wide day of service that provides NFL players, coaches and other volunteers the opportunity to create a lasting impression in the community. In 2009, the Bengals' Hometown Huddle enabled the building of a park next to Cincinnati's Price Hill Community Center, complete with a ParCourse FitCircuit, walking path, an expanded and permanent community garden and a new storage shed. Past projects include an activity course in College Hill, a ParCourse at Cincinnati Children's Hospital, a universally accessible treehouse in Mt. Airy Forest, a playground at Seasongood Park, and refurbishment of Rothenberg Elementary on Vine Street.

Ashlee Koester/Bliss Photos

COACH OF THE WEEK: A league-wide program that is designed to give the recognition that high school football coaches deserve for molding the lives of young adults. Each winner's school receives a $1000 donation to the school's football program.

PLAY 60: Bengals players have enthusiastically supported this NFL program that encourages kids to enjoy at least 60 minutes of vigorous outdoor activity per day, and also to adopt a proper diet. Some players have reached the 10-15 range in number of school visits.

CINCINNATI BENGALS TASTE OF THE NFL: Bengals players, coaches and alumni join with benefactors of the FreeStore/FoodBank of Cincinnati while dining on samples from Cincinnati's finest restaurants. The Bengals Taste of the NFL has been held each year since 2003, and in 2009, with 800 guests in attendance, the event raised more than $100,000, helping the FreeStore/FoodBank to provide more than 300,000 meals during the year to persons in need. The Bengals also team up with the FreeStore/FoodBank to collect canned goods and other non-perishable foods for the Annual Holiday Canned Food Drive.

HOXWORTH BLOOD DRIVE: Bengals players, alumni, cheerleaders and staff are present annually at Paul Brown Stadium to help the Hoxworth Blood Center collect donations before the busy holiday season. In 2005, the drive earned the Bengals a Special Recognition Award from America's Blood Centers, an organization based in Washington, D.C. In 2009, the eighth annual drive collected 749 blood products, helping to save an estimated 2247 lives in the region. The drive has set numerous records for largest single-day blood drive in Greater Cincinnati.

CANNED FOOD DRIVE: For more than a decade, the Bengals have conducted a canned food drive to benefit Cincinnati's FreeStore/FoodBank. In 2009, more than 9200 pounds of non-perishable and canned goods were collected, an increase of more than 1500 pounds over 2008. Also during the 2009 drive, fans with no food to offer contributed more than $11,000, a $3000 increase over '08. During the drive's history, an estimated 95,000 pounds of food and $80,000 in donations have been secured.

TOYS FOR TOTS: The Bengals and the U.S. Marine Corps annually team up at Paul Brown Stadium to collect Christmas toys for disadvantaged local youth. More than 39,000 new toys and $230,000 have been donated.

HIGH SCHOOL PLAYER DEVELOPMENT: Bengals players and coaches in 2009 visited Colerain High School in Greater Cincinnati, working with students on character development as well as football fundamentals.

BENGALS TV, RADIO & INTERNET

Dan Hoard

Anthony Muñoz

Mike Valpredo

Brad Johansen

Dave Lapham

Geoff Hobson

— BENGALS PRESEASON TELEVISION —

Dan Hoard and Anthony Muñoz team up in the broadcast booth for this season's games on the Bengals Preseason TV Network. Hoard does play-by-play, with Muñoz as the analyst. Mike Valpredo returns for his sixth season as sideline reporter.

For the 22nd time in the past 23 years, Cincinnati's WKRC-TV (Ch. 12) is the flagship station of the network. Also on the network are WKEF-TV (Ch. 22) and WRGT-TV (Ch. 45) in Dayton, Ohio; WSYX-TV (Ch. 6) and WTTE-TV (Ch. 28) in Columbus, Ohio; WLIO-TV (Ch. 35) in Lima, Ohio; and WDRB-TV (Ch. 41) in Louisville, Ky.

Hoard, a former sports director and broadcaster at Cincinnati's WXIX-TV (FOX 19), is also the radio voice of Univ. of Cincinnati football and basketball, and the radio and TV voice of baseball's Pawtucket (R.I.) Red Sox. He will break from baseball duty as needed this summer to join the Bengals Network. Muñoz, Bengals' Hall of Fame offensive tackle, is in his 13th season as preseason analyst. Valpredo has worked as a sports anchor in Columbus, Ohio, and is currently an anchor and reporter for the TVG Network in Los Angeles.

— BENGALS WEEKLY TV SHOW —

The Bengals produce a weekly television show — Bengals Weekly with Marvin Lewis — that will air every Sunday morning during the 2010 NFL regular season at 11:30 A.M. on WKRC-TV (Ch. 12) in Cincinnati and WRGT-TV (Ch. 45) in Dayton. The show will air on Saturdays in Columbus on WTTE-TV (Ch. 28).

— BENGALS RADIO NETWORK —

Bengals games will be aired this season on three Clear Channel flagship radio stations in the Cincinnati market. All games will be carried by Cincinnati's ESPN 1530 (WCKY-AM) and 102.7 FM WEBN. Also, once the Major League Baseball season is over, games will also be aired on 700 WLW-AM. The Bengals Radio Network includes stations across Ohio as well as in Kentucky and West Virginia.

Brad Johansen, former play-by-play voice on Bengals preseason television, returns for his 11th season on radio play-by-play. Johansen is sports anchor for Cincinnati's WKRC-TV (CBS/Ch. 12).

Dave Lapham, a Bengals offensive lineman from 1974-83, is in his 25th consecutive season as the analyst on Bengals radio broadcasts. He also is an analyst for Big 12 college games on TV's FOX Sports Net, as well as working on FOX Sports Ohio's Cincinnati area high school games of the week. In past years, he broadcast NFL games for NBC and FOX and worked the NFL Europe League's World Bowl game for Sporting News Radio.

As of July 6, the Bengals Radio Network included 28 stations:

— BENGALS.COM —

The club's official Web site, bengals.com, offers a variety of features, including up-to-the-down live coverage of every game, complete with news stories, sidebars, and analysis. During the season, the site provides breaking news, daily team updates and notes, and extensive multimedia offerings, including video of head coach Marvin Lewis and Carson Palmer news conferences each week, and postgame press conferences. During the week, the site hosts one-on-one video interviews with players and coaches. Geoff Hobson, former Bengals beat reporter for The Cincinnati Post and later for The Cincinnati Enquirer, is the Web site editor.

Also available on bengals.com are the club's roster, depth chart, biographies of coaches and players, as well as information regarding tickets, cheerleaders and Paul Brown Stadium.

— GAME DAYS —

CREDENTIALS FOR HOME GAMES: To receive a media credential for a Bengals game, one must be a member of an accredited news organization with a legitimate working function that requires access to the stadium. No one under 18 years old may use a credential. Interns of news organizations are not permitted to use credentials (unless prior clearance from the Bengals' public relations department is sought and granted). Media are not permitted to have guests of any kind (executives, sponsors, advertisers, friends, family, etc.) in secured areas of the stadium (in the press box/booth area, on the field, in the locker rooms, etc.) at any time. Credential privileges can and will be revoked if any of these or the following policies are not honored. Credential use is monitored. All credential requests for home games should be made in writing on company letterhead by the media organization's manager — the sports editor of a newspaper, for example, or the sports director of a TV or radio station. Place all requests to the attention of Bengals public relations director Jack Brennan. All requests should be faxed (513-621-3570) or e-mailed (jack.brennan@bengals.nfl.net) by 5 p.m. on the Mondays preceding the games. Please specify the types of credentials required — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Also note whether you wish to pick up the credentials in person or have them left at will call. All credentials are nontransferable.

MEDIA WILL CALL/MEDIA ENTRANCE: Will call is located on the plaza on north side of the stadium (the downtown side) between Gates B and C. All media must enter the media entrance next to Gate B on the plaza on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium. Media will not be admitted through any other entrance. The media entrance opens five hours prior to kickoff (at 8 a.m. for a 1 p.m. game). In order to enter the stadium, each reporter or photographer must meet the following three conditions (if any of the three conditions are not met, he/she will not be permitted to enter the stadium): (1) He/she must have the proper credential; (2) he/she must present a photo ID (i.e., driver's license); and (3) his/her name must be on the media list (names should be provided to the Bengals' public relations department by your sports editor/director prior to each home game). All equipment and baggage is subject to visual search.

PRESS BOX/BOOTH: Option No. 1: Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium. Take the escalator just inside the gate entrance. The escalator terminates one level above the press box. Take a right at the end of the escalator, and descend one flight of stairs and turn right. The press box will be straight ahead inside the glass doors. Option No. 2: Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Follow the concourse and descend the concourse stairs on the west side of the stadium. The elevators are located on the right immediately after the glass wall and escalator. Take an elevator to CS (Club Suite) Level. The press box is adjacent to the elevators.

PHOTOGRAPHERS' WORK AREA: Enter media entrance on the plaza next to Gate B on the northwest side (downtown side, close to practice fields) of the stadium and turn right. Follow the concourse and descend the concourse stairs on the west side of the stadium. The elevators are located on the right immediately after the glass wall and escalator. Take an elevator to FL (Field Level). Turn right into the hallway. Turn left at the southwest truck dock. Photographer check-in (photographers must sign an injury waiver form for a media vest and field access) will be on the left.

TELEPHONES/WI-FI ACCESS: There are many general-use telephones (analog only) located throughout the press box and photographers' work area. They provide free local calls, but require an 800 number for long distance service. In addition, high-speed wireless internet access is available in the press box and in the photographers' work area on field level. The service is free.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS/LOCKER ROOM ACCESS: For media with locker room access, the locker rooms are opened for interviews with players and coaches within 12 minutes after the conclusion of a game. Both the Bengals' locker room and the visitors' locker room have news conference rooms for the head coaches' postgame news conferences and any star players' postgame news conferences. Both news conference rooms include built-in multi-box systems for television and radio reporters, as well as proper lighting and audio amplification. TV/radio media can access the rooms before a game to set up equipment for use after the game.

WALKING DIRECTIONS FROM PRESS BOX TO STADIUM EXIT: To depart press box after game, take an elevator or the stairs to sideline level (SL). Turn right out of elevator lobby and exit through any "exit" gate, which are to the left of the entrance gates.

CREDENTIALS FOR AWAY GAMES: All credential requests for away games should be made in writing on company letterhead by the media organization's manager — the sports editor of a newspaper, for example, or the sports director of a TV or radio station. Place all requests to the attention of Bengals public relations director Jack Brennan. All requests should be faxed (513-621-3570) or e-mailed (jack.brennan@bengals.nfl.net) no later than 10 days before the game. Please specify the types of credentials required — reporter, photographer or otherwise — and note whether locker room access is necessary. Media from outside the Greater Cincinnati region should submit requests to the home team.

HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS FOR AWAY GAMES: Place all requests to Bengals business manager Bill Connelly (513-455-8333 or william.connelly@bengals.nfl.net) no later than 5 p.m. on the Tuesdays before the games. Please note the types of accommodations required.

— DURING THE WEEK —

MEDIA ROOM: The Bengals have a media workroom at Paul Brown Stadium that is available for media use during business hours. Countertop space, electrical outlets, telephones and high-speed wireless internet access are available.

PRACTICES: All practices after training camp are partially open to the media. Call the Bengals' public relations department for times.

HEAD COACH INTERVIEWS: The Bengals' head coach is available for interviews in a news conference setting at scheduled times during the week. Call the Bengals' public relations department for times.

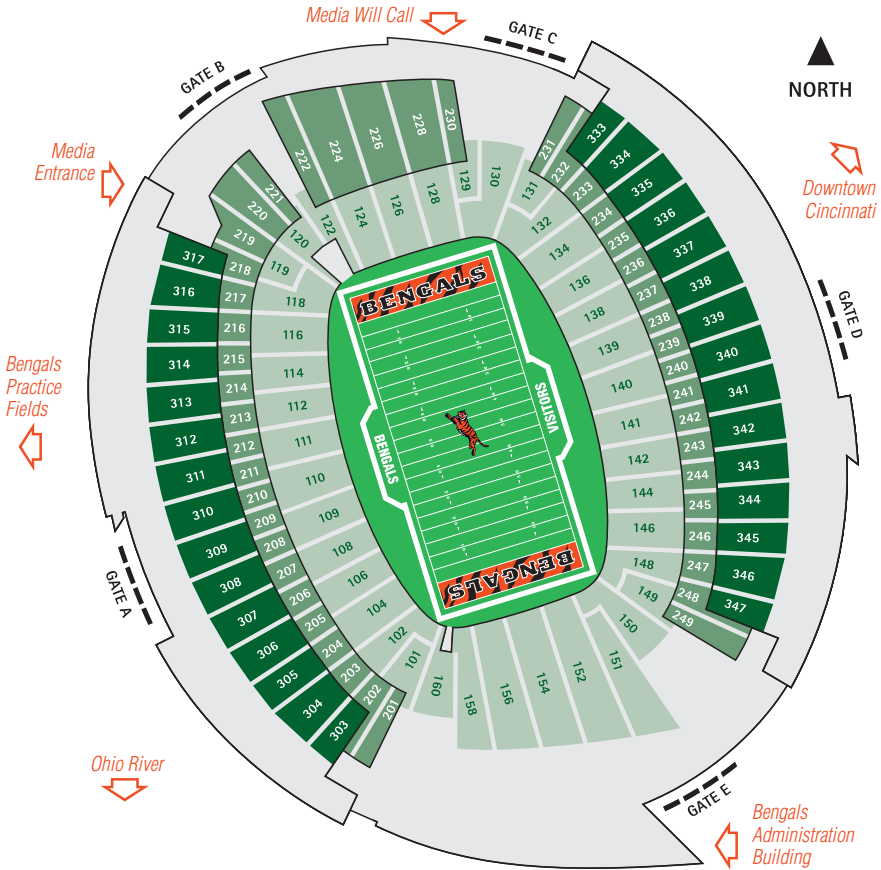

LOCKER ROOM/PLAYER INTERVIEWS: The team's locker room at Paul Brown Stadium is open to the media at scheduled times during the week. Call the Bengals' public relations department for times.

TV INTERVIEW ROOM: Space for television reporters to conduct interviews is available upon request. Chairs and electrical outlets for lighting are available, but background materials and lights are not provided.
